

HONORING DEBORAH "DEBBIE"
BEAHAN FOR HER DEDICATION
IN SERVING HUDSON FALLS

HON. ELISE M. STEFANIK

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Ms. STEFANIK. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Deborah "Debbie" Beahan for her years of service to the Hudson Falls community. Debbie spent much of her professional life working for Washington County and volunteering for several community organizations. Her dedication to her work and community has made a profound impact on Hudson Falls.

Debbie was born and raised in Ticonderoga, New York and 1974, she moved to Hudson Falls. She worked for Washington County for 32 years. For 20 years, she worked for the Department of Motor Vehicles, which honored her in 1999 for her contributions to the community. After her time at the Department of Motor Vehicles, Debbie worked in the County Clerk office, serving as Deputy Clerk for 8 years and as County Clerk for 4 years.

In addition to her career in public service, Debbie has volunteered at the Senior Center of the Kingsbury & Fort Edward Area, Inc. for the past 9 years. She is the president of the board of directors at the center and is a vital part of their daily operations. During the pandemic, Debbie's work was especially critical, as she made sure the members were kept up to date on all pressing matters related to COVID-19. She also helped to install the "My Senior Center" software program that reports membership, personnel, events, meals, and transportation statistics for the center.

Debbie got her start as a volunteer with the Special Olympics in the 1980s as a bowling and track and field coach. She also served as treasurer of the Washington County Republican Committee Women's Club, was involved with the heart fund, and participates in the Public Health Committee for employees. Due to all her years of hard work and dedication, it is no surprise that Washington County is honoring Debbie for her incredible service as a part of Older Americans Month. On behalf of New York's 21st District, I thank Debbie for her dedication to the Hudson Falls community and wish her all the best in future endeavors.

HONORING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN LEGION
KARL ROSS POST 16

HON. JERRY McNERNEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Mr. McNERNEY. Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the American Legion Karl Ross Post 16 in Stockton, California on the 100th anniversary of its founding.

For the last century, the Karl Ross Post has provided assistance and fellowship to Stockton's many veterans and promoted patriotism in the community at-large. Their Honor Guard has marked the interment of many veterans with the dignity and ceremony they deserve—helping their families and our community to recognize their contributions to our peace, freedom, and security.

Through the ceremonies the Karl Ross Post organizes—often in conjunction with other veterans' organizations—our community remembers and recognizes the sacrifices veterans have made, and better appreciates the blessings of the liberties and freedoms that we hold dear.

Along with the strong role the Karl Ross Post has played locally, it has also had a national reach. Every American veteran has been touched by the efforts of Warren Atherton, who rose from Commander of the Karl Ross Post to National Commander of the American Legion, where he worked with Francis Sullivan to draft the G.I. Bill of Rights.

Today, the Karl Ross Post and its members continue their tradition of promoting patriotism and assisting a new generation of combat veterans as they re-enter civilian life.

I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the American Legion Karl Ross Post 16 and its century of service to our veterans, our community, and our Nation.

DAWSON MOORE

HON. JEFFERSON VAN DREW

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Mr. VAN DREW. Madam Speaker, this month, I had the honor of attending Dawson Moore's Eagle Scout Court of Honor ceremony. Dawson graduated from Middle Township High School last year and is a part of Cape May Court House's Troop 65. For his Eagle Scout project, he refurbished the Goshen Therapeutic riding ring at the Cape May County equestrian facility, which allows participants to experience the benefits of horseback riding while working on their own personal challenges. Dawson replaced the fencing around the riding ring, which was in desperate need of repair. He should be proud of his project, and it was my honor to recognize him for his service to the South Jersey community. I wish Dawson the best of luck on his future endeavors. God Bless Dawson, and God Bless our United States of America.

HONORING THE PUBLIC SERVICE OF JON BOUGHTIN

HON. DEREK KILMER

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Mr. KILMER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to speak on behalf of Jon Boughtin, an exceptional staffer and someone I'm proud to have called a partner.

