AS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE

Mr. SHERMAN. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from California, the Honorable Mike Garcia, be permitted to take the oath of office today.

His certificate of election has not arrived, but there is no contest and no question has been raised with regard to his election.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

SWEARING IN OF THE HONORABLE
THOMAS P. TIFFANY, OF WISCONSIN,
AS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE

Mr. SENSENBRENNER. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Wisconsin, the Honorable Thomas P. Tiffany, be permitted to take the oath of office today.

His certificate of election has not arrived, but there is no contest and no question has been raised with regard to his election.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Wisconsin?

There was no objection.

SWEARING IN OF MEMBERS-ELECT

The SPEAKER. Will the Representatives-elect and the Members of the California and Wisconsin delegations present themselves in the well.

Mr. GARCIA of California and Mr. TIFFANY appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter, so help you God.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations. You are now Members of the 116th Congress.

WELCOMING THE HONORABLE
MIKE GARCIA TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the gentleman from California (Mr. SHERMAN) is recognized for 1 minute.

There was no objection.

Mr. SHERMAN. Madam Speaker, by tradition, the dean of the respective State delegation introduces new Members from their State at a swearing in after a special election. Our dean, the dean of the California delegation, is also the Speaker of the House. And while I have seen her do amazing things, I have never seen her be in two places at the same time.

So I have the distinct honor of filling in for her here as dean, and the pleasure of introducing MIKE GARCIA, the new Member from the 25th Congressional District. The election has, as I noted before, not been certified by the Secretary of State, but there is no dispute about the result.

Congressman GARCIA was born in 1976, and is a native of Santa Clarita, California, and is a first generation American citizen. Congressman GARCIA moved to Saugus, which is now part of the city of Santa Clarita, in 1982 with his mother and stepfather at the age of six.

Mr. GARCIA received his bachelor's degree in political science from the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis in 1998. He was nominated to that academy and to the Navy by our long-time colleague, the former chair of the House Armed Services Committee, our friend, Buck McKeon.

He later earned a master of arts in national security policy from Georgetown University. He is a former U.S. naval officer and flew as a pilot in the Navy from 1998 until 2009. After the Navy, Congressman GARCIA worked in the aerospace industry, and now owns his own real estate business. MIKE is the husband of Rebecca Garcia and the father of Preston, age 13, and Jett, age 3.

I represent the district that lies immediately to the south of MIKE GARCIA, and the gentleman who represents the district immediately to the north is the distinguished minority leader, who I know has additional words to say about our new colleague.

Madam Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California (Mr. MCCARTHY).

Mr. MCCARTHY. Madam Speaker, in the last 230 years, dating back to the founding of our Republic, fewer than 11,000 Americans have had the privilege to stand here as a Member of Congress.

Today it is my honor to welcome one of the newest, MIKE GARCIA. As a veteran, a businessman, a family man, and a first-generation American, MIKE has shown a driven-approach to everything he has taken.

If you ever want a definition of America, look to MIKE's life. First generation, many like our fathers, mothers, grandparents, wanted something better for their children so they came to America. MIKE dreamed, at age six, that one day maybe he could become a Navy fighter pilot. He knew it would not be easy, so he strived, applied himself, and was nominated to the Naval Academy from this body itself.

Not only did he excel, he graduated in the top 3 percent, becoming a fighter pilot, something many of us always look to the skies to dream and wonder what it takes to become one. As he became a fighter pilot, his Nation called upon him to defend our freedoms, those that we uphold, that he just raised his hand to defend the Constitution a few short moments ago. He excelled at that because he believes in service.

After his service into the Navy he worked as a businessman. He has a beautiful family, Rebecca, sons Preston, who is with us on the floor, and his son Jett, up with his wife Rebecca, and his brother, and sister-in-law.

George Washington once said: "Remember that it is the actions and not the commission that makes an officer, and that there is more expected from him than the title." Washington was speaking about being a military officer. But his advice perfectly describes what it means to be a Member of Congress. We are a small group with a big responsibility, to represent the voice of the people in Washington. Ultimately, it is our actions, not our titles, that matter.

MIKE's feat today is not something people just assumed. Yes, you have to run. Yes, you have to unite people. But he did something that people on my side of the aisle have not done in more than 22 years. He did it in a manner where an election was bigger than most people had thought, and they had to run these races in a time of a crisis in America that they held the elections to be different.

