

people due to the language barrier, due to the immigration status, or due to the fact that people could not read the papers that they brought to the notario publicos. That was wrong then, and it is still wrong today.

As Members of Congress, we have a responsibility to protect the well-being and livelihoods of the most vulnerable among us, including American families across the country. Certainly, courts have recognized the widespread prevalence of notario fraud, and the negative impact on immigrants and their families is clear.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank my comadre and good friend, Congresswoman DEBBIE MUCARSEL-POWELL of south Florida, for exemplary leadership on this issue and for sponsoring this bill. I urge all of my colleagues to vote in favor of this very important legislation. Let's put an end to these fraudulent schemes.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Mr. Speaker, I have no further speakers at this time, and I am prepared to close. I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I have concerns that H.R. 8225 will only further complicate the immigration system and hurt rather than help the very people it is meant to protect. So with immigrants in mind, I have concerns with this bill as written.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. BASS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, the harms brought by notario schemes can be devastating. This bill's combination of enforcement and public education is critically needed to protect some of the most unsuspecting and vulnerable victims of fraud.

The Department of Justice must refocus its efforts to target notario fraud, and we are enabling them to do so with this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I thank Representative MUCARSEL-POWELL for championing this issue, and I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this bill.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, as a senior member of the Committee on the Judiciary, I rise in strong support of H.R. 8225, the "Fight Notario Fraud Act," introduced by the gentlelady from Florida, Congresswoman Murcasel-Powell.

I support this legislation because it protects persons who are the most vulnerable in society against unconscionable predatory conduct from fraudulent "notarios publicos" who use the "notary public" title to hold themselves out as authorized to provide immigration legal advice and services.

Specifically, H.R. 8225 would criminalize the provision of fraudulent legal services, certain misrepresentations by individuals who claim to be authorized to practice immigration law, and threats and retaliation associated with the provision of fraudulent legal services.

Additionally, the bill would require the Attorney General to create no fewer than 15 Special United States Attorney positions to prosecute notario fraud crimes.

Mr. Speaker, the roots of modern "notario fraud" in the United States stem from a practice in parts of Latin America where "notarios publicos," (which could be literally translated to "notaries public") are lawyers and, as such, are authorized to provide legal services.

Unlike in the United States, because "notario pblicos" in Latin America have a law license and can represent others in court, many Spanish-speaking immigrants in the United States turn to notaries thinking they are attorneys able to represent them in legal proceedings, especially cases involving immigration claims.

On account of linguistic and cultural differences in meaning, notario fraud disproportionately targets immigrants from Latin America who are not fluent English speakers or familiar with the difference between the Latin American and American legal systems.

Notarios often gain the trust of the immigrant families they defraud, making extravagant promises and preying on the desperation of families.

The effect of the breach of trust can often be dire and multifaceted. Notarios often make mistakes in these filings and proceedings, which can result in irreversibly negative immigration consequences for their clients.

A notario's legal errors can lead to an unfavorable review in immigration courts and may prejudice the immigrant-appellant on appeal.

Fly-by-night notarios may skip town with important documentation immigrants need to file for immigration relief or they may apply for relief without the immigrant-applicant's knowledge.

A notario's advice to a parent may impact the separate and independent relief a child applicant may have.

Currently, equitable relief for this malfeasance is not available in the immigration proceedings and, even worse, defrauded immigrants can be charged with filing false claims.

Immigrants have been defrauded of hundreds or even thousands of dollars by unscrupulous notarios only to find out they will not receive the services they were promised and, in some cases, these individuals find themselves in worse conditions than when they originally sought help with their immigration matters.

After they discover that they have been bilked, many immigrants are afraid to report notaries; by some estimates, only one in every hundred cases are reported.

In one civil action initiated by the Federal Trade Commission in 2011, investigators recovered evidence of 2,785 defrauded immigrants, but only 99 consumer complaints associated with the notario grifter—a reporting rate of 3.55 percent.

Because many of the victims of notarios also do not have legal immigration status, they fear negative immigration outcomes if they attempt to bring a complaint.

Courts across the country have recognized the widespread prevalence of notario fraud.

The proposed explicit criminalization of notario fraud is necessary to focus criminal fraud prosecution on widespread scams that target some of the least sophisticated and most vulnerable individuals in our society.

I strongly support this legislation and urge all Members to join me in voting for its passage.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from California (Ms. BASS) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 8225, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

EMPOWERING OLYMPIC, PARALYMPIC, AND AMATEUR ATHLETES ACT OF 2020

Ms. BASS. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the bill (S. 2330) to amend the Ted Stevens Olympic and Amateur Sports Act to provide for congressional oversight of the board of directors of the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee and to protect amateur athletes from emotional, physical, and sexual abuse, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The text of the bill is as follows:

S. 2330

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Empowering Olympic, Paralympic, and Amateur Athletes Act of 2020".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The courageous voice of survivors is a call to action to end emotional, physical, and sexual abuse in the Olympic and Paralympic movement.

(2) Larry Nassar, the former national team doctor for USA Gymnastics, sexually abused over 300 athletes for over two decades because of ineffective oversight by USA Gymnastics and the United States Olympic Committee.

(3) While the case of Larry Nassar is unprecedented in scale, the case is hardly the only recent incident of sexual abuse in amateur sports.

(4) Survivors of Larry Nassar's abuse and all survivors of abuse in the Olympic and Paralympic movement deserve justice and redress for the wrongs the survivors have suffered.

(5) After a comprehensive congressional investigation, including interviews and statements from survivors, former and current organization officials, law enforcement, and advocates, Congress found that the United States Olympic Committee and USA Gymnastics fundamentally failed to uphold their existing statutory purposes and duty to protect amateur athletes from sexual, emotional, or physical abuse.

