

IN HONOR OF DAVID P. FRYER

HON. JOHN JOYCE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 16, 2020

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor David P. Fryer of Huntingdon County for his service in the United States Army Military Police. David is an outstanding Pennsylvanian, and I am grateful for his service to our nation, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and our community.

In Pennsylvania and across the country, our veterans have served and sacrificed for Americans' freedom and our values. They answered the call to serve and fight for us—at a great cost. Truly, our veterans are the best of America.

In Congress, it is my privilege—and my responsibility—to stand up for those who have served our country in uniform, as well as to recognize these brave Americans. As a nation, we are indebted to them. On behalf of the 13th Congressional District, I thank David for his service to our nation and our community.

HONORING THE 2020 WOMEN OF THE YEAR

HON. JOHN GARAMENDI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 16, 2020

Mr. GARAMENDI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the 2020 Women of the Year. The honorees represent some of the most outstanding and dedicated women in the 3rd Congressional District. Nominated by their peers, these women and the leadership they have provided are being recognized for playing an integral and crucial role in improving the lives of everyone in their communities. This year, we mark the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment, guaranteeing and protecting women's constitutional right to vote. Since then, our nation has seen women take great strides in every American industry from business to politics to the arts. This progress has not come easy and many women who have come before have worked hard and strived to achieve the independence and rights women have today. Though there is more work to be done to ensure that women have equal pay, flexible work schedules, and affordable education, each of the honorees will be a vital part of the work to get there.

2020's Women of the Year are:

Born and raised in Colusa County, Janita Smith has used her creativity, determination, and skilled leadership to make a vast and visible impact on her community. Janita is a dedicated advocate for the most vulnerable populations in her community. For years, she has donated her time to reducing hunger by volunteering at and coordinating food drives, including an annual giveaway for the Christmas holiday. In 1998 she co-founded the Colusa County Food Basket Association, creating a nonprofit organization that dedicates itself to serving those in most need throughout Colusa. What began as a very small community outreach program has now grown into an immensely rewarding Colusa County community service program that has served and fed an average of 450 local families every holiday season for the past ten years. Recently, Janita collaborated with a local veteran's group to identify and create a register of all deceased veterans interred at the local Catholic cemetery. She spent nearly two years researching and networking with local families to ensure that all veterans were accounted for. Her work ensured that all 245 veterans were honored on Memorial Day with an American flag on their grave, marking their service and sacrifice. Janita's compassion, generosity, and heartfelt dedication to making her community a better place are an inspiration to all who know her.

HONORING THE ACHIEVEMENTS AND UNSELFISH WORK OF HILLSBOROUGH COMMISSIONER LESLEY "LES" MILLER, JR.

HON. KATHY CASTOR

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, November 16, 2020

Ms. CASTOR of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today in admiration and respect to honor the achievements and unselfish work of Hillsborough Commissioner Lesley "Les" Miller, Jr. and to congratulate him on his retirement. Les' remarkable contributions to our hometown of Tampa have had a tremendous impact on our neighbors and citizens of Florida and is worthy of recognition.

Les was born in Tampa in 1951, graduated from Middleton High School and later served in the United States Air Force as an administrative specialist. He holds a bachelor's degree in political science and master's degree in public administration from the University of South Florida (USF) and received an honorary doctorate degree in humane letters from Florida A&M University in 2005. During his academic career, Les served as the First African American President of the Student Government Association and President of the Black Student Union. Before making a switch to political science, Les was a music major and rose to be drum major at Middleton High.

Les' involvement and willingness to serve did not stop after his college career. He also served as a member of the Florida House of Representatives from 1992 to 2000 and as a member in the Florida Senate from 2000 2006. Commissioner Miller was the first Democrat in Florida to serve as both Florida House and Senate Minority Leader. His hard work and dedication towards public policy and passion for giving back to his community, has granted him several awards including the Florida Education Association President's Award; the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Interfaith Memorial Service Robert W. Saunders Award for Efforts to Promote Civil Rights; the University of South Florida Presidents' Distinguished Citizen Award; the Early Learning Coalition Legislative Excellence Award; Florida League of Cities Legislative Award; and the Florida Housing Coalition Legislative Award.

Les has been an integral part of the growth and development of Moffitt Cancer Center, Florida's only National Cancer Institute-designated Comprehensive Cancer Center. Les was already a cancer survivor before Moffitt opened, but throughout his life, he and his loved ones still needed Moffitt more than he might have imagined. Les has survived three bouts of cancer, and both his wife, Gwen and daughter LeJeane, have twice survived cancer. Through his career in the Florida Legislature, Les made funding Moffitt one of his priority issues. His many accomplishments there, include, a measure he authored to earmark a percentage of Florida's tobacco sales taxes for Moffitt research and patient care. Les continues to give back through Moffitt's annual Men's Health Forum which encourages men regardless race, religion and socioeconomic background to get information and guidance on prostate and men health. Les credits Moffitt for being alive today and has made it a life mission to help the center in any capacity.

Les' relentlessness to fight for what is right inspired him to lead efforts throughout his career, both at the state and local level, for tough laws to stop gun violence and keep guns out of the hands of people like the men who shot his son, Trey. Les' tough and collaborative approach has allowed him success despite strong opposition from special interests and even the Florida Legislature. It passed a law to try to take gun violence efforts from local governments. Les' strength and passion can be seen in his continuing efforts to fight to stop gun violence even in the face of rules that threaten local officials personally who try to protect their communities.

During his tenure as a Commissioner for Hillsborough County, Les has continued to improve the lives of many by continuously fighting for affordable housing, better transportation and protection of the environment. He also served on several Boards and Councils including Aviation Authority, Committee of Six, Expressway Authority, Florida State Fair Authority, HART, Hillsborough County Emergency Policy Group, Metropolitan Planning Organization, Visit Tampa Bay, Tourist Development Council and Election Canvassing Board.

Outside of his role as Commissioner, Les continues to be an active voice in civic affairs including being a life member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. a member of Harram Temple No. 23, Prince Hall Shriners; a member of the United Supreme Council, 33rd Degree Mason, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Freemasonry, Prince Hall Affiliate; Life Member and Past Master of Landmark Lodge No.
