

on the mission of U.S. Indo-Pacific Command, Admiral Nicholson goes above and beyond the call of duty with his attention to the communities he serves, actively engaging local leadership and stakeholders to ensure the welfare of the general public.

Admiral Nicholson's commitment to our Armed Services military began in the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy where he earned his Bachelor of Science in Marine Engineering in 1993. He continued to build his foundation earning his master's degree in Systems Engineering from the Naval Postgraduate School and a master's degree in National Security from the Naval War College. His background spans numerous command positions and numerous deployments around the world during his seagoing career.

Admiral Nicholson has further served in combat tours in Helmand, Afghanistan, and the Provincial Reconstruction Team and Forward Operating Base in Farah, Afghanistan. He also served in numerous ashore joint and staff billets including executive assistant to the Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Assistant Deputy Director Middle East Directorate in the Joint Staff; Special Operations Support Team to the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and head of the professional development section in the Chief of Naval Operations staff. His military decorations include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (three awards), Navy Commendation Medal (four awards), Joint Service Achievement Medal, Navy Achievement Medal (three awards), Combat Action Ribbon, and various campaign and unit awards. He is also a 2015 recipient of the FBI's Director's Award.

As a first on Guam, Admiral Nicholson led unclassified briefings to multiple local leadership stakeholders on threats facing the island and region, engaging local Mayors, Senators, and Administration officials with unparalleled transparency that has served to build awareness of, confidence in, and partnership with the objectives of the Department of Defense.

The need to defend the territory of Guam from potential military threats is not limited to military establishments under Admiral Nicholson's leadership. Recent efforts to secure missile defense systems for the territory are taking a 360-degree focus to protect the entirety of the island, civilian and military alike, reassuring front-line Americans that they are protected, and reinforcing our safety and suitability to our critical visitor industry.

The food security and supply chain resilience for the region is strengthened in his work with our office to explore the feasibility of leasing Department of Defense lands for cattle grazing operations, further serving to advance local economic growth and diversification in a community that currently relies on over 90 percent of imported products.

With the island in the midst of a housing crisis due to labor shortages, material costs, and the tyranny of distance relative to American job and resource markets, Admiral Nicholson takes a mindful and creative approach in encouraging greater housing inventory to mitigate the civilian housing market impact of substantial military personnel relocation, and the subsequent growth of military housing needs.

Admiral Nicholson regularly and openly engages to address Veteran, Gold Star Family, and military dependent needs for access to amenities located within military facilities, deftly navigating the complexities of a community seeking greater access to military support in balance with the needs of mission viability.

Poignantly, Admiral Nicholson continues to be an avid partner in addressing critical healthcare needs throughout the island and region, providing guidance and solutions as the territory navigates the largest investment in its history to establish a modern healthcare facility to meet modern day healthcare needs throughout Micronesia and beyond.

The service to the country in the work of Admiral Nicholson is nothing short of exemplary, not only in his ability to effectively lead and manage the military front lines of America in the Indo-Pacific, but to do so in a manner that reflects unprecedented mindfulness of the holistic value in building, maintaining, and reinforcing community confidence and support critical to mission success.

Madam Speaker, the Department of Defense and the Department of the Navy are well served and represented by the command talent of Admiral Benjamin Nicholson who is a builder of allies, communities, and constituencies. I extend my gratitude to the Admiral for his invaluable service to our Nation and I commend him for his commitment to community engagement, civilian well-being, and his mission as Commander of Joint Region Marianas.

FLOOD LEVEL OBSERVATION, OPERATIONS AND DECISION SUPPORT ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 12, 2022

Ms. JOHNSON of Texas. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of the bipartisan, bicameral FLOODS Act led by Senator Wicker. Flooding is the most common natural hazard in the United States, resulting in the greatest number of lives lost and property damaged. We passed the tenth anniversary of Superstorm Sandy about one month ago. That storm was a harbinger of the future as we have seen many storms with record-breaking extreme precipitation that has led to flooding events, from Hurricane Harvey in my home state of Texas, to the more recent Hurricane Ida. The need to better prepare our communities for potential catastrophic flooding is now more crucial than ever.

