

bills that became law, most of which he authored. He sponsored the America Competes Act of 2007; the Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015, greatly benefitting students in my home State of Maryland and nationwide; the 21st Century Cures Act of 2016; and the Opioid Crisis Response Act of 2018. He also authored legislation to modernize how songwriters are compensated for their works. The list goes on and on.

Senator ALEXANDER has been a champion of higher education reform, seeking to simplify the process of applying for financial aid and to increase access for all students. I have been proud to work with him to support and strengthen historically Black colleges and universities and minority serving institutions. On the environmental front, I had the opportunity to work with Senator ALEXANDER on legislation to end the dumping of mining waste into streams, the Appalachia Restoration Act of 2009.

Senator ALEXANDER is always courteous, an “eloquent listener,” and always eager to forge bipartisan solutions to our Nation’s problems. Just a few days ago, I know Senators and staff were delighted to listen to him play Christmas carols and hymns on the piano in the Hart atrium. We will greatly miss his calm and dignified presence in the Senate, but he has certainly earned the opportunity to spend more time with his beloved wife of 51 years, Honey; their children Leslee, Kathryn, Andrew, and William; and their nine grandchildren.

Senators ENZI, ROBERTS, and ALEXANDER have served in this institution for 66 years combined. Senator UDALL has served 12 years, and Senator GARDNER has served 6 years. Senators JONES and McSALLY did not have an opportunity to serve a full term, but all told, we are losing close to 90 years of dedicated service to the institution, our colleagues, their constituents, and all Americans. There is a tradition for departing Senators to give a farewell address, and most use the opportunity to bemoan the fact that the Senate has become less collegial and more partisan. I share that discontent and sadness. I think the best way we can pay appropriate tribute to the fine Members who are leaving at the end of this Congress is by rededicating ourselves to preserving and expanding on their legacy of bipartisanship. I want to express my deep admiration of and appreciation to Senators ALEXANDER, ENZI, GARDNER, JONES, MCSALLY, ROBERTS, and UDALL. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve with and learn from them, and I cherish our friendships.
