

When talking about her experience, Sue Ellen used to say, “Being released from prison is like being shot out of a cannon naked into a brick wall.” Even through hardship, she never lost her sense of humor. Upon her release, she authored “The Slumber Party from Hell” detailing her time in prison. She then founded the nonprofit organization Reinventing ReEntry to educate and reshape society’s perception of former inmates to help them reintegrate and give them a fair shot for employment, housing, education, and entrepreneurial opportunities—without shame or stigma.

Sue Ellen courageously chose to confront and relive these challenges with hope that she could help others see their purpose and potential again. She visited prisons and detention centers to tell her story and prepare women and girls for life inside and after reentry. She would talk to anyone who listened, from judges and elected officials—even President Barack Obama. For her seminal leadership on criminal justice issues, she joined First Lady Michelle Obama as a guest of honor for the President’s final State of the Union address.

Sue Ellen saw life as a grand adventure and moved mountains to inspire hope in those she saw herself in. We owe her a debt of gratitude and are thankful we bore witness to her life’s work in Arizona and across the nation. She inspired many Arizonans to seek justice, treat others with the dignity and respect they deserve, and to keep up the good fight.

In this spirit of remembrance, I rise to honor the tremendous life and legacy of Sue Ellen Allen. I thank Sue Ellen, and wish her God-speed.

REMEMBERING JANE SÁNCHEZ

HON. TIM RYAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 5, 2021

Mr. RYAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Jane Sánchez, Deputy Librarian for Library Collections and Services and the 25th Law Librarian of Congress, who passed away on March 26, 2021 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Appointed as Law Librarian of Congress on February 6, 2017, Jane managed the operation and policy administration for the Law Library of Congress, the world’s largest collection of legal materials. Then, in June 2019, Ms. Sánchez was also appointed Deputy Librarian for the newly formed Library Collections and Services Group (LCSG). Here, Jane was instrumental in helping to bring together the three units responsible for acquiring, stewarding, describing and serving library collections.

Prior to the Law Library, Jane had been Chief of Humanities and Social Sciences (HSS) since October 2014. HSS provided research service in the Library’s Main Reading Room, the Local History and Genealogy section, the Digital Reference Team and the Microform and Electronic Resources Center. Under her leadership, services to researchers expanded which led to a more robust use of the collections and services.

Ms. Sánchez had also served as a business unit Managing Director at the U.S. Government Publishing Office; as an associate director of Justice Libraries, Justice Management Division, U.S. Department of Justice; as departmental head of History & Culture Libraries at the Smithsonian Institution Libraries; and as an acquisitions manager for electronic databases at BNA, Inc.

Jane had been the recipient of numerous awards over the course of her career, including from the U.S. Department of Energy for sustained superior service and from the Justice Management Division and the Smithsonian Institution for workflow improvements. Jane Sánchez held a Juris Doctorate from American University’s Washington College of Law, a Master’s of Library Science from Simmons College in Boston and a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

As chairman of the Legislative Branch Appropriations Subcommittee, I had the pleasure of working with Jane during the appropriations process for the Library. Anyone who has worked with Jane would describe her as a strong leader who will be remembered for her calming presence. Her passing is a great loss for not only her family and friends, but also for the Library of Congress. I thank Jane for her great service to Congress, the Library, and the American people. My deepest sympathies go out to Jane’s colleagues, and especially her husband, Christopher, and her three children, Adam, Andrew, and Alyson.

DAMIAN DUNNING

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 5, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Damian Dunning for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award.

Damian Dunning is a student at Arvada K–8 and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Damian Dunning is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Damian Dunning for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassador for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.

HONORING DR. KALANYA MOORE

HON. BENNIE G. THOMPSON

OF MISSISSIPPI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 5, 2021

Mr. THOMPSON of Mississippi. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a remarkable individual, Dr. Kalanya Moore.

Kalanya Moore serves as Assistant Professor and Director of Field Experiences and Clinical Practices and School District Partnership Liaison for the Teacher Education Council Departmental Governing Board in the Teacher Education Department at Mississippi Valley State University. She collaborates with District Superintendents, District and Building-Level Administration, Cooperating Teachers, and MVSU University Content Area Supervising Educators in the Elementary and Secondary Area Departments to develop and maintain relationships that lead to quality field experiences for Teacher Candidates at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Dr. Moore has also served as Teacher Education Department Acting Chair and Coordinator of the Master of Arts in Teaching (Certification) Program.

She monitors the adherence of the MVSU Education Preparation Program to the Mississippi Department of Education certification guidelines for field experiences, student teaching, and graduate internships. Prior to joining higher education full-time, she obtained 15 years of P–12 experience. Her work experiences include Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten teacher, District Instructional Curriculum Coach (K–6), Adjunct Professor of On-Ground and Online Universities, Child Development Center Director, and Educational Consultant to HBCU Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) Graduate programs within the Southern Region.