The FLOODS Act directs the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration to establish a National Integrated Flood Information System that will inform and provide timely decision-making in the face of flooding events and coordinate and integrate flood research at NOAA. The bill would also designate a service coordination hydrologist at each National Weather Service River Forecast Center, and it requires NOAA to leverage existing work through intra-agency and external partnerships to improve impact decision support systems, as well as regularly update Atlas 14 precipitation frequency estimates.

It cannot be overstated how urgent the need for this basic work is for informing products such as updated FEMA flood maps used in flood insurance determinations, designing infrastructure in flood prone areas, and for planning evacuations. I want to thank Representative SHERRILL for her leadership on this legislation and on the issue of addressing the causes and impacts of flooding on Americans across the country.

I urge my colleagues to support its passage.

HONORING NANCY ALLEN

HON. BILLY LONG

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 14, 2022

Mr. LONG. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize an individual who has made significant contributions to our justice system, championing the rights of victims; has served as an educator, inspiring thousands of college students; and has created and shared stories as a bestselling author.

My district includes Springfield, Missouri, the home of Nancy Allen, a former Assistant Prosecutor, Assistant Attorney General, Senior Instructor at Missouri State University (Go Bears) and the district's first New York Times bestselling author. I am honored today to recognize the lifelong accomplishments of Nancy Allen, who comes from a long history of Missouri educators and attorneys in a family that is committed to serving the community. She also comes from just 2 doors down from my childhood home. You see Nancy and I were neighborhood kids together growing up in the 1960s.

Nancy is a natural advocate. In 1973, at the age of 16, she appeared before the Springfield School Board to make the case for instituting a girls' competitive sports program in Springfield Public Schools. The Board voted in favor of her proposal that night, and that year, the schools extended athletic opportunities to girls for the first time in SPS history.

She graduated from Missouri State University with an English Education degree in 1978 and received her Law Degree from the University of Missouri in 1980. She was a trailblazer for women in the legal profession, returning to Springfield in 1981 to practice law in Southwest Missouri. Nancy joined the Greene County Prosecutor's Office as the only woman on staff and tried over 30 jury trials.

After marrying Randall Allen and starting a family, she became an Assistant Attorney General for our great state, serving for 9 years as a champion for victims of consumer fraud.

In 2005, Nancy became an instructor at Missouri State University, teaching law classes in the College of Business. With over 900 students per year, she received awards for teaching and garnered the highest student evaluations. Though she retired in 2020, her relationships with former students remain strong. In 2021, she served as the officiant of 2 former students' wedding and performed the ceremony.

While teaching at Missouri State University, Nancy picked up the pen and began her career as a novelist, a goal she pursued with tremendous determination. In 2014, The Code of the Hills was released, the first legal thriller in her 4-book Ozarks Mystery Series published by Harper Collins. The series, which examines social issues as well as crimes against women and children, has been optioned by a major network.

During this period of publishing success, she also became a co-author with James Patterson. Their first collaboration, Juror #3, became an instant #1 New York Times bestseller in 2018. Their next book, The Jailhouse Lawyer, became a #2 New York Times bestseller. Their next novel will be released in 2024.

In addition, she teamed up with a film production company to author the Anonymous Justice series for Grand Central Publishing. Renegade came out in 2022, and Payback will be released in 2023.

Nancy Allen's career illustrates a commitment to service, and also provides a true example of how hard work and determination can propel a talented constituent from my District into the New York City publishing spotlight.

Madam Speaker, I want to thank Nancy Allen for her many contributions to our District and Nation.

HON. FREDERICA S. WILSON

Ms. WILSON of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Dr. Rudolph Moise as he expands his practice to include Comprehensive Medical Aesthetics in Miami, Florida.

His desire to give back to America led him to become a flight surgeon in the Air Force Reserve where he served for 21 years and earned the rank of Colonel, the highest ranking American of Haitian descent to hold such a position.

As a native of Haiti, he is an advocate for improving the welfare of his country. In 2003, he was appointed by Gov. Jeb Bush to serve on the Governor's Haiti Advisory Group as part of an effort to advance the economic development and resources in Haiti. Dr. Moise has received numerous leadership accolades over the years, including being named a top finalist for "Best Physician of the Year" by the
