In addition to her work with over 50 nonprofits such as Garvan Woodland Gardens, The Arkansas Rice Depot, and the Hot Springs Documentary Film Festival, she spends much her time on children and teenagers with organizations like Youth Ranches, THEA Foundation, and multiple other educational programs.

Morris also co-founded the Hot Springs Giving Circle with Don Munro, a fellow Hot Springs citizen, with the effort of dispersing funds to numerous local organizations. She additionally started the Morris Foundation with her late husband, Walter.

Her induction into the Arkansas Women's Hall of Fame speaks to her incredible influence on the people of our state. I take this time to congratulate her on this high honor and thank her for her lifetime of service to the place we both call home.

REMEMBERING DR. THOMAS F. FREEMAN: EDUCATOR, SCHOLAR, AND LEGENDARY COACH AND TEACHER OF THE ART OF DEBATE

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to Dr. Thomas F. Freeman, who for more than 60 years has been a professor of philosophy at Texas Southern University, which is located in my congressional district.

Dr. Freeman died last week, on Saturday, June 6, 2020, in Houston, Texas at the age of 100 years old but forever young.

In addition to being an educator and scholar of the first rank, Dr. Freeman was world renowned as the legendary coach and teacher of the art of forensic debate and who helped shape the lives of countless young people who were his students, including the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and the late Congresswoman Barbara Jordan, who once held the seat I now hold.

Dr. Freeman's tools were the spoken word. His canvas was the minds of the brilliant and talented young African Americans seeking a higher education.

A prodigy himself, Dr. Freeman graduated from Virginia Union University at the age of 18 and went on to become a professor at Virginia Union University before his 30th birthday.

He would later receive degrees from Andover Newton Theological School; Harvard University; Chicago Divinity School; the University of Vienna in Austria, and the University of Liberia in Africa.

In 1949, Dr. Freeman was among a group of accomplished academics of color hired by Texas Southern University (TSU).

That same year he held a debate in his TSU logic class using his own undergraduate experience as a guide.

Debate is defined as a contention by words or arguments; or as a formal discussion of a motion before a deliberative body according to the rules of parliamentary procedure; or a regulated discussion of a proposition between two matched sides.

But to Dr. Freeman, it was much more than a contest; it was a way of life.

Dr. Freeman understood, as did Socrates when he said to Glaucon in Book X of the Republic that "the contest is great my dear Glaucon, greater than it seems—this contest that concerns becoming good or bad."

Dr. Freeman's success was informed by his passionate belief that strong debate skills translated into a range of life skills that would serve students well in their personal lives and professional careers.

Dr. Freeman's academic roots in moral philosophy and theology came through in his instruction of his debate team students.

Through the art of debate, Dr. Freeman taught what the ancient Greeks called areté, which is defined as an "activity of the soul in accord with virtue in a complete life."

As Aristotle explains in the Nicomachean Ethics, happiness comes from exercising the full range of one's vital powers directed toward excellence.

Virtue and excellence and happiness is what Dr. Freeman taught his students and that is why he and they were special.

In 1949, the Texas Southern University students who participated in Dr. Freeman's debate class were so impressed with their experience that they requested that Dr. Freeman form and coach a team.

Dr. Freeman agreed and founded the Texas Southern University debate program which today is world renowned for its skill and for the number of championships won.

Dr. Freeman was internationally known for his debate coaching prowess and for the prominent Americans who studied under his tutelage.

As noted, among them were the late Congresswoman Barbara Jordan and the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The debating skills that young Barbara Jordan developed under Dr. Freeman's tutelage were so formidable that she became the first female to travel with the TSU debate team.

She and her debate partner Otis King participated in and won many awards, including the championship at Baylor University, the first integrated debate match held in the South.

Barbara Jordan went on to become a Texas State Senator and the first Texas African American woman elected to the House of Representatives from my state.

She characterized her experience of learning under his tutelage as having shaped her view of the importance of mastering the skills of debate.

Congresswoman Jordan and Dr. Freeman remained close and upon her death he gave the eulogy at her funeral.

Dr. Freeman's skill as a debate coach came to the attention of Denzel Washington when he sought a model for the role of a debate coach for his role in the critically acclaimed film "The Great Debaters," based on life of Melvin B. Tolson, who formed the Wiley College debate team. The Wiley College debate team defeated the University of Southern California (USC) debate team for the 1935 national championship.

One of the students in Dr. Freeman's class during his tenure as a visiting lecturer at Morehouse University was a young Martin Luther King, Jr.

Dr. Freeman had such an influential effect on him that years later while he and a group of students happened to be in the same restaurant he was surprised when Dr. King approached his table to say hello and reminded him that he had been a student in his Morehouse class and shared with the students how much that experience shaped his life.

Dr. Freeman's contributions to the Texas Southern University Community included serving as Founding Dean of both the Weekend College and the Honors College.

Dr. Freeman worked with then TSU President Granville M. Sawyer to develop the program and serve as its dean.

The Honors College, renamed in his honor as the Thomas F. Freeman Honors College, was developed for academically gifted and motivated students to provide them with the most rigorous and challenging academic regimen.

In 1972, Dr. Freeman was asked by Rice University to join its faculty after it had desegregated.

Dr. Freeman began a 23-year career association with Rice University. As near as anyone recalls, he was the first African American professor to teach at this prestigious university before returning to TSU where he resumed teaching and leading the TSU debate team to countless victories.

