

graduate from the old high school on Leighton Avenue. He was drum major of the Anniston High School Marching Band.

David is a graduate of Jacksonville State University where he served as editor of The Chanticleer.

He also served in the United States Air Force as a pharmacy technician.

Prior to his time at the museum, Ford worked to improve the situation at the Calhoun County Humane Society and before that spent his career working in journalism at WDNG radio station in Anniston writing and broadcasting stories about the lives of people in Calhoun County. He was a Public Information Officer for the Calhoun County EMA and worked in civil service for several years as a technical writer for the Anniston Army Depot and as Press Secretary for former Alabama Governor Bob Riley. His professional life has been one dedicated to public service.

When David left WDNG, the Anniston mayor and city council presented him with the Key to the City.

David had a personal relationship with the Berman Museum chief benefactors, Farley and Germaine Berman, and that connection was evident in his work at the museum. He spent many of his days giving groups special tours of the facility and his natural ability of story-telling made the position the perfect fit.

David won't slow down much with retirement as he was just named president of the Anniston Morning Rotary Club, a member of the Anniston Runners Club, a volunteer at the Anniston Soup Bowl and serves as senior warden at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels.

At St. Michael's, he is also a member of the Parish Choir, a Lay Eucharistic Minister and Docent, member of the Archives and History Committee. As Senior Warden, he also serves as a member of the Executive Committee, the Endowment Committee and the Board of Directors of St. Michael's Medical Clinic.

He has been active in the affairs of the Episcopal Diocese of Alabama, frequently representing St. Michael and All Angels as a delegate to annual Diocesan conventions. He has served in nearly every leadership capacity possible at St. Michael and All Angels and is a graduate of the Education for Ministry program of The Episcopal Church, a multiple-year intensive study for lay persons, under the auspices of The University of the South.

David is married to Jo Rhea and they have one son, John David.

He is the son of Melvin and Doris Ford, of Oxford and has three siblings.

He enjoys cooking and can be found around town wearing his signature bowtie and pocket square. As a lifelong lover of history and a voracious reader, he plans to spend his new free time writing.

Madam Speaker, please join me in recognizing the career of my friend, David Ford, and wishing him the best in his retirement.

UTAH CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE RECOGNITION ON JULY 31, 2020

HON. BEN McADAMS

OF UTAH

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 11, 2020

Mr. McADAMS. Madam Speaker, local businesses are the engines that drive economic growth and jobs in Utah. The support Utah small businesses receive from local Chambers of Commerce is important in good times. During this pandemic, the 20 Chambers in Utah's 4th Congressional District have been a critical source for information and shared resources.

Chamber leaders and Chamber members are integral to their customers and their communities. They know each other's history, challenges, wins, and losses. They share a common goal of serving the needs of hard-working Utah families and providing those families with an income, benefits and an economic ladder to climb.

During this COVID-19 crisis, these Chambers have had to be innovative, and to find new platforms from which to communicate with their members. They've taken on the assignment of learning about business loans, relief programs and unemployment information from local, state and federal agencies. Not only do they worry about their own businesses and family member, they've shouldered the responsibility of looking out for their membership as well.

I would like to highlight and thank the American Fork Chamber, Chamber West, Holladay Chamber, Mount Pleasant Area Chamber, Murray Chamber, Nephi Chamber, Pacific Islander Chamber, Salt Lake Chamber, South Jordan Chamber, South Salt Lake Chamber, South Valley Chamber, South West Valley Chamber, Utah Asian Chamber, Utah Black Chamber, Utah Hispanic Chamber, Utah Gay and Lesbian Chamber, West Jordan Chamber, Payson-Santaquin Chamber, Point of the Mountain Chamber, and the Utah Valley Chamber.

Our fight against the coronavirus goes on. The economic recovery, when it happens, may be much slower than any of us want. We have never needed small business champions more than we do now. I thank the leaders of the Utah Chambers of Commerce for ensuring that the evolving needs of their members—our vital small businesses, employees and hard-working families—are met.

RECOGNIZING THE LIFE OF WILLIAM K. NICHOLS

HON. TRENT KELLY

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, August 11, 2020

Mr. KELLY of Mississippi. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the life of Deputy William Nichols, who passed away on Wednesday, July 22, after heroically rescuing his son from a rip current at Fort Walton Beach.

William was born on January 15, 1987, in Clarksdale, Mississippi. He was a humble and kind man who always put others before himself. His passion for search and rescue began at a young age after watching his father oversee the county's search-and-rescue unit. His love for others, coupled with his selflessness, allowed him to follow in his father's footsteps and pursue a career in search-and-rescue with DeSoto County.

He began his career as a volunteer and would later serve as a senior officer and Sergeant with the sheriffs department. Like his father, he was then promoted to director of the search-and-rescue unit and would oversee the unit for the following seven years.

Outside of his passion for search-and-rescue, William was a faithful member of Cornerstone Church and served as the Explorer Advisor through the Boy Scouts of America. Other than holding numerous specialized certifications in his field, William also served as a NASCAR instructor and lead evaluator and was also an NRA instructor.

William died a hero, and his heroism will not be forgotten as William's last act of service was saving his son. His life was one of service, grace, and love for his family and community. He will be greatly missed by all whom he encountered.

Left to cherish his memory is his wife, Lindsay Nichols; his daughter, Leah Langston; and his son, William Nichols; as well as many other friends and extended family members.