Jon was the very first Director of Member Services for the New Democrat Coalition. In this role, he worked every day to build a strong coalition made up of effective members of Congress. His work demonstrated a commitment to getting good things done for the American people—and to helping every member of our coalition do that too. Beyond that, Jon fostered a community of leaders that resembled a family more than a caucus. I consider myself lucky that he held the role during my Chairmanship of the Coalition.

We talk a lot in the New Dems about delivering for Americans and getting results in Congress. But that doesn't just happen. It takes hard work and a commitment to do the tough work of finding common ground. That's what Jon's all about. He always challenged the New Dems to keep the concerns of our friends and families back home front and center. His dedicated work to provide resources to our members and staff empowered our members to make a real, tangible difference on a host of issues—from inflation to workforce development. I knew I could always turn to Jon for candid advice, smart analysis, and creative solutions. His sense of humor wasn't half bad either.

For Jon, working for the New Dems wasn't just a paycheck. It was a mission. And thanks to him, our Coalition has never been stronger. Though I'm sad to see him go, I wish him luck in his new role. To Jon—as well as to his family, from whom we borrowed Jon on many late nights and weekends—I offer my congratulations, my best wishes, and my sincere thanks for years of service.

Mr. POSEY. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Mr. Keith Moskowitz from Vero Beach, Florida, a constituent who has earned distinction for his dedication to ensuring safe communities and for his commitment to making a difference in the lives of others by investing in people and creating opportunity.

Keith started his first job when he was only eight years old and since then has worked hard and owned many businesses. Being called to serve others, Keith put his businesses on hold and joined the New York City Police Department. Over the course of his 15-years of service Keith received over 60 awards for his excellent police work, including meritorious and bravery medals. He earned two promotions and led an investigative squad focusing on domestic violence, burglary, and homicides. On September 11, 2001, Keith was on duty in downtown Manhattan when the Trade Center was attacked and worked tirelessly to assist people in getting to safety.

In June 2006 Keith retired from the NYPD and relocated to Florida where he once again joined the private sector building a string of successful small businesses in the automotive and home repair industries which he grew to include more than 20 employees. Keith's philanthropic nature has benefited his community as he has given much of his time and resources to local schools, local governments, and people in need of assistance.

Recognized by the governor of Kentucky, Keith was awarded the distinguished Kentucky Colonel designation for his continued investments in people and the communities in which he has served. I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Keith Moskowitz for his dedication to community service, courageous acts, and generous spirit.

RECOGNIZING THE SERVICE OF JON BOUGHTIN

HON. BRADLEY SCOTT SCHNEIDER

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Mr. SCHNEIDER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize the service of Jon Boughtin, the long-serving and committed member of the New Dem family.

Jon is leaving Capitol Hill this month after working for more than a decade in public service, including for Rep. Bill Owens, Rep. Lincoln Davis, and the New Democrat Coalition under Chairs SUZAN DELBENE and DEREK KILMER. Jon's meaningful member engagement will leave a lasting impact on the Coalition for years to come.

As New Dems, we have 98 members focused on advocating for common sense policies to grow our economy, educate our kids, and lift up Americans from every walk of life. We cut across the gridlock and political division to deliver real solutions to some of the toughest challenges facing American families. The work is hard and unrelenting, but Jon faced every challenge with optimism and integrity. Our members are better for having worked with Jon for the last five years.

More important than his daily work, Jon was a kind colleague to his peers and a dedicated advocate for all Americans throughout his career. His presence at the New Democrat Coalition will be sorely missed.

On behalf of our entire Coalition, I want to thank Jon for his hard work and wish him and his family nothing but the best in his future endeavors.

HONORING DALE GRINNELL FOR HIS DEDICATION TO SERVING THE FORT ANN COMMUNITY

HON. ELISE M. STEFANIK

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Ms. STEFANIK. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Dale Grinnell for his years of service to Fort Ann. Dale has spent his entire life selflessly serving his community without ever expecting any thanks in return.

