RECOGNIZING THE LITERACY
COUNCIL OF NORTHERN VIR-
GINIA'S 60 YEARS OF SERVICE

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. CONNOLLY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 60th Anniversary of the Literacy Council of Northern Virginia.

Founded in 1962, the LCNV is the oldest literacy program in the state and one of the largest literacy councils in the nation. Throughout its 60 years of service, the LCNV has adapted to the growing needs of the Northern Virginia community to serve adult learners at the lowest literacy level.

Not only are they celebrating a milestone of 60 years, but they are about to celebrate a milestone of serving 60,000 adult learners. By empowering tens of thousands of adult learners to better participate in their communities, LCNV is ensuring the economic success of hundreds of local families for a lifetime.

With the help of dedicated volunteers, LCNV has become one of the more efficient and effective community-based literacy organizations in the country. In FY2021, despite being in the middle of a global pandemic, LCNV's 436 volunteers were able to put in a total of 16,344 hours of service. LCNV was able to hold events to recruit and train volunteers, which helped the organization meet and work with 204 new volunteers. These new volunteers were critical as the organization had to pivot to virtual programming for the year. The volunteers were able to provide substantial remote support to help their students use the online learning platforms.

LCNV has spent the past six decades helping people from all over the world achieve their goals and better their lives with literacy skills. On average each year, their students come from 90 different countries and speak 50 different languages. Their commitment to meeting people where they are in their educational journey has allowed them to become a trusted resource in the community and a leader in adult education. In the fall of 2021, LCNV was called upon to help with literacy classes for refugees coming over from Afghanistan. While their fall session had already started, LCNV quickly adapted and added classes for the students that would not have been able to wait for the next registration period. To date, they have been able to help almost 170 Afghan refugees with English literacy skills.

Literacy is not just about being able to read, it's about being able to further your career, engage in conversations with family and friends, and become more civically engaged. LCNV helps students reach their goals like voting for the first time or getting a promotion at their job. The skills gained in LCNV classrooms, both virtual and in-person, allow learners to improve wellness and attain healthier lifestyles as well.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in recognizing the 60th Anniversary of the Literacy Council of Northern Virginia. Its values of Integrity, Innovation, Respect, Collaboration, and Excellence have propelled it to success for the past 60 years and will continue to carry the Council through the next 60 years. I also want to express my gratitude to the LCNV staff, Board of Directors, and countless volunteers who dedicate their time and resources to empower neighbors of our community to develop basic skills of reading, writing, and speaking English.

For all his noble work with the Lancaster Fire Department, Mr. Rinow was also named to the Erie County Department of Homeland Security and Emergency Services Wall of Honor.

IN HONOR OF DR. WILLIAM ROES
RETIREMENT AFTER 40 YEARS OF SERVICE TO HIS COMMUNITY

HON. DEREK KILMER

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. KILMER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate Dr. William Roes for the 40 years that he has dedicated to the Key Peninsula community, where he served as the only family doctor for decades. And like many others in our community, I want to wish him well as he enters retirement.

Dr. William Roes graduated in 1973 from the University of Washington and attended medical school at the University of Nevada College of Medical Sciences and Washington University in St. Louis. Dr. Roes' long career on the Key Peninsula began in 1980 when he came to work once a week at the Key Peninsula Health Center while completing his residency program at MultiCare Tacoma Family Medicine. After graduating from the residency program in August of 1981, Dr. Roes decided to call the area home and applied for the family doctor position at The Key Peninsula Medical Center. Dr. Roes began his full-time practice at The Key Peninsula Health Center as the only family doctor at the clinic until his "soft retirement" shortly before the pandemic started. Dr. Roes still does home visits to connect with his patients who are now in nursing homes and still helps with special projects at the clinic.

Madam Speaker, beyond his tenure as a medical provider, I would also like to express gratitude for all that Dr. Roes has done to serve our community outside his clinic doors. When the pandemic first hit, Dr. Roes created his own PPE using painter's suits and performed COVID-19 tests at elderly patients' homes. He has also served as the medical director for the Key Peninsula Fire Department and on the board for the Mustard Seed Project, a local nonprofit that provides services and programs for seniors residing on the Key Peninsula. For his compassionate commitment to improving the health and well-being of people in the community, Dr. Roes was awarded the Washington State Family Physician of the Year in 2008.

Madam Speaker, I would like to honor and celebrate Dr. William Roes—whose love for his community has never wavered and whose commitment and service to his patients and their families is greatly appreciated. He has an extraordinary legacy. He has made a real difference. And I am pleased to honor him in the United States House.

COMMEMORATING THE LIFE OF
CAPTAIN KIMBERLY SCHOPPA

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. CONNOLLY. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the service of Fire Captain Kimberly Schoppa of Fairfax County, who recently passed away after a battle with occupational cancer.

