HONORING RORY GAMBLE—FIRST AFRICAN AMERICAN PRESIDENT OF UNITED AUTO WORKERS UNION

HON. RASHIDA TLAIB

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Ms. TLAIB. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments and leadership of Rory Gamble, the first African American president of the United Auto Workers Union.

Mr. Gamble's journey to president of one of the largest labor unions in North America is the embodiment of the American success story. Rory Gamble started his career as a welder fixture repairman for the Ford Motor Company in 1974. He immediately became an active member of the United Auto Workers Local 600 union. Over the years he took on assignments and increasing responsibility, holding several different positions in the union. His assignments have included local union health and safety coordinator, employee support services program, education director, civil rights coordinator, fitness center coordinator, family services and learning center coordinator, director of Local 600 Ford units, and retiree benefits liaison. More importantly he has advocated for union workers' pay and benefits, having served on two previous negotiating teams in 1998 and 2003. There is no doubt his hard work has led to his being appointed to the vital role of president of the UAW in 2019.

Beyond his work for better wages and working conditions for laborers, Mr. Gamble gives his time as a volunteer with a number of community and charitable organizations. He serves as a board member of Bridging Communities, a grassroots organization dedicated to improving life for elders in Southwest Detroit. He is also co-chair of the Michigan Labor History Society, treasurer of the Rouge Employees Credit Union and a lifetime supporter of Southwest Detroit Little League. Mr. Gamble's efforts have been recognized numerous times, including by the City of Detroit.

Please join me in recognizing Rory Gamble's outstanding contributions.

CELEBRATING THE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CITY OF COMMERCE

HON. LUCILLE ROYBAL-ALLARD

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Ms. ROYBAL-ALLARD. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 60th anniversary of the City of Commerce, which I have the honor of representing as part of my 40th Congressional District.

The City of Commerce was incorporated on January 28, 1960, because area residents were finding it difficult to obtain basic government services such as garbage pickup, recreation facilities, and infrastructure development. By the start of 1962, a Los Angeles Times article about Commerce reported that "In little more than two years, the city has made remarkable strides." Over the years, Commerce has continued to evolve into a local economic leader, a popular destination for shoppers, businesses, and prospective residents, and a community known throughout America as the "Model City."

Even before its official incorporation, the area that eventually became the City of Commerce housed various manufacturing businesses. As the city grew, the need to create and maintain its infrastructure became crucial. In 1962, the Commerce City Council approved $1.5 million to construct streets, which increased connectivity to neighboring cities and the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach.

With Commerce's location by two of Los Angeles County's major transit corridors—the I-710 and I-5 freeways—products from around the world are transported through the city every day, and building and maintaining city roads remains one of Commerce's main priorities.

Commerce's rich transportation legacy extends to other matters as well. In 1963, Commerce became the first city in the United States to offer regularly scheduled, free bus service to its residents. Commerce buses were also the first in California to be equipped with two-way radios.

Today, Commerce's bus system remains free to residents and connects to other municipal bus lines, MetroLink (the region's community rail service), and the emerging network of light and heavy rail lines of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority. Currently, Commerce buses operate on 100% Clean Natural Gas. Eventually, like other systems in California, they will be 100% electric and/or hybrid.

The Model City also prides itself on its other services, including four libraries, scholarships for college-bound residents, a Community Job Fair, lunches for children during the summer, and an annual book festival and comic book convention.

Early in its history, the city also built four neighborhood parks that have included baseball fields, basketball courts, and the Aquatorium, which has been the home of world-class Olympic swimmers and water polo players, including Olympic gold medalist Brenda Villa.

Commerce is home to commercial icons including the Citadel Outlets, whose historic facade is modeled after an Assyrian castle. Every year, the Citadel brings in millions of visitors from around the world to shop and dine.

