

FEMA changed the way the documents were going to be accepted. Then they changed it again. And they did that more than five times during the course of Hurricanes Irma and Maria. So at the beginning, no papers were accepted, and then they changed it. So there was a difficult situation for people, even in the center of the island.

The documents that were requested in the north part of the island were different from those in the south, from those in the west, or in the countryside. And that is the reason this bill is so important.

This bill will provide necessary flexibilities in the form of documents that individuals that were residing in the area during the natural disaster got to apply for disaster assistance. Individuals may now use their driver's license, deeds, or title to properties, utilities bills, or any of the 13 forms included in this bill as evidence of occupancy.

In our case, you got many people that were affected. There was no doubt in terms of FEMA or the government that they were affected by the hurricanes, yet they did not have the papers at the time because they lose them because of disaster, and it was so difficult to get the government actually to use or redo those papers in time. So that took almost a year for many of the individuals affected by hurricanes in Puerto Rico just to provide the documents.

As you may know, many of the dates expired. Most of the people didn't qualify then to receive the Federal funds that were available for disaster survivors. That is the reason H.R. 2914 also includes language for a report on the Disaster Housing Assistance Program, and how effective this program is. The Federal Emergency Management Agency decided against using this disaster housing program in Puerto Rico following Hurricanes Irma and Maria, as the agency looks to other efficient programs to more effectively meet the immediate needs of those affected by the two hurricanes.

After those crazy 1 and 2 years, I may say that FEMA is helping and providing and using many of the forms that are now included in this bill to get those funds available. But, again, that can change if we don't have it in law, and that is the reason this bill is so important.

Mr. Speaker, I thank, again, Representatives ESPAILLAT, and leadership on the Committee, as well as my ranking member for supporting this legislation and working with me and my staff to improve this bill for the past year. I urge its passage.

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, H.R. 2914 is going to help speed up the recovery following a disaster by helping disaster victims who have lost their personal records, and likely much more, to verify residency and homeownership. It is a very good piece of legislation, and I would urge support of this, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Ms. NORTON. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to support this legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentlewoman from the District of Columbia (Ms. NORTON) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 2914, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

There was no objection.

PENNSYLVANIANS NEED RELIEF

(Ms. HOULAHAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. HOULAHAN. Madam Speaker, Pennsylvania, like the rest of the country, is in the midst of both a public health and an economic crisis. This clearly isn't news to anyone. We have been here for months now.

My community—the people whom I represent—are looking to us—the people whom they just cast ballots for—to comprehensively address this crisis. No matter which side of the aisle that you are on, Madam Speaker, we have a collective responsibility to address the COVID pandemic from both the public health and economic perspective.

I have been in my community talking to small business owners. Hard-working Pennsylvanians need Federal support to weather this crisis. An economic recovery cannot ignore the needs of our small businesses. That is not recovery at all.

We need to pass my Paycheck Protection Small Business Forgiveness Act to expedite forgiveness for Paycheck Protection Program loans for less than $150,000, which accounts for more than 90 percent of PPP borrowers across the country.
