

(SVLG). This annual Award honors an individual who has had a transformative impact on Silicon Valley.

Lisa Su was born in Taiwan and came to the United States with her family at the age of three. She graduated from the Bronx High School of Science and earned her Bachelors, Masters and Ph.D. degrees at MIT.

Dr. Su is being honored by SVLG for her extraordinary leadership of AMD and her commitment to our community and to Silicon Valley. She has served as Co-Chair of San José Mayor Sam Liccardo's Silicon Valley Recovery Roundtable. In October 2014, Dr. Su was named President and Chief Executive Officer of AMD, and is a member of the company's Board of Directors. Dr. Su joined AMD in January 2012 as Senior Vice President and General Manager of global business units.

Prior to joining AMD, she was Senior Vice President at Freescale Semiconductor, Inc. where she was responsible for global strategy, marketing and engineering for the company's embedded communications and applications processor business. Prior to Freescale she spent 13 years at IBM in various engineering and business leadership positions, including serving as Vice President of IBM's Semiconductor Research and Development Center, responsible for the strategic direction of the company's silicon technologies, joint development alliances and semiconductor R&D operations. Prior to IBM, she was a member of the technical staff at Texas Instruments from 1994–1995.

Dr. Su has published more than 40 technical articles and was named a Fellow of the Institute of Electronics and Electrical Engineers in 2009. In 2018, she was elected to the National Academy of Engineering, was named "Businessperson of the Year" by Fortune Magazine and received the prestigious Dr. Morris Chang Exemplary Leadership Award. In 2019, Dr. Su was named one of the World's 50 Best CEOs by Barron's, one of the "Most Powerful Women in Business" by Fortune Magazine and was included in The Bloomberg 50 list of people who defined the year. In 2020, Dr. Su was elected to the American Academy of Arts & Science.

Dr. Su serves on the Boards of Cisco Inc. and the U.S. Semiconductor Industry Association and is Chair of the Board of Directors of the Global Semiconductor Alliance (GSA).

Madam Speaker, I ask the entire House of Representatives to join me in honoring Dr. Lisa Su as she is presented with the Spirit of Silicon Valley Lifetime of Achievement Award. She has earned and richly deserves this great honor.

HONORING JOHN CORTES AS A DEDICATED LEADER

HON. DARREN SOTO

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 30, 2020

Mr. SOTO. Madam Speaker, John Cortes is currently a state representative for the Florida House, District 43. His tenure will come to an end on November 3, 2020. He served three terms, elected to the Florida House of Representatives in 2014, reelected subsequently. He was Democratic Deputy Whip 2016 to 2018. His committee assignments included

Government Operations and Appropriations Subcommittee, Democratic Ranking Member, Children and Families and Seniors Subcommittee, Health and Human Services Committee, and the Ways and Means Committee. John Cortes went on to cosponsor many successful bills along with his colleagues. His sponsored bills did not make fruition, but John continued to fight and advocate for his constituents. His record on how he voted in Tallahassee was exemplary, earning him an A rating each time.

Before serving as a state representative, John Cortes is a retired New York City Corrections Officer since 1997, and served 16 years. John was born in Brooklyn, New York, and raised in Puerto Rico. He graduated from Pedro Albizu Campos High School and attended John Jay College of Criminal Justice in New York, majoring in Forensic Science for two years.

John Cortes, married 39 years to his loving wife, Caridad, relocated to Florida from New York, making Osceola County their home. They have two adult children, Caridad Esther and John Paul, and a beautiful granddaughter, Jayda.

During his time as a state representative, John never lost sight of where he came from and the people he served. His motto, local, vocal, and approachable, was part of who he is. John is always available to listen to the needs of his constituents and advocate on their behalf. John knows all too well the plight of those struggling to make a better life. He is living proof that anyone can be what they set their minds to be and be successful.

CONGRATULATING RAQUEL SALTER

HON. EARL L. "BUDDY" CARTER

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 30, 2020

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Raquel Salter for being selected for promotion from Lieutenant Commander to Commander in the U.S. Coast Guard Reserves.

Commander Salter is a 29-year veteran of the U.S. Coast Guard and served about one-third of her time in Georgia's First Congressional District.

Throughout her service, she has always gone above and beyond to selflessly defend our nation and advocate for the Coast Guard, especially servicewomen.

Over her 29 years of service, Commander Salter has been activated to Key West for the Cuban Raft Crisis, to Savannah to assist with the 1997 Olympic sailing security, to Charleston for Operation Iraqi Freedom, and to Savannah again for 9/11 and to help assist with the G8 summit security.

This year, Commander Salter was chosen as part of a select group to help with Covid-19 response in Miami.

I can't thank her enough for her steadfast commitment to serving our country and countless Americans, and I wish her the best in her new position.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF LESLIE "LES" OUTERBRIDGE

HON. BOBBY L. RUSH

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 30, 2020

Mr. RUSH. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate the life and legacy of Leslie "Les" Outerbridge, a man who led a life of selfless bravery and held a keen devotion to justice. Born in 1936, Les Outerbridge was raised in Chicago's Cabrini—Green Homes and initially attended Wells Community Academy High School at the age of 12, later leaving high school in 1953 at the age of 15 and volunteering to serve his country in the United States Air Force. An avid athlete as a young man, Outerbridge played three sports, football, basketball, and baseball on his Air Force installation. Later in his life, Outerbridge would return to school, receiving a Bachelor's in Science from Chicago State University in 1981.

