In Macomb County and throughout Southeastern Michigan, the Anton Art Center continues to be a strong leader in advocating for local arts and artists. It is essential that we recognize the Anton Art Center for its long history and lasting contributions. The Anton Art Center also holds a deep personal significance to me, as my family and I have attended a number of programs there over the years.

On behalf of Michigan's 9th District, it is my honor to recognize the work of the Anton Art Center's leaders, workers, and community members for their dedication and perseverance in promoting this historic building. CELEBRATING THE RETIREMENT
OF PRESIDENT KATHLEEN
'CASEY' CRABILL

HON. JOHN KATKO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 18, 2022

Mr. KATKO. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the career of President Kathleen 'Casey' Crabill, who will retire following the 2022 academic year after 9 years with Onondaga Community College and 45 years in higher education. A dedicated educator, throughout her career President Crabill demonstrated a profound commitment to scholarship.

Originally from East Greenbush, New York, President Crabill graduated with a Bachelor's of Arts in English from Skidmore College. Later, she earned a Master's of Science in English as a Second Language and a Doctorate of Education in Curriculum and Instruction from the State University of New York at Albany.

After finishing school, President Crabill began her career as an English teacher in 1977. While teaching, she held several top posts at colleges across the country, including serving as division chair for Academic Development and Learning Support at Dundalk Community College in Dundalk, Maryland, and as acting president and dean of Learning and Student Development at Quinebaug Valley Community College in Danielson, Connecticut. Later she served as president of the College of the Redwoods in Eureka, California, and as president of Raritan Valley Community College in North Branch, New Jersey.

In 2013, President Crabill took the reins at Onondaga Community College, becoming its eighth president. During her tenure, President Crabill reconfigured Onondaga Community College's degree and certificate programs into eight schools based on academic focus. This move greatly enhanced student collaboration. President Crabill also launched programs to assist underserved students, including the 'Box of Books' program, which provides students with books at a low, flat fee, and the 'OCC Advantage' program, which allows students from six local school districts to attend Onondaga Community College tuition-free. Impressively, President Crabill also successfully shepherded the college through the unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic by overseeing the transition to virtual classes and creating new degree and certificate programs that responded to evolving industry demands.

Over the years, I have also had the distinct pleasure of partnering with President Crabill. Together, we have worked to make higher education more accessible and affordable, brought greater awareness to cybersecurity threats, and improved the lives of local students.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues in the House join me in recognizing the career of President Kathleen 'Casey' Crabill. I wish President Crabill the best in her retirement.

TRIBUTE TO JACKIE GOLDBERG—
28TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT
WOMAN OF THE YEAR

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 18, 2022

Mr. SCHIFF. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Women's History Month. Each year, we pay special tribute to the contributions and sacrifices made by our Nation's women. It is an honor to pay homage to outstanding women who are making a difference in my Congressional District. I would like to recognize a champion for excellence in public education, The Honorable Jackie Goldberg of Echo Park, a unique neighborhood of Los Angeles, California.

Jackie, a native of Los Angeles, attended public schools including the University of California, Berkeley, where she obtained her Bachelor of Arts and was a leader in the Free Speech Movement. She holds a Master of Arts in Teaching (History) from the University of Chicago and has several California teaching credentials. Ms. Goldberg's professional life in the educational field began as a classroom teacher in Compton, where she taught for nearly two decades and specialized in reading.

Equipped with teaching experience and direct understanding of the challenges of the Los Angeles public school system, Jackie was elected to the Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD) Board of Education in 1983, where she served two terms, serving as President from 1989 to 1991. Under her leadership, the board enhanced curriculums in reading, science and math and created a districtwide K-12 dual language education program.

In 1993, Ms. Goldberg was elected to the Los Angeles City Council, where she was the first openly gay city councilmember in Los Angeles and was handily re-elected in 1997. During her tenure on the city council, she authored the "living wage" ordinance that guaranteed a living wage and benefits to all employees working indirectly or directly for the City of Los Angeles. Her council legacy also included authorship of Domestic Partner benefits for city employees and the creation of an afterschool program in central Los Angeles. In 2000, Jackie was elected to the California State Assembly where she served for six years. She authored landmark legislation that granted Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender couples nearly all the responsibilities and rights of marriage as well as state education funding that helped LAUSD build new schools.

Returning to the LAUSD Board of Education in 2019 as the Member for the 5th District, Jackie currently serves as a Member of the Special Education Committee and as Chair of the Curriculum and Instruction Committee. Her current efforts are focused on upgrading reading growth support for underachieving readers, and the upgrade of school facilities.

Jackie and her longtime life-partner and wife, Sharon Stricker, live in Echo Park.

I ask all Members to join me in honoring this exceptional, well-respected woman of California's 28th Congressional District, The Honorable Jackie Goldberg.

2022 NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS ASIAN AND PACIFIC ISLANDER HERITAGE MONTH ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS

HON. GREGORIO KILILI CAMACHO SABLAN

OF THE NORTHERN MARIANA ISLANDS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 18, 2022

Mr. SABLAN. Madam Speaker, Aleia Hofschneider Santos, a senior at Mt. Carmel School, Mikhaela Paige Reyes Mendoza, an eighth grader also at Mt. Carmel School, are the winners of this year's Asian and Pacific Islander Heritage Month Essay Contest. I began this contest for middle school and high school students two years ago to give students in the Northern Mariana Islands, my district, the opportunity to showcase their writing skills and reflect on their unique experiences as American Asian and Pacific Islanders. The contest also is a way to celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month.

This year's essay prompt encouraged students to write about the issues facing the Asian and Pacific Islander community that are particularly important to them and to think about how they can inspire their community to action.

I commend the 22 students from schools throughout the Northern Marianas who participated in this year's essay contest. A volunteer panel of judges reviewed the essays and chose Ms. Mendoza and Ms. Santos as this year's winners. In recognition of their achievement, I include in the RECORD the essays they wrote, where they will remain available to read in perpetuity.