(6) USA Gymnastics and the United States Olympic Committee knowingly concealed abuse by Larry Nassar, leading to the abuse of dozens of additional amateur athletes during the period beginning in the summer of 2015 and ending in September 2016.

(7) Ending abuse in the Olympic and Paralympic movement requires enhanced oversight to ensure that the Olympic and Paralympic movement does more to serve athletes and protect their voice and safety.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentlewoman from California (Ms. BASS) and the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr.

RESCHENTHALER) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from California.

GENERAL LEAVE

Ms. BASS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members have 5 legislative days to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the bill under consideration.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from California?

There was no objection.

Ms. BASS. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of S. 2330, the Empowering Olympic, Paralympic, and Amateur Athletes Act of 2020, a bipartisan bill that restores integrity to the Olympic movement and provides much-needed protections to our country's amateur athletes in the wake of the Larry Nassar sexual abuse scandal.

S. 2330 was introduced after bipartisan investigations, launched in both the House and the Senate, revealed systemic failures within the Olympic community that contributed to widespread instances of sexual abuse of athletes, including minors.

These include a lack of effective oversight of the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee and amateur sports national governing bodies, the failure of these organizations to uphold their duty to protect athletes from abuse by failing to report allegations of wrongdoings to appropriate law enforcement authorities, and concealing these failures and neglecting to enact serious reforms.

S. 2330 addresses these issues through a series of governance and oversight reforms, including increasing the liability of the USOPC and NGB for failing to take appropriate action in response to allegations of abuse, providing congressional authority to dissolve the USOPC board and decertified NGBs, increasing the level of amateur athletes' representations on the USOPC board and NGB governing structures, and requiring the USOPC to establish clear procedures and reporting requirements to protect athletes.

Importantly, the bill also strengthens the work and independence of the Center for SafeSport, the nonprofit organization that is responsible for investigating allegations of sexual abuse against athletes. The bill requires USOPC to provide the Center for SafeSport $20 million in funding each year to cover its operating costs.

The bill also prevents potential conflicts of interest by prohibiting individuals who are employed by the USOPC or an NGB from serving the Center for SafeSport and limiting the ability of former employers and board members from serving.

S. 2330 is supported by the USOPC, the Center for SafeSport, and a coalition of hundreds of Olympic and Paralympic athletes, coaches, sports leaders, and sexual abuse survivors.

The bill passed by the Senate by unanimous consent on August 4, 2020, and its companion bill, H.R. 7881, has bipartisan support here in the House as well.

I commend the work of Senators BLUMENTHAL and MORAN, as well as Representatives TED LIEU, JOHN CURTIS, DIANA DEGETTE, SUSAN BROOKS, ANN KUSTER, and MICHAEL BURGESS for their tireless work on this bill.

I urge all of my colleagues to vote in favor of this bill, and I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. RESCHENTHALER. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S. 2330, the Empowering Olympic, Paralympic, and Amateur Athletes Act of 2020.

In 2016, we were shaken by the revelations of abuse that permeated USA Gymnastics and the Olympic community. While the blame for this abuse falls squarely at the feet of the predator, USA Gymnastics and the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Committee also failed the victims.

In 2017, the U.S. Olympic Committee created the U.S. Center for SafeSport. SafeSport is an independent organization entrusted with responding to reports of abuse and misconduct within the Olympic Committee.

S. 2330 supports the work that SafeSport is doing and helps address the shortcomings in the committee that allowed the abuse to occur. One of the most important reforms in this bill is a requirement that athletes serve on the governing bodies that oversee their sports, ensuring that athletes finally get a seat at the table.

I thank Senator MORAN and the other Senators who investigated these issues and developed these important reforms.

I urge my colleagues to support this important piece of legislation.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further speakers, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. BASS. Mr. Speaker, I again acknowledge the leadership and commitment of so many of my colleagues who worked in a bipartisan fashion on this important bill.

Mr. Speaker, I support S. 2330, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. DEGETTE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the Empowering Olympic, Paralympic and Amateur Athletes Act.

The Olympics are meant to be a celebration. A coming together of our Nation's finest, who have given their all to represent us on the world's stage.

And yet, over the past several years, abuse allegations have filtered into every corner of the Olympic sports.

USOP—the very body that was created to care for our athletes—became more concerned about protecting its brand than the athletes themselves. We know now that USOPC and USA Gymnastics officials knew about the horrific sexual assault allegations brought against Larry Nassar, and still chose to ignore them.

It is long past time for a change.

Our Olympic athletes devote their entire lives to representing the United States of America. Today, Congress is making good on our promise to represent them.

This legislation includes my bill to form an independent, blue-ribbon commission to study and reform the Nation's top sport's governing body.

The 16-member independent commission would be made up of, at least, eight Olympic or Paralympic athletes and will be tasked with studying how the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee operates, and provide Congress a list of recommendations to better protect the nation's top athletes.

A gold medal is not worth the lives that have been torn apart because of this.

I'm thrilled that we're passing this bill, but today's victory is only the first step towards much needed reform of the U.S. Olympic and Paralympic Committee.

I look forward to continuing to work with the USOPC, National Governing Bodies, and athletes across the nation so that we may strive towards a more resilient Team USA.

We must continue to find ways to give our athletes a voice in the process—and to ensure that it's putting their well-being above all else.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from California (Ms. BASS) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, S. 2330.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

CORRECTING THE ENROLLMENT OF S. 2330

Ms. BASS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to take from the Speaker's table the concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 46) to correct the enrollment of S. 2330, and ask for its immediate consideration in the House.

The Clerk read the title of the concurrent resolution.
