HONORING DR. GARY AND KAROLYN CHAPMAN

HON. TED BUDD

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. BUDD. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Dr. Gary and Karolyn Chapman as they celebrate 50 years of ministry at Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, NC.

When Gary and Karolyn Chapman began their ministry at Calvary in 1971 at the invitation of Dr. Mark Cortis, they didn't land immediately within the business of strengthening marriages. It was only after the Chapmans had been faithfully leading the college and single adult ministries of the church that God opened a door for them to reach those encountering relational difficulties, primarily focusing on married couples and families.

Karolyn has long been involved in encouraging other pastors' wives, a hugely important work to minister to the behind-the-scenes supporters that she's uniquely suited to care for. In addition to this, Calvary and all its members have been blessed through Karolyn's beautiful voice and her devotion to the church's choir ministry.

Millions of relationships have experienced healing and restoration through Gary's work as a pastor, marriage counselor, and author of over fifty books including his best-selling The Five Love Languages, which has sold over 20 million copies and been translated into more than 50 different languages. While Gary formally retired from his position as Senior Associate Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church at the end of July, he continues to write and teach, and neither he nor Karolyn have any plans of retiring from ministry altogether.

Madam Speaker, please join me in congratulating Gary and Karolyn on a half-century of faithful service invested in sharing Christ's love with the world. Their example has been an inspiration to me, my family, and to so many. May we all continue to grow closer to Christ as we follow their example.

HONORING MR. ARTHUR M.
NEWELL

HON. TIM RYAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mr. RYAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Arthur M. Newell, of Struthers, Ohio, on the awarding to him of the French Legion d'honneur.

The government of the French Republic, since the end of the Second World War, honors those liberators, who restored those liberties with determination, sacrifice, duty, and honor, with the presentation of the Ordre national de la Légion d'honneur.

Conceived over two centuries ago by Napoléon Bonaparte, First Consul of the First Republic of France, his Order was devised to reward eminent military and civil merits in the service of France. The award is still the highest distinction that can be bestowed upon a citizen of France or a foreigner who has done great deeds for France.

Of his service, then Private First Class Newell recalls, "After arriving in Metz, France, our regiment joined others from Patton's 3rd Army in an attempt to breach the Siegfried Line. Just to the east of Metz, we approached our first enemy pillbox. It appeared to be out of action until we were within about 100 feet from it. At that moment the Germans opened fire. A few of our men got hit and a few more stepped on mines or set off booby traps. We took cover. Our heavy weapons platoon came up to the front and with their machine guns and bazookas they took direct aim at the bunkers slotted openings and opened fire. As the battle progressed my buddies and I got close enough to lob grenades towards the fortification. The enemy within the pillbox fell silent."

There is no doubt that Mr. Newell is a true American hero, emblematic of the service that characterizes the Veterans of Ohio's 13th Congressional District, the state of Ohio, and the United States of America.

I want to personally congratulate Arthur on this milestone and offer my sincerest gratitude for his unwavering dedication to our country. It is members of his generation upon which our nation is built.

COMMEMORATING NATIONAL POLICE WEEKEND

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, as a member of the Law Enforcement Caucus and a senior member of the Committees on Judiciary and Homeland Security, and the Chair of the Subcommittee on Crime, Terrorism, and Homeland Security, I rise to commemorate National Police Weekend, which runs from today, Friday, October 15, through Sunday, October 17, 2021.

The National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial is the nation's monument to law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty.

Dedicated on October 15, 1991, the Memorial honors federal, state and local law enforcement officers who have made the ultimate sacrifice for the safety and protection of our nation and its people.

Carved on its walls are the names of 22,611 officers who have been killed in the line of duty throughout U.S. history, dating back to the first known death in 1791.

Added to the Wall this year will be the names of the 295 police officers who lost their lives in the line of duty in 2020 and an additional 99 officers who died in previous years but whose stories of sacrifice had been lost to history until now.

Also to be added are the names of 182 officers who were lost to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020.

Madam Speaker, enshrined on the Memorial Wall of Honor also are the names of 1,831 fallen peace officers from the state of Texas, the most of any state, including 115 members of the Houston Police Department who gave their lives to keep their city safe.

To this Roll of Honor will be added the following heroes from Texas:

Caleb Daniel Rule, End of Watch: May 29, 2020, Fort Bend County, Texas, C.O., Pct. 4

Mark Christopher Brown, End of Watch: July 26, 2020, Harris County, Texas, C.O., Pct. 5

Johnny Ramos Tunches, End of Watch: November 2, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Cornelius Bernard Anderson, End of Watch: July 12, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Juan Menchaca Jr., End of Watch: June 13, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Raymond John Scholwinski, End of Watch: May 6, 2020, Harris County, Texas, S.O.

Dennis Roy Oliver Jr., End of Watch: October 2, 2020, Highland Village, Texas, P.D.

Lemuel Delray Bruce Jr., End of Watch: October 16, 2020, Houston, Texas, F.D.