The life of Dr. Thomas F. Freeman reminds us all of the impact a great teacher can have in changing the world for the better through his or her students.

Too often a teaching career is viewed by too many as an option taken by those who cannot excel elsewhere.

But those of us who know better know that it is the great teacher that makes it possible for us to succeed anywhere and in any pursuit.

Dr. Freeman was such a teacher.

But as he lived a full and complete life rooted in excellence, virtue, and service, he also was a minister of the gospel, community leader, husband, father, mentor, and a friend to thousands.

It can truly be said of Dr. Freeman that his has been a consequential life.

That is why Dr. Freeman is legendary and why in memory of this great man that I ask the House to observe a moment of silence as a tribute to Dr. Freeman's service to Texas Southern University, to America, and to humanity.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

Mr. WESTERMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor four exceptional students of Arkansas' Fourth Congressional District. These four young men recently accepted appointments into United States Service Academies, bringing their home district extreme pride in their academic excellence, their desire to serve, and their commitment to patriotism.

HONORING JIM YOUNG

HON. H. MORGAN GRIFFITH

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

Mr. GRIFFITH. Madam Speaker, I submit these remarks in honor of James Marion Young of Salem, Virginia, who passed away on June 12, 2020 at the age of 89. Jim devoted his time and attention to serving the people of his hometown through an impressive array of community and philanthropic organizations.

Jim was born on November 15, 1930. He was educated at Andrew Lewis High School in Salem, where he lettered in football and baseball, and at the University of Virginia, where he earned undergraduate and law degrees. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War and remained in the Army Reserves for 22 years, eventually attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Jim's profession was the law. He practiced for years in Roanoke at Dodson Pence Viar Young & Woodrum as a partner and then in Salem on his own. But he was also occupied with making Salem a better place and improving the lives of its citizens. Among the organizations he led were the Salem Jaycees, Salem Kiwanis, Salem-Roanoke County Bar Association, Salem High School PTA, Roanoke County Council of PTAs, Salem-Roanoke County Chamber of Commerce, and Roanoke Valley Economic Development Partnership. He chaired the Salem Electoral Board for 15 years and served on the Roanoke College Planned Giving Board. At his church, Salem Presbyterian, to which he belonged for more than 70 years, he served as deacon, elder, trustee, and Sunday School teacher.

The Boy Scouts of America had a special place in his heart. He took pride in the achievement of Eagle Scout rank by two of his grandsons. The organization benefited from his volunteerism over a span of more than fifty years. He was president of the Blue Ridge Mountains Council and provided it with his services as an attorney for free.

Many organizations and causes in Salem and the greater Roanoke region were served well by Jim, and they honored him in return. He was recognized by the Jaycees with the Distinguished Service Award, by the Boy Scouts with the Silver Beaver Award, and the Economic Development Partnership by being named Citizen of the Year. He was also inducted into the Salem High Alumni Hall of Fame.

Beside his many charitable pursuits, Jim enjoyed playing tennis and proved his skill on the court as a three-year Virginia United States Tennis Association doubles champion in the 75- to 80-year-old division and a two-year champion in the 80-plus age group.

I had the opportunity to know Jim personally, including from our mutual service on the board of the Blue Ridge Mountains Council. He invested a lot of time in his own daughters and the children of the community.

Jim's family was important to him. He was predeceased by one of his daughters, Cathy Harman. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Barbara, his daughters Debbie Harris, Becky Garrison, and Cindy Courtright and their husbands as well as Cathy's husband, and eight grandchildren. I offer my condolences to them on their loss. Many in the Roanoke Valley had their lives improved by Jim's tireless and selfless service.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF GEORGE WASHINGTON BIGGS

HON. RUBEN GALLEG0

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 2020

Mr. GALLEG0. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the 95th birthday of George Washington Biggs, and recognize his service as a veteran of Army Air Corps and Air Force. As a Tuskegee Airman and recipient of the Congressional Gold Medal, he is an exemplary American and Arizonan to whom we all owe a debt of gratitude.

A native of Nogales, Arizona, Mr. Biggs joined the Army Air Corps in 1943 and trained at the Tuskegee Institute, the all-black flight training school in Alabama. He was one of two Arizonans to graduate from the program. After training during World War II, Mr. Biggs re-enlisted in the Army Air Corps as a non-commissioned officer and subsequently received direct commission as an officer in the newly formed United States Air Force. He went on to achieve the rank of major and flew B-47 and B-52 bombers in the Korean and Vietnam wars. Throughout his service, Mr. Biggs earned three Distinguished Flying Crosses, 7 Air Medals, and multiple bronze stars for a total of over thirty military citations and commendations.

Since retiring from the military, Mr. Biggs has lived and worked in Nogales for the U.S. Customs Service. He has raised a family and since retired. In 2007, Mr. Biggs and other Tuskegee airmen received the Congressional Gold Medal, the highest civilian recognition awarded by Congress, for the group's "unique military record that inspired revolutionary reform in the Armed Forces."

I believe that Mr. Biggs' character and actions truly embody what it means to serve one's country. Not only did he fly in multiple wars, he rose above expectation and obligation as a Navigator and an officer. In addition to his time in the Army Air Corps and Air Force, his integrity, modesty, and principled character are values that we can all learn from and should strive to emulate.

I would like to express my personal appreciation for the service of George Washington Biggs, and my hopes that he has a happy 95th birthday.
