

was a fearless champion for LGBTQ+ causes and fought tirelessly to bring us one step closer to eradicating HIV. Today, Arizona is a better and brighter place for his presence among us.

A New Jersey native, Richard had a profound love for Arizona. Put best by Richard himself, "I will retire here someday." After moving to the Grand Canyon state, Richard immediately rooted himself firmly giving all his time, heart, and soul to the betterment of our community. Casa Ben Dita—his beloved McCormick Ranch home—became a gathering place for some of the premiere LGBTQ+ organizations in Phoenix—particularly Lambda Legal, the oldest national legal organization dedicated to working for the civil rights of the LGBTQ+ community. Year after year, Richard inspired so many and had a unique sense of bringing people together for the common good.

When Aunt Rita's Foundation brought the AIDS Walk back to Phoenix, Richard was one of the first to jump in and support its success. He also was relentlessly active in Aunt Rita's Red Brunch to celebrate World AIDS Day and joined the Foundation's Red Purse Club, generously donating his time, talents, and treasure year after year.

His commitment to LGBTQ+ rights and the eradication of HIV extended beyond excellence in service and volunteerism. Together, with community partners, Richard helped form permanent financial legacies for the Southwest Center for HIV/AIDS. His generosity transformed the Southwest Center from a small organization to a thriving pillar of our community. Richard showed that by giving, anyone and everyone can change the world.

Today, the Southwest Center for HIV/AIDS is known as Arizona's premiere leader for financially accessible, culturally competent, LGBTQ+ friendly healthcare. For his lifetime achievement, he received the Southwest Center Philanthropist Lifetime Legacy Award and was named a Partner for Life. In his honor, the Center named its clinical trials division the "Richard P. Stahl Research Wing".

As we reflect how long we have come in the work to eradicate HIV, there is no doubt our progress was shaped by Richard Stahl. Arizona owes him a debt of gratitude, and he will be deeply missed by his friends, family, and all those he uplifted with his positivity and unwavering support.

Madam Speaker, in this spirit of remembrance, I rise to honor the life and legacy of Richard Stahl. I thank Richard, and Godspeed.

RECOGNIZING FEMALE LEADERS WHO SHE LEADS AMERICA IS HONORING AS CHRISTIAN WOMEN OF DISTINCTION

HON. LISA C. McCLAIN

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Mrs. McCLAIN. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor and highlight the work of some extraordinary female leaders in our country who are being honored by She Leads America as "Christian Women of Distinction."

For my constituents back in Michigan, I try and lead by example through my faith and commitment to public service. But many times, people don't look to Washington for their role models. Fortunately, it does not take long to find others guided by their strong moral compass, faith, and commitment to selfless public service. Today, I honor some of these women, who through their tireless dedication, have shattered glass ceilings and touched the lives of countless individuals around the world. For my part, I remain committed to defending religious freedom here in Congress to ensure each of these women, and all of my constituents, never have to compromise their religious beliefs in order to conform to whatever the trending culture is at the moment.

Kathy Branzell serves as the President of the National Day of Prayer Task Force. Dating back to 1775, the National Day of Prayer encourages Americans to pray for the people and today includes millions who attend 30,000 observances organized by 40,000 volunteers all over the United States. Kathy is also the founder and president of Fellowship and Christian Encouragement (FACE) for Educators, and the author/coauthor of five books on prayer.

Marilyn Hickey is a TV ministry pioneer for women, with her TV and media ministry broadcast around the world. Marilyn is a peacemaker, teacher, and someone who has personally shared her message of God's love and forgiveness in 138 countries, and her lectures on healing and the Bible have broken records for the largest public meetings ever held in Egypt and Pakistan. In addition, her organization has actively been involved in meeting humanitarian needs around the world. Marilyn Hickey Ministry partners have helped millions of individuals overcome setbacks and practice Biblical principles.

Commissioner Jolene K. Hodder is the highest-ranking female officer in the Salvation Army in the USA. She has a passion for leading women to Christ and then equipping, motivating, and preparing them for effective ministry. Jolene is the author of two published books and has worked across America and overseas, serving all people without discrimination, wherever, whenever, and however she can.

Dr. Alveda C. King, is a civil rights activist, speaking out on issues that face society today. She founded "Speak for Life", a ministry mobilizing generations of pro-life advocates that will boldly speak for life. She is the daughter of the late civil rights activist Rev. A. D. King and his wife, Naomi Barber King. Currently, Dr. King is a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, serving as Pastoral Associate for Civil Rights for The Unborn and Priests for Life. During the years of the Civil Rights Movement, Dr. King's family home was bombed in Birmingham, Alabama, in the heat of the struggle. "Daddy's house was bombed, then in Louisville, Kentucky his church office was bombed. I was also jailed during the open housing movement," she recalls.