Christopher Charles Lewis Brewster, End of Watch: December 7, 2019, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Ernest Leal Jr., End of Watch: November 27, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Harold Lloyd Preston, End of Watch: October 20, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Jason Michael Knox, End of Watch: May 2, 2020, Houston, Texas, P.D.

Madam Speaker, today there are more than 800,000 law enforcement personnel serving the people of our country, the highest amount ever.

About 12 percent of them are female.

These brave men and women risk their lives to keep the peace and keep us safe, but they are too often taken by the violence they are working to prevent.

Every year, a law enforcement officer is killed somewhere in the United States every 55 hours, and there are also 58,170 assaults against our law officers each year, resulting in 17,560 injuries.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to represent the people of the 18th Congressional District of Texas in paying tribute to the 394 fallen heroes who will be joining the 22,611 gallant men and women who gave the last full measure of devotion to the communities they took an oath to protect and serve.

Madam Speaker, I ask for a moment of silence in memory of the 295 officers who died in the line of duty in 2020 and the additional 99 officers who died in previous years but whose story had been lost to history, the names of all of whom will be added to the National Peace Officers Memorial Wall of Honor.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE ALEXIS COMPANY

HON. RASHIDA TLAI

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Ms. TLAI. Madam Speaker, today I rise to recognize an African American-owned small business, the Alexis Company, based in Detroit in Michigan's 13th Congressional District, as they celebrate their thirty-fifth anniversary.

The Alexis Company is the culmination of the hard work of its founder Regina Dubose. Born and raised in Detroit, Ms. Dubose dreamed of one day running her own business when she was a child. She credits her financial and business acumen to the mentorship she received in one of her earliest jobs working at a local accounting firm. Ms. Dubose was drawn to a career in psychology and counseling after earning her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Wayne State University, but she found herself drawn to entrepreneurship when she began working as a vendor at concerts and events in the mid-1980s.

By 1986, Ms. Dubose was able to open the Alexis Company. Over the years, she has grown the business with expanded product lines and by engaging with local events and organizations. The early initial successes solidified the Alexis Company's reputation as a reliable partner in community events. Ms. Dubose was able to leverage this work into a distributorship for the company, which increased their access to promotional products and broadened their competitive edge in new markets at the local, state, national, and international levels.

Under Ms. Dubose's leadership, the Alexis Company has adapted to the changing demands of the business. Most recently, she has shifted her focus to sharing her knowledge by writing and publishing a book about her experiences. Ms. Dubose and the Alexis Company reflect the grit and adaptability needed to succeed as an entrepreneur. Small businesses are the backbone of local economies, and it is especially meaningful when minority-owned businesses succeed and thrive.

Please join me in recognizing Regina Dubose and the Alexis Company as they celebrate thirty-five years in business as we wish them well in the years to come.

HONORING ISABEL MARTINEZ
SANTOS AS IOWAN OF THE WEEK

HON. CYNTHIA AXNE

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 15, 2021

Mrs. AXNE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Isabel Martinez Santos as Iowan of the Week. Isabel immigrated to the United States and has lived in Iowa for 28 years. Isabel has become a staple of advocacy within her community. Isabel has committed herself to addressing the conflict that exists in our world through her position with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence and with Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras, a community-focused dance group she founded.

Isabel started her very accomplished career as a member of a community group that worked directly with women who faced violence in different aspects of their lives. Through this, and the values that were instilled in her from her parents, Isabel began to amplify the voices of those in need. This year, Isabel was promoted as the co-director of Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence's Legal Clinic as the Bi-Lingual DOJ Accredited Representative. She provides legal services, consultations, resources, and support to survivors of partner violence. She also offers technical assistance, mentorship to Spanish-speaking bi-cultural advocates, and training. Her commitment to advocacy on behalf of survivors is evident in her extensive track record of 22 years in the victim services field.

In addition to her role with the Iowa Coalition Against Domestic Violence, Isabel found another way to give back to her community. Isabel founded Nuestras Danzas sin Fronteras almost six years ago hoping to create a place for self-care for other advocates. Since its opening, Isabel has welcomed a broader spectrum of members of her community to highlight individual cultures, have fun, and overcome the barriers of trauma. Through her group, Isabel strives to provide change that will last for generations.

Not only has Isabel been an incredible advocate for the women of Iowa, but Isabel is also the 2021 recipient of the Diane Reese Excellence in Advocacy in the Movement (DREAM) Award from the National Network to end Domestic Violence. This national award is granted to individuals who incorporate and demonstrate the spirit and promise of true advocacy in all aspects of their life—one who emulates Ms. Reese's commitment to clear and ethical communication, her eagerness to collaborate in the spirit of true partnership, and her deep respect for the dignity, worth and humanity in each one of us.

Isabel hopes to be a role model and leave a legacy for her three children, her community, and immigrant women around the world by continuing to actively work to end the violence that exists in our world. It is my pleasure to name Isabel Martinez Santos Iowan of the Week.
