MOMENT OF SILENCE HONORING REPRESENTATIVE JOHN LEWIS

(Mr. BISHOP of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Madam Speaker, William Cullen Bryant said:

So live, that when thy summons come to join

The innumerable caravan which moves
 To that mysterious realm where each shall take

His Chamber in the silent halls of death,
 Thou go not, like the quarry-slave at night,
 Scourged to his dungeon, but sustained and soothed

By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
 Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
 About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

Ladies and gentlemen of the House, it has become my solemn duty as dean of the Georgia delegation of the United States House of Representatives to announce and include in the records and proceedings of this august body notice that since we last convened, and specifically, on Friday, July 17, 2020, the Honorable JOHN ROBERT LEWIS, Representative of the Fifth Congressional District of Georgia, our hero, our colleague, our brother, our friend received and answered his final summons from God almighty and at that moment transitioned from labor to reward.

The world is a better place because JOHN LEWIS spent his life pursuing freedom, justice, opportunity, love, and peace for all of humanity. While he is an icon in the history of America for his courage and his sacrifice in making "good trouble," his enduring humility reflected the true timbre of his character. He inspired us as the conscience of the Congress, and we have all been truly blessed to know, love, and share the life and legacy of this extraordinary human being.

I ask that you join my wife, Vivian, and me, along with the Members of the Georgia delegation, in extending our deepest condolences to JOHN's family; friends; staff, including his faithful and devoted chief of staff, Michael Collins; and all those around the world who mourn his loss.

JOHN, rest in peace and lie down with pleasant dreams, knowing that this current generation will continue the fight for the ultimate realization of your beloved community.

Madam Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. GRAVES), my distinguished colleague.

Mr. GRAVES of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I first met JOHN LEWIS just a few feet from where we are right now in the well of the House. I was a special elect Member-to-be, and it was JOHN who welcomed me down in the well.

I will never forget that day. It was his thunderous voice that filled the Chamber as he welcomed me and introduced me to each of you. He honored me that day. Afterward, he embraced me, and then he stood by me as I put my hand up and took the oath of office.

□ 1230

It is truly a privilege now for me to be able to stand before you and to honor him not far from where he honored me as we remember the life and the legacy of one who is known as a gentle, gentle giant; a man whose courage and strength in the face of injustice and violence will forever be remembered; a man whose kindness and humility was apparent to anyone who had the opportunity to meet him.

Our Nation has indeed lost a giant, and it is times like these that we must be reminded of the shoulders that we stand on, the shoulders of giants like JOHN.

I am better off because of JOHN LEWIS. We are all better because of JOHN LEWIS. Our Nation is so much better because of JOHN LEWIS.

So, in the days to come, we should all strive to be a little bit more like JOHN: humble, grateful, and thankful for the opportunity to leave this Nation in better shape for the next generation.

May God bless JOHN LEWIS and bring peace to his family in the days to come.

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I ask that all Members rise for a moment of silence in remembrance of the Honorable JOHN ROBERT LEWIS.

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks that all those present in the Chamber, as well as Members and staff throughout the Capitol, and all who love JOHN LEWIS wherever you are, rise in a moment of silence in remembrance of the conscience of the Congress, the Honorable JOHN LEWIS.