Dr. Jane Hansen-Hoyt serves as the President/CEO of Aglow International, a Christian women's organization of more than 200,000 women. The organization includes global leaders who annually impact 17 million people. As an international speaker and author, she challenges us to view each circumstance of life from a Heavenly perspective. She also serves on The Steering Committee of The American Christian Leaders for Israel (ACLI).

Penny Young Nance is CEO and President of Concerned Women for America (CWA), the nation's largest public policy women's organization. Prior to CWA, Penny served as a Special Advisor for the Federal Communications Commission, where she advised the Chairman and Commissioners on media and social issues. She is a graduate of Liberty University, where she currently serves on their Board of Trustees.

Bodie Thoene, is a world-renowned author of 75 historical novels as well as an award-winning screen writer and movie producer. Her books have sold 35 million copies in 30 languages. She has won 8 ECPA Gold Medallion awards for Fiction, more than any other author in history. Bodie is, above all, a follower of Jesus Christ. She is an American Patriot and fervent supporter of the Nation of Israel, a wife, mother and grandmother. Her movie, I'm Not Ashamed, the true story of Rachel Joy Scott, first martyr of Columbine, was a finalist for GMA Dove Awards Most Inspirational film of 2017.

Reverend Eve Nunez is a nationally recognized faith-based leader most known for her work as a child advocate and Hispanic community organizer. Her decades-long commitment to these communities has earned her a National Service Award from President George W. Bush, the Martin Luther King Jr. Award from President Barack Obama, the Street Saint Award from Governor Janet Napolitano, and many more.

Peggy Nienaber serves as the Vice President for Faith & Liberty overseeing the ministry programs that build strong alliances on Capitol Hill. Peggy also serves as President of the Capitol Forum Club, a meeting held inside the U.S. Capitol. Peggy was also a NGO Liaison for the United Nations and participated in the UN Commission on the Status of Women.

Shirley Dobson, is the honorary "Mom of America." Through her partnership with her husband, Dr. James Dobson, in "Focus on the Family" and "Family Talk" broadcasts, millions of families have received the support and encouragement they need to navigate their daily lives. Under her leadership and strong faith, the U.S. National Day of Prayer enjoyed massive growth. Millions of Americans now take their responsibility seriously to pray for government leaders.

Madam Speaker, I hope these women know full well the impact they have had on countless lives. These women are trailblazers, and the example they have set will be followed by people of my district, and many other Americans, for years to come. I thank each of them for their passion and commitment. This honor is well-deserved.

IN RECOGNITION OF PROVIDENCE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH ON ITS 175TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Providence United Presbyterian Church in Scranton, Pennsylvania on its 175th anniversary. According to the original charter, it was the first Presbyterian church to be founded in the Lackawanna and Upper Valley. The occasion will be marked with a festive celebration and service on Sunday, October 3, 2021.

On July 27, 1846, residents of Providence village gathered to discuss building a meeting house. A vote determined that the meeting house would be governed by the Presbyterians. On October 5, 1846, the First Presbyterian Church of Providence, Pennsylvania was organized. The first church building was built on the corner of Church Avenue and Oak Street, and the first meeting of the congregation took place on April 19, 1847. The house was dedicated on July 25, 1849 with Rev. Joseph Barlow as the first pastor. In 1862, a parsonage was added to the grounds, and a lecture and bible classroom was added to the church building in 1869.

In 1882, the congregation purchased land to build a new house of worship. They sold the parsonage to fund the cost of the new church in 1884, and in 1886, the beautiful stone church was completed and dedicated.

The faithful gathered and worshiped at 2020 North Main Avenue for almost a century. In 1971, the Providence Presbyterian Church merged with the Suburban Presbyterian Church to form the Providence United Presbyterian Church (PUPC). The congregations joined together to bear witness to their faith and serve their community.

The PUPC has been a pillar of the strong and supportive faith community of the City of Scranton for nearly two centuries. When the Concord United Church of Christ closed its doors, the PUPC welcomed its members into their fold. From 2004 to 2008, the PUPC shared worship and gathering spaces with many area churches, such as Marywood University, Covenant Presbyterian Church, the Presbyterian Church of Dunmore, Immanuel Lutheran Church, and Throop United Methodist Church. In 2008, the PUPC dedicated its new church building at 1145 Providence Road in Scranton.

Today, PUPC continues to grow and thrive. The church welcomes the faithful of the City of Scranton to practice their faith, fostering community and fellowship within the congregation.

I am honored to join with the congregation of the Providence United Presbyterian Church to celebrate 175 years of worship and community and the essential role it has played in the growth of Presbyterianism in Scranton. May PUPC continue to be a mainstay in the Scranton faith community and provide a safe and welcoming place to worship for generations to come.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE 100TH
BIRTHDAY OF ELSA FORTH

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Mrs. Elsa Forth of Taylor, Michigan on her 100th birthday. Her life of courage and strength is worthy of recognition.

