HONORING EMMANUEL SMITH AS IOWAN OF THE WEEK

HON. CYNTHIA AXNE

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 7, 2020

Mrs. AXNE. Madam Speaker, 30 years ago—on July 26, 1990—the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) was signed into law, prohibiting discrimination against individuals with disabilities in all facets of life ranging from employment and transportation to public accommodations and government services.

That is why today, in light of the anniversary of this revolutionary legislation, I rise to ask the House of Representatives to join me in recognizing Emmanuel Smith, Protection and Advocacy for Beneficiaries of Social Security advocate at Disability Rights Iowa, as this week's Iowan of the Week.

Emmanuel was born with Osteogenesis Imperfecta, also known as Brittle Bone Disease, which causes his bones to break easily. Disability rights is a critical aspect of his life—and he's turned to giving back to this community and advocated on their behalf as his driving force. Emmanuel also found inspiration from meeting our Senator, Tom Harkin, the author and chief sponsor of the ADA, at its 10-year anniversary celebration.

After graduating from Drake University, Emmanuel began working for Disability Rights Iowa. He works hard to ensure others don't have to face the same difficulties that he has in the past, and seeks to take down barriers to employment and fight workplace discrimination against individuals with disabilities.

Emmanuel's role within DRI has evolved as they address the additional challenges brought by the COVID-19 pandemic. Emmanuel stepped up to the challenge and continues to fight for equitable employment services by teaching people about their rights in the context of working during a pandemic.

Emmanuel attributes many of the opportunities he's had to the ADA, claiming that without its protections, his life would look very different.

Without the ADA, he would not have had access to traditional education in high school or college. Accessible busing and Paratransit—services Emmanuel and many others rely on so they may travel independently—would not be possible if not for the ADA.

But while Emmanuel believes that the ADA has given people the possibility not to be restricted by their disabilities, he knows that there is still a long way to go before the intentions of the bill are fully realized. Emmanuel continues to advocate for universal, accessible design in Iowa cities and towns, push for an inclusive design for the Iowa caucuses, and push for putting more individuals with disabilities in leadership positions.

As we celebrate the 30th anniversary of the Americans with Disabilities Act, we must remember the importance of equality for all Americans. I am proud to know that there are people in Iowa like Emmanuel Smith who advocate for equal opportunities for their fellow Iowans and inspire the rest of us to join in this fight.

It is my honor to share Emmanuel Smith's story today, and recognize him as our Iowan of the Week.

HONORING AND RECOGNIZING THE BRAVERY AND HEROISM OF ANSELM "JERRY" CRAMER AND CALLING ON THE DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY TO AWARD MR. CRAMER THE PURPLE HEART

HON. THOMAS R. SUOZZI

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 7, 2020

Mr. SUOZZI. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize a great American and veteran in my district, Mr. Anselm "Jerry" Cramer.

Mr. Cramer joined the Navy Reserve in 1948 and enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1950 during the Korean War. In December of 1950, Mr. Cramer fought in the Battle of Chosin Reservoir, where he suffered severe frostbite wounds to his hands and feet. Mr. Cramer spent weeks in the hospital for treatment to his injuries. Since then, Mr. Cramer has been denied a Purple Heart four times.

As a member of the 1st Marine Division, Mr. Cramer fought in the Battle of Chosin Reservoir, braving subzero temperatures without shelter for ten days. In conditions this harsh, frostbite can develop in a matter of minutes, hypothermia and death setting in shortly after. Mr. Cramer has described how his duties included loading dead Marines onto trucks, their bodies frozen solid from the cold and wind.

By the time he made it to the safety of an aid station, Mr. Cramer's hands and feet were black from frostbite, and he could no longer grip or feel anything with them. He was evacuated to a hospital in Japan for immediate treatment. Mr. Cramer watched as military personnel on his ward received a Purple Heart for frostbite wounds, but he was overlooked. Mr. Cramer has never fully recovered from his frostbite injuries and currently receives a forty percent disability rating for the wounds he sustained in December of 1950.

Mr. Cramer has repeatedly been denied a Purple Heart due to a change in regulation made months after his injuries occurred. In inquiries submitted by my office, the Board of Corrections of Naval Records has acknowledged Mr. Cramer's injuries, but maintains that he does not qualify due to the Secretary of the Navy's 1951 decision to disqualify frostbite for the Purple Heart. They also state that fellow Marines were "erroneously awarded the Purple Heart". This is not a medal that is given out in error. The Purple Heart that is awarded due to an injury or wounds inflicted from an outside force or element, which is exactly how Mr. Cramer received his injuries.

Mr. Cramer is now in his 90s; he has fought and sacrificed a great deal for the country he loves. This December will mark 70 years since Mr. Cramer sustained his injuries. It is past time that he receives the recognition he has earned.

HONORING MELISSA GIRMSCHIED

HON. DEBBIE LESKO

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 7, 2020

Mrs. LESKO. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the achievement of Melissa Girmscheid, an extraordinary teacher at a public high school in my district.