He changed the course in a few short times. If there is one person that I believe can unite this body, unite this Nation, it is a man whose life actually defines America. Family comes here, the dreams of a life better for their children.

He strives and excels in public education to get nominated by the United States House of Representatives and his own congressman to go to the Naval Academy. He excels at the academy to become a jet fighter pilot and defends our Nation in a time of need. And one more time his Nation called upon him to serve, he rose to the occasion, and unbelievable obstacles that many did not believe he could achieve by uniting a district to help unite a Nation and help unite Congress itself.

Madam Speaker, I congratulate MIKE, and I look forward to what he is able to achieve in this body, much that he has been able to achieve before he came here.

Mr. SHERMAN. Madam Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from California (Mr. GARCIA), our newest Member.

Mr. GARCIA of California. Madam Speaker, I thank the gentleman from California and Leader MCCARTHY for that very gracious introduction. I want to thank you all for being here today. First and foremost, I want to thank my beautiful bride and wife, Rebecca, and our two beautiful boys, Preston and Jett, for being the backbone of my survival, and the spirit of this campaign for over a year now. So thank you very much.

Madam Speaker, I also want to thank the 715,000 people in California's beautiful 25th Congressional District that helped me get here, and it is a huge honor that has been bestowed upon me to represent you in this body, I do it with humility and with, hopefully, performance that represents all of us in the 25th District.

I can think of no better way to serve this country, to serve our district, than to be here today taking this oath and doing the job before me over the course of the next several years.

For 244 years, this beautiful Nation has thrived and survived on the back of those who showed up at the right time to do the right thing, and for the right reasons.

I, as an American, someone who is a first-generation American who served my country, I show up today, not only as a patriot, but now a citizen legislator, to make sure that we do what is right for our country first, to make sure that we do what is right for my district that I represent, and to, hopefully, get through this crisis as a solid, unified country, becoming stronger as we do so, more cooperative in the efforts and, hopefully, making this Nation the strongest the world has ever seen for several decades, millenniums to come.

Madam Speaker, I appreciate all the support. Thank you for being here, and may God bless the United States of America.

WELCOMING THE HONORABLE
THOMAS P. TIFFANY TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The SPEAKER. Without objection, the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. SENSENBRENNER) is recognized for 1 minute.

There was no objection.

Mr. SENSENBRENNER. Madam Speaker, one of the few things that deans do around here, aside from using our institutional memory, is to ask unanimous consent that people who are elected in special elections from their State be permitted to take the oath of office.

Today it is my great honor and, indeed, a privilege, to ask that TOM TIFFANY be able to take the oath of office, and to join the list of fewer than 11,000 people that have been honored by their constituents to serve in this House.

TOM spent a lot of his life being a successful small businessman. He was elected to the Wisconsin Assembly in 2008, and 2 years later was elected to the first of two terms in the Wisconsin

Senate. He has been a very strong and vocal proponent of the interests of people in northern and western Wisconsin, and he will continue to do so on the national stage.

Madam Speaker, it is now my honor to yield to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. TIFFANY).

Mr. TIFFANY. Madam Speaker, I would like to thank Leader MCCARTHY and the Members of the Wisconsin delegation in attendance here today. And I would like to thank Congressman SENSENBRENNER for his kind introduction; I wish him the best as he concludes his years servicing the people of Wisconsin in the Halls of Congress. Thank you, Speaker PELOSI, for taking time out of your busy day to conduct this swearing in.

My message is simple. Ten years ago I was given the great privilege to represent the people of northern Wisconsin in the State legislature in Madison. I made one commitment to them, to advance the cause of freedom and liberty.

Today, I make that same commitment to the good people of northern and western Wisconsin, to fight for those same enduring ideals that form the foundation of the American Republican.

Madam Speaker, I wish to thank my mother, Virgal Tiffany who, along with my deceased father, Pat Tiffany, raised my seven brothers and sisters in the little town of Elmwood, Wisconsin, with love and devotion. I am here today, Mom, because of the persistence and determination you have lived your life by every day. Madam Speaker, I suspect that she is down in her kitchen right now canning sauerkraut and pickles just like she has always done as a farm girl. Yes.

And, finally, to my wife, Chris, and our three daughters, Karlyn, Lexie, and Katherine, they are up in the gallery there. I hope you are as excited as I am as we turn the pages to a new chapter in our lives. Thank you for standing with me all of these years.
