

I was privileged to serve under the great leadership of George W. Bush as Governor of the Lone Star State and then President of this great country. No doubt his parents, their character, their patriotism, and love for their fellow man did not fall too far from the tree, as we say in Texas.

I rise in support of the President George H.W. Bush and First Spouse Barbara Bush Coin Act sponsored by friend and fellow Texan, Senator JOHN CORNYN.

George Herbert Walker Bush and his wife First Lady Barbara Bush were exemplars of leadership and service to the country and an almost perfect picture of a devoted and loving marriage. If there is a perfect marriage, they certainly seemed to have it.

I think, Madam Speaker, it is right and good to honor and commemorate the most noble and accomplished leaders and public servants, and no doubt, at the top of that list is George Herbert Walker Bush and his wife Barbara Bush, and I am grateful for the opportunity to honor the legacy of President and First Lady Bush by supporting the issuance of these coins.

Mr. MCHENRY. Madam Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Madam Speaker, in writing about George H.W. Bush it was said duty was duty. In 1975, there is this move in the administration to shuttle off George H.W. Bush to a nondescript position. The assumption was if George H.W. Bush was offered a job in public service, he was going to say no because it wasn't the right job for him. Instead, President Bush said yes and served our Nation as director of the CIA at a moment in American history where that agency had massive need for reform and change and also to rebuild its capacity to protect us as Americans.

It was written about him, "Your message came as a total and complete shock," Bush wrote to his friend, Henry Kissinger. "Henry, you did not know my father. The President did," meaning President Nixon. "My dad inculcated into his sons a set of values that have served me well. In my own short public life"—not realizing that 20 years hence he would still be in public service—"one of these values quite simply is that one should serve his country and his President."

That is what George H.W. Bush wrote in 1975, his notion of public service. Whether you are a Republican or Democrat, those words of public service of the need for us as individual Americans to do our duty when called upon and to offer ourselves to serve the public and to serve our fellow man is something that was commendable in 1975 and is absolutely commendable and especially commendable this day.

On the floor this day, on both sides of the aisle, we honor an amazing legacy of what he became known as, as 41. The 41st President of the United States and his First Lady, not just during his time in the White House, but his first lady in his life, Barbara Pierce Bush. We know of their family legacy and the generations they have given this country in public service, but we also know the amazing legacy of that World War II generation that he represented and the legacy of public service and trying to get things done for the American people.