The city also boasts the Commerce Casino and Hotel. The casino is the world's largest card club, and has donated $50,000 in scholarship money each year for the past thirty years to help students pursue their college educations.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to please join me in celebrating Commerce's 60th anniversary, and wishing the city residents and leaders many more years of success in the Model City.

RECOGNIZING THE ROTARY CLUB OF BOCA RATON'S OPAL AWARD HONOREES SUE AND YAACOV HELLER

HON. THEODORE E. DEUTCH

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Mr. DEUTCH. Madam Speaker, I am honored to rise today in recognition of the important work done by the Rotary Club of Boca Raton and to congratulate two recipients of their Outstanding People and Leaders (OPAL) awards, Sue and Yaacov Heller.

For the Hellers, life individually and as a couple has involved giving back and creating awareness through the arts and education. Yaacov has been rated among the world's most accomplished sculptors and top silver-smiths. His work has been used to convey messages of hope, tolerance, acceptance, remembrance and peace through interpretation of the human form and spirit while holding to his personal unwavering commitment to artistic quality.

Sue Heller is a retired art educator with more than 30 years of experience. Her emphasis has always been "speaking through the arts." She feels that students with special needs and adults in crisis who might not otherwise be able to learn or express themselves can find a way to "converse" through the creative process. This belief has always been motivation for professional and volunteer work.

Through their philanthropy and service, the Hellers have touched countless lives and made a lasting impact on our South Florida community. The work they do and the time they have put in is truly deserving of this award.

I extend my most sincere congratulations to the Hellers and to all of tonight's honorees. As we begin this new year, I am confident that the Rotary Club of Boca Raton will continue to be a cherished institution in South Florida that betters our community. I greatly appreciate the Club's work and am pleased to honor their OPAL and Lifetime Legacy Award honorees.

JAKE AND ANGIE MOORE, ANGELS IN ADOPTION

HON. DAN NEWHOUSE

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Mr. NEWHOUSE. Madam Speaker, Jake and Angie Moore of Yakima have always had a passion for children, especially those with special needs and those who are trauma affected.

Angie is a speech paraprofessional for 5th and 6th graders, and Jake is a paraprofessional in a high school special ed classroom.

On their first wedding anniversary, they were told that it would be a miracle if they ever became pregnant. IVF wasn't an option for them due to the cost, and after giving it a lot of prayer and thought, they decided to move forward with foster care. They felt this was God's timing.

They have since opened their hearts and their home to become the loving parents of multiple children from the Yakima Valley. Though they have faced many struggles with the hardship of the foster care system, they continue to move forward and stay positive, finalizing the adoption of their daughter and welcoming a 2-year-old foster son at the end of 2019.

They are excited to continue to take in more children as the years go on, so they can be the voice and advocate that many of them do not have.

They have two household rules with all of the children they take in: 1. They will all be there to stay unless somebody else says otherwise. 2. Each child will be loved and cherished as their own, no matter how long they are in the Moore's home.

Jake and Angie are an inspiration to parents across the country and in Central Washington. They are truly Angels in Adoption.

TRIBUTE TO JUDGE RAY OLIVARRI

HON. JOAQUIN CASTRO

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Mr. CASTRO of Texas. Madam Speaker, today I rise in honor of Judge Ray Olivarri who passed away on January 15, 2020 at the age of 64. A community leader and lifelong public servant, Judge Olivarri hails from my hometown of San Antonio, Texas. He is survived by his wife, Brenda Olivarri; two children, Lauren and Jeffrey Olivarri; and grandson Jeffrey Olivarri, Jr. He will be greatly missed.

Judge Ray Olivarri was born and raised in San Antonio, Texas. Upon graduating from Luther Burbank High School, he went on to become a probation officer with Bexar County and served on the City of San Antonio Zoning Commission. Later, he went on to pursue a law degree from Texas Southern University in Houston.