Additionally, she serves as a Professional Development Specialist (PDS) for the Council for Professional Recognition-Child Development Associate (CDA) and Consultant to MS Head Start Agencies, Preschool Programs, and School District Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs in the state.

Her Spiritual Mantra derives from Galatians 6:9—Let us not become weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not; and II Corinthians 5:7—For we walk by faith, not by sight. Her life’s most pivotal role is being wife of Mr. Reginald Moore of Greenwood, MS, and the mother of Reginald II and Jordan Moore.

Dr. Moore serves as a mentor, advocate and “voice” to student education candidates, early career educators and those seeking guidance into the education profession.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Dr. Kalanya Moore for her dedication to education and commitment to our community.

Over the past year they have faced challenges most of us cannot even imagine. They have shown incredible resolve in the face of adversity. They have shown us all how to seek positivity and hope in each day as we weather the storms that come our way.

I couldn't be more thankful to represent the incredible people across South Dakota and all over the nation who work hard each day, not for fame, not for recognition or for money, but for the betterment of their communities. This is what makes America strong. I am grateful for the opportunity to recognize these hard-working individuals.

TEACHING ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN HISTORY ACT

HON. GRACE MENG

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 5, 2021

Ms. MENG. Madam Speaker, throughout this pandemic, Asian Americans have been facing a second virus—that of hate and discrimination. In fact, since the beginning of the pandemic, hate incidents against Asian Americans have skyrocketed 150 percent. Our community is being scapegoated for the COVID-19 pandemic, and as a result, have been victim to the most hateful, cowardly, and despicable attacks. Our children and elderly especially are being ruthlessly under attack. There are nearly 4,000 reported incidents of Asian Americans being spat on, stabbed, verbally abused, beaten, slashed, and most recently murdered in a tragic and senseless mass shooting. Our parents are scared to leave their homes and walk down the street. Parents are scared to let their children go outside and play or to even go to school.

Asian Americans, however, know this violence and racism directed at our community is not new. From the “yellow peril” scare of the 1800s, which paved the way for the Page Act of 1875 and the Chinese Exclusion Act, to the unjust incarceration of the Japanese Americans during World War II, our history includes shameful accounts of institutionalized discrimination and racism towards Asian Americans.

Madam Speaker, since the 1700s, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders (APIs) have made immeasurable contributions to our nation throughout its history. APIs have shaped the fabric of our country with contributions to our infrastructure, economy, and our military. Unfortunately, for generations, Asian Pacific American history has been poorly represented in our K-12 education system and social studies textbooks. This misrepresentation renders APIs invisible and leads to the perception that we are “forever foreigners.”

In fact, growing up, I was never taught of the expansive contributions of Asian Americans throughout our history. I barely learned about Chinese immigrants who built the transcontinental railroad connecting the East and West Coasts. My history textbooks never taught that slaves built the U.S. Capitol, the very heart of our democracy.

Madam Speaker, the gaps in our collective history prevent our nation from moving forward in in solidarity and allyship. We cannot create a shared future where all can achieve the American Dream unless we learn from our shared history. In this time of great misinformation and discrimination against Asian Americans, we need greater cultural awareness and understanding of our community's history within the foundations of our U.S. history.

That is why I rise today to announce the re-introduction of my Teaching Asian Pacific American Act to promote the teaching and learning of Asian Pacific American history in K-12 schools. Specifically, my bill would require Presidential and Congressional Academies' grant applicants and recipients to include Asian Pacific American history as part of their history and civics programs offered to students and teachers. Furthermore, it would encourage the inclusion of Asian Pacific American history within national and state tests administered through the National Assessment of Educational Progress and promote collaboration with the Smithsonian Institution's Asian Pacific American Center to develop innovating programming.

Madam Speaker, in order to create a shared future for all Americans, we have to learn from the mistakes of our past. I thank my colleagues who have joined me in this critical legislation, and I urge its swift passage so that our nation can move forward in healing.

DANIEL ROSALES

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 5, 2021

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Daniel Rosales for receiving the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassadors for Youth award.

Daniel Rosales is a student at Arvada K-8 and received this award because his determination and hard work have allowed him to overcome adversities.

The dedication demonstrated by Daniel Rosales is exemplary of the type of achievement that can be attained with hard work and perseverance. It is essential students at all levels strive to make the most of their education and develop a work ethic which will guide them for the rest of their lives.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Daniel Rosales for winning the Arvada Wheat Ridge Service Ambassador for Youth award. I have no doubt he will exhibit the same dedication and character in all of his future accomplishments.