Mrs. Forth was born in the city of Belluno, Italy on October 1, 1921, the second of twins, to Andreas and Maria Da Rin. She spent summers in the village of Laggio di Cadore with her sister Antonietta and brother Alvio. She was educated at the Vatican at the sponsorship of Father Albino Luciani—later Pope John Paul I. Her hometown became a battlefield during World War II and Mrs. Forth played a major role in the operations of the Partisans who fought alongside the allied forces against the fascist Mussolini and Nazi Germany. Her actions branded her a hero to those who know her legacy in Belluno. She left her home after being proposed to by a man with American citizenship and moved to Melvindale, Michigan.

After taking time to learn to speak English, she started working as a waitress at The Venetian Inn in downriver. In good company with the Italian family who owned the bar, they called her their "Italian Hero." She was quick to make friends and was well beloved in her new home. Tragically, she came home one night to a drunken, jealous husband and came face to face with a shotgun. She managed to escape down the stairs of their small apartment but was hit in her face and upper chest. She escaped bullets in Italy only to fall victim to gunshots in America.

Luckily, Mrs. Forth was able to get an experimental plastic surgery and was able to heal quickly. Soon after, she met Raymond Forth and they wed. Together they have one son, Tony "Tone". She was able to find work in a technical industrial role where she remained until her retirement at age 70. When Tony joined the Marines, Mr. and Mrs. Forth moved to a home in Taylor, Michigan. Today, they live together in the renovated family home, along with Tony's wife, Antonette. Mr. Raymond Forth passed away in 1983 Tony struggles to keep up with his mother who remains full of life, even at age 100.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today in celebrating Mrs. Elsa Forth on her 100th birthday. Her story is one that inspires all who hear it. I join with her family and friends in extending my best and warmest wishes to her on this special day. I am proud to honor her life, her accomplishments, and her invaluable contributions to our community here at home and abroad.

WISHING KATHY CALDWELL, A HAPPY RETIREMENT

HON. SYLVIA R. GARCIA

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Ms. GARCIA of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate and wish a happy retirement to Kathy Caldwell, CEO of Legacy Community Health Centers.

Our Houston community thanks Kathy for her hard work and for her remarkable leadership at Legacy and in our community at large.

Under her leadership, Legacy has expanded exponentially.

What started as a small neighborhood clinic has become a large organization employing thousands of Texans serving Houston diligently.

Our community will miss her.

We are certainly inspired by her work and thank her for what Legacy will continue to do for Houston.

This work has been particularly important for low-income communities and communities of color, including Latinos, which have been disproportionately affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

We wish her the best on her next steps.

I congratulate her on her retirement and God bless.

RECOGNIZING THE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF JOHNSON ESTATE WINERY IN WESTFIELD, NEW YORK

HON. TOM REED

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Mr. REED. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize the sixtieth anniversary of Johnson Estate Winery in Westfield, New York and congratulate the Johnson family for reaching this tremendous milestone.

Three generations of Johnsons have farmed what is now Johnson Estate Winery. After immigrating to Canada and attending Cornell University, Frederick Johnson purchased a circa-1822 home and farm along the banks of Freelings Creek in Westfield, New York. He planted various fruits like apples, peaches, and concord vineyards, and named the farm Sunnyslope Fruit Farm. He worked as an entomologist with the Department of Agriculture in Washington, D.C. and North East, Pennsylvania, met his wife, and raised his family.

His son Frederick Spencer Johnson grew up on the farm, served in World War II as a naval aviator, graduated from Cornell, and raised his family overseas while working for Nelson Rockefeller's various agricultural endeavors. He returned to the farm in 1960, after his father died, and removed the aging fruit orchards before being the first Western New York Farmer to plant French hybrid grapes. His favorite hybrid, Chancellor, is in the winery's famous Founder's Red. In 1961, he opened the Johnson Estate Winery.

Frederick Spencer's children inherited the farm in 1998 and grew the winery with new vineyards, construction of a finished goods warehouse, and the introduction of new wines like fruit, sparkling, and ice wines. In 2010, Frederick Johnson, Jr. became the owner of the farm and winery with his wife, Jennifer. They renovated the century-old tasting room in 2011 and still live in the two-hundred-year-old farmhouse. This year, they opened an outdoor wine and food pairing location, Flight, as a nod to Fred Sr.'s service as a naval aviator and the love of aviation he shared with his son, Fred Jr. Guests enjoy sights and smells of harvest while savoring delicious wine and locally-sourced fruits, curated cheeses, and charcuterie boards.

Given the above, I ask that this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations and join me to recognize the sixtieth anniversary of Johnson Estate Winery in Westfield, New York. Congratulations on this tremendous milestone.

CELEBRATING THE SEVENTH
BIRTHDAY OF BLAKE BURTON

HON. BILL FOSTER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 30, 2021

Mr. FOSTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor one of my constituents, Blake Burton, on his seventh birthday and to recognize his resilient spirit in the face of unbelievable hardship.

Blake was diagnosed with leukemia at the age of four and has been bravely battling it