Captain Schoppa joined Fairfax County Fire and Rescue in 2004. While serving her community, she quickly emerged as a leader among her peers. She was promoted to Captain of an engine at Station 27 in West Springfield and was a member of the Honor Guard at the time of her passing.

In her career, Captain Schoppa took on the dangerous work of fire suppression. Her talents were widely recognized, but when talk turned to a future as a battalion chief, Captain Schoppa insisted that she wanted to be on the front line. She wanted to fight fires and save lives. Captain Schoppa's peers knew that she would be happiest in the front seat of the fire truck, working firsthand to keep her community safe.

Though the Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department has extensive protocols and mitigation techniques to prevent injuries and smoke inhalation on the job, Captain Schoppa's repeated exposure over the course of her admirable career tragically developed into ovarian cancer, which the Department considers an occupational illness. Her death is recognized as being in the line of duty.

Captain Schoppa's friends and colleagues have lauded her character and service during her career and since her passing. She has been called a "valued friend," and an "esteemed member of the department." I have no doubt that she will be missed as her service has touched so many lives. I know that Fairfax County is a better place now because we had a hero like Captain Kimberly Schoppa.

She is survived by her wife, Master Technician (retired) Kim Klaren, her parents Jan and Karl Schoppa, her brothers Chris (and partner Paul), and Brett (wife Amy and children Riley (fiancé Anya), Abigail, and Maura); Klaren's mother Shirley, brothers Bobby (wife Andrea and children Bo, Cody, and Tyler), Matt (wife Kay and children Kyle (fiancé Elyse), Kacie, and Cole), and sister Kara (husband Mike). I have no doubt that many more will miss Captain Schoppa, as her work and her heroism touched countless more lives.

Madam Speaker, I ask that my colleagues join me in honoring the service and excellence that Captain Schoppa displayed throughout her career. Her heroism should remind us to take every chance to help others. May her leadership and passion inspire us all to serve our communities to the best of our ability.

RECOGNIZING THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CITY OF CRESTWOOD, MISSOURI

HON. ANN WAGNER

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mrs. WAGNER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize an amazing community in my district. This year marks the 75th anniversary of the City of Crestwood, Missouri.

With a population of over 12,000 proud Americans, Crestwood has grown into a vibrant city since its incorporation in 1947. From its steadfast and hardworking Police and Fire Departments to its dedicated Parks and Recreation and Public Works Departments, the local government of Crestwood continues to provide outstanding public service to the families living there.

Crestwood is also a city rich in history. It is the burial place of Sergeant John S. Sappington, who fought alongside George Washington during the Revolutionary War, and the city sits directly adjacent to the Ulysses S. Grant National Historic Site, or White Haven, where the former President and Civil War General lived with his family.

Crestwood remains an incredible community to raise a family, with numerous outstanding schools, parks, and recreational facilities in the area. I want to thank the caring residents and public servants of Crestwood, who continue to work together to improve their community, and I have no doubt that the next 75 years will be even greater than the last.

RECOGNIZING THE ONE-YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF THE JABARA-HEYER NO HATE ACT

HON. DONALD S. BEYER, JR.

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, May 27, 2022

Mr. BEYER. Madam Speaker, I rise today in recognition of last Friday, May 20, 2022, being the one-year anniversary of President Biden signing into law the COVID-19 Hate Crimes Act, which included the Jabara-Heyer NO HATE Act.

This law was named after victims of two high-profile hate crimes: Khalid Jabara, who was killed in 2016 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Heather Heyer, who was murdered in Charlottesville, Virginia, in 2017. The murders of these two individuals were prosecuted as hate crimes but not reported in hate crime statistics.

The Jabara-Heyer NO HATE Act is aimed at improving hate crime statistics and promoting a better response to hate crime within communities. At a time when hate crimes against Asian American communities as well as hate crimes against other people of color, religious minorities, immigrants, people with disabilities, and the LGBTQ community are increasing, this legislation is crucial to driving community-centered policies that reflect the needs of people targeted for hate.

Through this bill, Congress and the President sent a powerful message that we must center communities targeted for hate and invest resources to meet their needs. The legislation is a significant first step in achieving meaningful hate crime reporting and prioritizing law enforcement accountability and community empowerment in the federal, state, and local responses to hate crime.

I want to also commend the Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights for their work to mark the anniversary last week with a celebration of Humanity Over Hate, culminating in a webinar that featured interviews with the families of victims of hate, including Heather Heyer's mother Susan Bro and Khalid Jabara's sister Victoria Jabara.

In the wake of the horrific tragedy in Buffalo, where an alleged white supremacist murdered 10 people, most of whom were Black, it is more important than ever that we commit to confronting anti-Black hatred and white supremacy.

Please join me in commemorating the one-year anniversary of the Jabara-Heyer NO HATE Act and continuing to confront anti-Black hatred and white supremacy.