After practicing as a criminal defense lawyer, Olivarri was elected to serve in 2006 as judge for Bexar County Court at Law No. 6. In 2012, he was elected to serve on the 399th State District Court for four years. Eventually, his journey led him to serve as state judge for the 144th District Court upon his election win in 2018. Judge Olivarri served on the 144th before illness compelled him to step down.

Olivarri was a person of high caliber whose kindness was only matched by his dedication to his family and career. Olivarri was a compassionate justice, sensitive to the vulnerabilities of those who came before him.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to have known such a remarkable individual who defined what it means to live in the service of others. The entire San Antonio community mourns this tremendous loss. I know his legacy and memory will live on in every single life he changed. Judge, thank you for your many years of public service and commitment to our community.

COMMEMORATING "BLACK JANUARY"

HON. STEVE COHEN

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Mr. COHEN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the "Black January" killings which is one of the most tragic events in Azerbaijan's history.

On the night of January 20, 1990, approximately 26,000 Soviet troops stormed Azerbaijan's capital city of Baku in tanks and armored vehicles. That night, the Soviet military bulldozed innocent Azerbaijanis and opened fire indiscriminately on peaceful demonstrators, including women and children. As a result of these merciless acts 147 people were killed, around 800 were injured, 841 were arrested, and 5 went missing.

The Human Rights Watch report "Black January in Azerbaijan" states that "among the most heinous violations of human rights during the Baku incursion were the numerous attacks on medical personnel, ambulances, and even hospitals." The report concludes that the violence used by the Soviet Army constituted an exercise in collective punishment and that the punishment inflicted on Baku by Soviet soldiers may have been intended as a warning to nationalists, not only in Azerbaijan, but in other Republics of the Soviet Union. I offer my thoughts and prayers to the families of those who gave their lives for the independence of Azerbaijan.

The United States was one of the first countries to recognize independence and fully established diplomatic relations on February 28, 1992 and the relationship between our two countries endures to this day. The United States and Azerbaijan are strategic allies and share common interests in the region and globally.

As the co-chairman of the Congressional Azerbaijan Caucus, I urge my colleagues to recognize the sacrifices of the Azerbaijani people in their steps toward a free market economy and encourage a recommitment to the democratic values for which many Azerbaijanis sacrificed their lives.

RECOGNIZING THE ROTARY CLUB
OF BOCA RATON'S OPAL AWARD
HONOREES DORIS AND NEIL GILLMAN

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, January 17, 2020

Mr. DEUTCH. Madam Speaker, I am honored to rise today in recognition of the important work done by the Rotary Club of Boca Raton and to congratulate two recipients of their Outstanding People and Leaders (OPAL) awards, Doris and Neil Gillman.

When it comes to strengthening their communities, the Gillmans strongly believe that enduring support begins with not with a check, but with a relationship. The couple has partnered with dozens of charities in Boca Raton and Pittsburgh and have built their volunteerism and philanthropy around being deeply engaged in the organizations to which they commit.

The impact of the Gillmans' connections to causes, particularly those that serve children, veterans, and animals, can be found throughout the city. They've worked closely with Florence Fuller Child Development Centers to construct much-needed new facilities, with the Caridad Center to outfit a new pediatric dental surgery room, with Boca Raton Regional Hospital to provide support for new parents in need, and with Peggy Adams Animal Rescue League to accomplish the vision of their new campus. The couple has also served on local charitable boards; Doris with Boca Helping Hands, and Neil with the Boca West Children's Foundation. In fact, it was BWCF that led them to many of the organizations they have supported, including their most recent focus—Sweet Dream Makers.

Through their philanthropy and service, the Gillmans have touched countless lives and made a lasting impact on our South Florida community. The work they do and the time they have put in is truly deserving of these awards.

I extend my most sincere congratulations to the Gillmans and to all of tonight's honorees. As we begin this new year, I am confident that the Rotary Club of Boca Raton will continue to be a cherished institution in South Florida that betters our community. I greatly appreciate the Club's work and am pleased to honor their OPAL and Lifetime Legacy Award honorees.