Feeling that he still had more to give to his community and country after serving in the armed forces, Outerbridge joined the Chicago Fire Department in 1961. While dutifully and bravely serving his community, Outerbridge was not afraid to simultaneously fight the fires of injustice within the fire department. For much of the 1960s and 1970s, the percentage of minorities serving in the fire department was under five percent. Furthermore, when African-American or Hispanic firefighters were given the opportunity to put their lives on the line for their fellow Chicagoans, they found themselves stifled by a systemically racist department that made promotion unattainable.

Unable to stand by and watch this injustice pervade the department he was a part of, Outerbridge sprang into action. Working with key community leaders and activists including Father George Clements and Kermit Coleman, an attorney, and civil rights organizations including Operation PUSH and the Urban League, Outerbridge set out to end the unfair treatment of African-Americans in the Chicago Fire Department. Along with his fellow firefighters Jim Winbush and Wesley Thompson, Outerbridge founded the Afro American Firefighters League (AAFL).

Madam Speaker, it is difficult to understate the positive impact of the Afro American Firefighters League on the Chicago Fire Department. Outerbridge and the AAFL worked diligently to document the racial discrimination they found within the Department, and their work would lead to the United States Department of Justice filing suit against the City of Chicago, resulting in a consent decree that mandated the Department increase its total number of African-American firefighters from 125 to at least 400.

While work remains to be done to build a Chicago Fire Department that is reflective of the city it serves, the legacy of Outerbridge's work continues. In 2011, a lawsuit brought by African-American Chicago firefighters made it all the way to the Supreme Court of the United States, which ruled that over 6,000 African-American applicants for positions within the Chicago Fire Department could pursue a disparate impact claim against the city. The Supreme Court's ruling helped pave the way to a settlement that allowed almost a thousand applicants to reapply, and the possibility of monetary reward as compensation for the discrimination they faced. From the Cabrini-Green Homes to the Supreme Court—that is how far the lasting and enduring legacy of Les Outerbridge stretches.

In 2002, Outerbridge would author and publish a book detailing his life's remarkable journey titled "Memoirs of a Black Fire Fighter: Les Outerbridge, 1961–1995". Those close to him Outerbridge will remember him as passionate historian and an avid photographer.

My best wishes and prayers are with the Outerbridge family and all those who had the distinct privilege of knowing Leslie Outerbridge during his remarkable life.

HONORING GREATER MT. OLIVET MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 30, 2020

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a remarkable church, Greater Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church.

On November 28, 1945, Rev. A.C. Alexander and a small group of people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Whitley at 227 South Sixth Street in Greenville, Mississippi, to organize a church. Their first meeting was held on the third Sunday in December at the Greenville Industrial College located at 240 South Eighth Street. Meetings were held each third Sunday until 1947, when the group moved to a wooden structure building at 239 North Seventh Street. The church was organized with eight members. However, the church membership did increase, and Rev. Alexander served as Pastor the years of 1945–1954. Then, Rev. Albert Johnson served as Pastor the years of 1954 to 1957.

From 1957–1976, Rev. H.A. Armstrong served as a Pastor. He surveyed the needs of the church and those needs were Christian commitment to the church, furniture for the church, and a renewed hope in Christ. Rev. Armstrong's first sermon title was taken from Nehemiah 4:6, "For the people has a mind to work." During Rev. Armstrong's tenure, Mt. Olivet built their 2nd Church building in 1972.

Dr. Hudson Augustus became the full-time Pastor of Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church. During Dr. Augustus tenure, the 2nd Church building was paid in full. Dr. Augustus was a faithful shepherd of this church until his death on April 9, 2003.

Currently, Dr. Lee E. Morris, Jr., is the Pastor, and has been serving since 2004. Under the leadership of Dr. Morris, the church has attracted many new members and new ministries and a name change to Greater Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church. Under Dr. Morris leadership, Greater Mt. Olivet built their 3rd church building, which includes a new sanctuary, an educational annex (9 classrooms), recreational complex (gym), and a pastoral parsonage.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Greater Mt. Olivet Missionary Baptist Church for its longevity and dedication to serving others.

IN MEMORY OF EARL "JIM" LINEBAUGH

HON. JOHN JOYCE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 30, 2020

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of an outstanding Pennsylvanian, Mr. Earl E. "Jim" Linebaugh. A member of the Greatest Generation, Mr. Linebaugh served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. A lifelong resident of Adams County, he was an incredible member of our community throughout his life.

Mr. Linebaugh was born on September 23, 1922, in Washington Township, the son of the late Amos and Lucy L. (Stine) Linebaugh.

In 1944, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy. Following his service, Mr. Linebaugh was employed with East Berlin Feed Mills for many years before retiring from Sprengle Feed Mills in York.

He was the husband to Mildred E. (McManus) Linebaugh, who died in 1986, and the late wife Loretta (Crook) Linebaugh. Mr. Linebaugh had ten children and numerous grandchildren, whom he adored. In addition to his work and life with his family, Mr. Linebaugh also was an active member of St. John's Lutheran Church in Abbottstown and a robust member of the Adams County community.

When he passed away on Thursday, June 4, 2020, at 97, Mr. Linebaugh left an indelible impression on both our community and our nation. On behalf of the 13th Congressional District of Pennsylvania, it is my privilege to honor the life and service of Earl "Jim" Linebaugh. I offer my deepest sympathies to
