

continue dedicating his life to public service. His next move took him to Maine, where he was named the director of the Emergency Management Agency for Piscataquis County in 2005, acting as a link between communities and the State in responding to natural and manmade disasters in Maine's least populous county. He returned to the Granite State in 2012 and became involved in courthouse security for the New Hampshire Judicial Branch's facilities in Manchester.

Throughout his career, Tom was a strong proponent of what we now know as community policing. He knew the value of police officers building trust and forging strong ties with the people they serve. When he served as chief in Bradford, Pembroke, and Litchfield, Tom was a reliable and approachable presence in the community. His commitment to this community-based approach did not surprise those who knew him and his commitment to helping and enjoying the company of others. At many local potlucks, he was known to bring his trademark Norwegian meatballs with pasta. Although incredibly giving of his time and wisdom, Tom kept this recipe a closely-held secret.

The Granite State and the many communities he served are grateful for his many gifts and acts of selfless service. In the last month, family and friends have gathered to share and cherish their many fond memories of him. I am with them in spirit as they reflect on the life of this good and generous man.●