This year, she was selected as the Air Force Association of Arizona Teacher of the Year and placed second overall in the Air Force Association Rolls Royce 2020 National Aerospace STEM Teacher of the Year award.

Melissa's leadership has influenced organizations throughout the nation to increase educational opportunities and advocate for the value of STEM education and employment in their communities.

Melissa has created innovative STEM engagement opportunities that will continue to shape the perceptions of STEM education and employment into the future. I am confident that because of her efforts to expand access to high school physics and foundational STEM courses, Arizona students will be inspired to pursue careers as STEM professionals or future educators.

On this day, we as a community would like to congratulate Melissa Girmscheid on her selection as Air Force Association of Arizona STEM Teacher of the Year and thank her for her dedication and advocacy for quality education for our nation's youth.

HONORING BETTY FAIRFAX

HON. GREG STANTON

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, August 7, 2020

Mr. STANTON. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the life and legacy of Betty Harriet Fairfax, who passed away on November 7, 2010. An educator, philanthropist, and community leader, Betty devoted her life to ensuring that all students, regardless of background, have equal opportunity and access to the American Dream. Teaching in public schools for nearly 70 years, Betty's life was marked by service and generosity and today Arizona is a more just and equal place because of her work.

From an early age, Betty was ingrained with the belief that all children deserve a quality education. Growing up in Cleveland, Ohio with her parents, Dan and Inez Wood Fairfax, Betty was an accomplished student and received degrees from Kent State University and Western Reserve. After graduating with her master's degree, Betty began a public school career that would reflect the arc of the moral universe. Initially recruited by Phoenix Union High School District to teach at Carver High School, the legally segregated school for Black children, Betty ended her career over a half-century later as a beloved Dean of Students and with a high school named after her. Her life-long devotion to public education was honored many times and upheld as an example of a selfless leader who dedicated her career—without fanfare or in pursuit of recognition—to the students she taught and counseled.

Betty's commitment to education extended beyond excellence in teaching and into creating endowments for those who suffered most from educational inequities. Together with her sister Jean, Betty formed permanent financial legacies that support the spectrum of public education, from scholarships for Black students committed to being public school teachers to funding professional development opportunities for educators. Today, students and teachers across the nation benefit from Betty's generosity and philanthropy, and her visionary leadership has created intergenerational prosperity and opportunity for families in Arizona.

Arizonans owe a debt of gratitude to Betty. Her investment in public education will be felt for generations to come and will ensure that more students be included in the American Dream. In this spirit of gratitude and remembrance, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Betty Harriet Fairfax.

HONORING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF FORMER TEXAS STATE REPRESENTATIVE JOHN CLIFFORD OTTO

HON. BRIAN BABIN

Friday, August 7, 2020

Mr. BABIN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and service of former Texas State Representative John Clifford Otto who passed away after a lengthy battle with pancreatic cancer on August 1, 2020. Representative Otto served the people of House District 18 with distinction for six terms in the Texas House of Representatives.

John Otto was born on October 14, 1948 in Dayton, Texas to John Clifford Coffelt Otto and Susan Eugenia Forrest. John graduated from Dayton High School in 1966 where he was a pitcher on the baseball team, member of FFA, and was drum major for the DHS band. He married his high school sweetheart, Nancy Whitman, in 1969.

In 1970, Otto graduated from Texas A&M University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration Accounting. While at Texas A&M, John Otto was a member of the Corps of Cadets; Ross Volunteer Honor Guard, official Honor Guard of the Governor of Texas; and the nationally famous Fightin' Texas Aggie Band. In his senior year at Texas A&M, he was head drum major of the Texas Aggie Band. On July 24, 2020, Texas A&M University announced that the Aggie Band will forever be led with the "John C. During his service, Representative Otto represented the people of Liberty, San Jacinto, Walker, Polk, and Montgomery Counties. Representative Otto served on numerous committees in the Texas House, but the bulk of his time was spent on the Appropriations and Ways and Means Committees. Representative Otto served as Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, during his final legislative session he drafted and authored a bill that balanced the State Budget of more than 200 billion dollars. He loved serving in the Texas House and considered it a high honor and privilege to represent District 18.

During his tenure in the Texas Legislature, Representative Otto received numerous awards and distinctions. During his first term Otto was named "Freshman of the Year" by the House Republican Caucus, "Rookie of the Year" by Texas Monthly Magazine, and "Most Valuable Freshman" by Capitol Inside. In 2008, he earned the "Legislative Achievement Award" from the Texas Taxpayers and Research Association. He was also named "One of the 10 Best Legislators in Texas" by Texas Monthly in 2008 and 2015. Representative Otto additionally also received the "Citizen of the Year" award from the Liberty-Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce, "Fighter for Free Enterprise" award from the Texas Association of Business and named to the Texas PTA Legislative Honor Role. On June 15, 2020, the Dayton City Council renamed a portion of State Highway 146 the John Otto Expressway in recognition of his service to the citizens of Dayton.

John and Nancy were active members of the First United Methodist Church in Dayton, TX where they both sang in the choir and John served in many capacities including church treasurer for over 25 years. They recently transferred their membership to the
