

served as a Civil Rights Specialist and External Complaints Coordinator. This experience allowed him to transition to the Department of Labor where he worked as an Equal Opportunity Specialist and Civil Rights Officer. During his time at the Department of Labor, he became Executive Director for a program under the A. Philip Randolph Institute's Educational Fund. Under his leadership, the program pushed for desegregation of labor unions and to provide training for African American men who were historically denied employment in the trades industry.

His commitment to service extended beyond his professional life. Al was deeply involved in local politics and community activism. He was an active member of the Prince William County NAACP branch, the National Urban League, and the Prince William County Democratic Committee.

Al served as Chairman of the Black Democratic Committee for several terms and was coordinator of the PWC Democratic Committee's DMV early voting efforts for many years. During election season, Al would devote entire days to greeting voters at the DMV, passing out literature, and placing and removing candidate signs from the polling place.

Voting rights, community engagement, and grassroots organization motivated Al in all of his endeavors. His efforts of founding the African American Democratic Club helped increase the number of African American elected officials in Prince William County. He was instrumental in numerous campaigns and helped many of Prince William County's current leaders win their elections. Al worked to ensure everyone's voice was heard at the ballot box and he fully understood the power of civic engagement. Because of this work, Al has made our community better.

Madam Speaker, our community has lost a giant public servant, community icon, and a mentor to so many. A loving husband and father, Al spent his life in service to our country and to his community. I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the memory and life of my dear friend, Albert Earl Brooks, Sr.

HONORING JEFF OLSON AS IOWAN
OF THE WEEK

HON. CYNTHIA AXNE

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 21, 2021

Mrs. AXNE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Jeff Olson, a community pharmacist at Montross Pharmacy, as this week's Iowan of the Week. Since 1995, Jeff has been the owner and operator of Montross Pharmacy in Winterset, Iowa, which this year is celebrating its 100th anniversary.

If you were to ask Jeff what it means to be a community pharmacist, he'd emphasize one word: community. Every day, Jeff works to make sure nobody goes without the care they need—whether that means fielding questions at the pharmacy counter, delivering prescriptions at home, or supporting local health as president of the Madison County Health Trust. Community pharmacies like Montross Pharmacy are mainstays and integral parts of the health care system in our small towns.

When COVID-19 forced us to adapt to different daily routines, Jeff and his staff at Montross Pharmacy redoubled their commitment to serving Winterset. They knew the pandemic presented a once-in-a-lifetime challenge, but they resolved to get through it together. Together, Montross Pharmacy kept its doors open, providing continued access to pharmacy services for residents in a safe setting. Jeff and his staff were on call 24/7. And, trust me, if there were more than 24 hours in a day to give, they'd have been there.

They also quickly added new services for the community, including thousands of COVID-19 tests and vaccinations. It wasn't always easy. When faced with a vaccine shortage, Jeff took it upon himself to drive six hours to secure more doses for his friends and neighbors. His hard work did not go unnoticed. In fact, one resident—an older woman who had been homebound during the pandemic—exclaimed to Jeff that the vaccine he administered was “the best gift she could receive.”

Jeff and his family have made a lasting mark on Winterset. Decades ago, Jeff's grandfather left his mark by welding on the cupola of the Madison County Courthouse. Today, Jeff is leaving a different kind of mark. In each COVID-19 vaccination he delivers, Jeff sees the things that make Winterset his home—a summer day enjoyed at the pool, a youth sports game, and his kids laughing over lunch with friends.

Jeff's selflessness is truly infectious, and I know that Winterset will see the impact of his hard work for years to come. I am sincerely grateful for Jeff's commitment to his family, friends, and neighbors, and it is my honor to recognize Jeff Olson as Iowan of the Week.

RECOGNIZING LOU KENNEDY

HON. RALPH NORMAN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 21, 2021

Mr. NORMAN. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Lou Kennedy and her substantial contributions to our home state of South Carolina.

A South Carolina native, Lou attended Lexington High School and graduated from the University of South Carolina with a degree in Journalism. Lou has held a variety of marketing and operation roles throughout her career and currently serves as the President, Chief Executive Officer, and Owner of Nephron Pharmaceuticals Corporation, a pharmaceutical manufacturer specializing in Blow-Fill-Seal technology. Lou joined Nephron Pharmaceuticals in 2001 and quickly created a national sales force. She also headed the effort to move the company's headquarters from Orlando to Columbia in 2014, creating over 800 new jobs in the Palmetto State.

Under Lou's leadership, Nephron Pharmaceuticals has experienced unprecedented growth and now employs nearly 2,000 workers. Lou recently announced the expansion of Nephron Pharmaceuticals and the opening of Nephron Nitrile, a new plant that will produce American-made, medical-grade nitrile gloves and will be headquartered in Lexington County. This expansion is a continuation of the Nephron team's efforts to support Governor McMaster's initiative to bring the production of life-saving medications and supplies back home to the United States. Lifelong friend to Lou and CEO of Viktor Scientific, Sam Konduros said there is “not one passive bone in Lou's body . . . she is very action-oriented, and very results-driven.” Lou's long list of accomplishments proves this to be true.

As a mother to a wonderful daughter and two-step daughters, Lou has instilled in her family a strong work ethic and a desire to find ways to succeed. Lou believes that hard work needs to be modeled, and she sets this example for both her family and her employees. You'll often find Lou spending her days in the office working alongside everybody in the plant to create a cohesive, hard-working team.

In addition to her strong professional leadership and go-getter attitude, Lou is an engaged and philanthropic individual. She serves on a variety of business and civic boards, including the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce, the National Association of Manufacturers, and the Palmetto Business Forum. An avid Gamecocks fan, Lou also serves on the USC Athletic Department Board and has generously donated to her alma mater. For example, she and her husband helped establish the Kennedy Pharmacy Innovation Center in conjunction with the USC School of Pharmacy. She is affectionately known as “Cockadoodle Lou” for her financial support and gracious engagement with the institution.

As a testament to her outstanding service, Lou is the recipient of numerous awards and honors, including the Outstanding Leadership Award from the National Association of Manufacturers and the Woman of the Year Award from the South Carolina Manufacturers Alliance. She was also named Ambassador of the Year by the Greater Columbia Chamber of Commerce. Among other honors, Lou also received the Order of the Palmetto, South Carolina's highest civilian honor, from former Governor Nikki Haley.

Lou Kennedy is a remarkable woman whose work has truly made a difference for the Midlands region and for the entire state of South Carolina. On behalf of the 5th Congressional District, I congratulate and thank her for her continued service.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, July 21, 2021

Mr. VAN DREW. Madam Speaker, I want to recognize Kyle Francis Leahy who has been a scout since he was six years old, and recently achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. Kyle demonstrated his leadership skills when he designed and created an outdoor classroom for the Friends School in Mullica Hill, South Jersey. Because of the pandemic, Kyle had minimal assistance while he cleared an 800 foot wooded trail ending in an amphitheater sized classroom. This will allow future generations of students to learn in a natural outdoor environment. Kyle is currently a senior at Tower Hill School in Delaware and plans on attending the University of South Carolina in their Capstone Leadership Program. Kyle wants to study economics and political science and has the hope to attend law school once he graduates from college.