Dale was born in Glen Falls, New York and grew up working on his family's two hundred and fifty head farm, Wilbur Grinnell and Sons Dairy Farm. In 1965, he moved to Fort Ann and began working at Finch-Pruyn Paper in Glens Falls. After thirty-five years, Dale retired from the paper mill and continued to focus his attention on serving his community.

Dale is a deacon at the Cornerstone Bible Church in Fort Ann. He has also managed the church's food pantry for many years and takes great pride in ensuring food gets to those in need. He coordinates deliveries of this food and will deliver it himself if he is unable to find a volunteer. Dale and his wife worked tirelessly throughout the pandemic to keep the food pantry open to ensure that everyone safely received the assistance they needed.

In addition to his work with the Cornerstone Bible Church, Dale serves his community in many other roles. Preserving the incredible history of Washington County has consistently been a top priority for Dale. He is the administrator of historical markers at the Washington County Historical Society. In 2007, he contributed to the Fort Ann historical book, "300 Years of History," and he serves as the vice president of the Fort Ann Historical Society. Dale was actively involved in preserving Battle Hill and assisted in obtaining grants for the project.

Dale's dedication to preserving and improving the Fort Ann community cannot be understated. As Washington County honored him for his service in his community for Older Americans Month, I am proud to thank Dale for his commitment to serving the Fort Ann community. On behalf of New York's 21st District, I am honored to recognize Dale for his incredible life of service.

IN HONOR OF REVOLUTIONARY WAR VETERANS SERGEANT BEN-JAMIN WOODRUFF AND COR-PORAL JOSIAH CUTLER AS THEY RECEIVE PLAQUES IN ANN AR-
BOR'S FOREST HILL CEMETERY

HON. DEBBIE DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 21, 2022

Mrs. DINGELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Revolutionary War Veterans Sergeant Benjamin Woodruff and Corporal Josiah Cutler on the occasion of the laying of a plaque in their honor at Forest Hill Cemetery located in Ann Arbor, Michigan by the Huron Valley Chapter of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution. Freedom is not free, and today we pause to remember two men who served their country during the Revolutionary War. Their service to our nation at the time of its birth is worthy of commendation.

Born and raised in New Jersey, Sergeant Benjamin Woodruff first enlisted in the Continental Army as a drummer in 1776. He later enlisted as a Sergeant in the New Jersey Militia and served in this position for the remainder of the war. During his time in the army, Sergeant Woodruff fought in the battles of Elizabethtown, Springfield, and at Acquackanonk. He died in Pittsfield Township, Michigan in 1837 at the age of 92.

Corporal Josiah Cutler was a native of Brookfield, Massachusetts. Beginning in 1778, he served for four years and 10 months in the Continental Army until he was honorably discharged in 1784. While enlisted, Corporal Cutler fought at Battle of Kingsbridge and stormed the redoubt at Yorktown under General Lafayette. In 1840, at age 78, Cutler moved to Pittsfield Township, Michigan where he died a couple months later.

Both Sergeant Benjamin Woodruff and Corporal Josiah Cutler are remembered for their honorable military service and dedication to our nation. They are just a few of the native and adopted Michiganders who fought for our country during the revolution. It is important for us to honor the veterans of community who fought for the freedom of our nation, a value we continue to hold dear today. There is no better moment to recognize these veterans than on the upcoming anniversary of our nation. We are thankful for the path these soldiers laid out for past, present, and future Americans over two centuries ago.

Madam Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today in celebrating the honorable men Sergeant Benjamin Woodruff and Corporal Josiah Cutler as they are memorialized in Ann Arbor, Michigan. We join with Americans everywhere in extending our thanks to the Huron Valley Chapter of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution for their work remembering these important men. Today and every day, we honor the brave patriots we lost in the fight for our independence. We are grateful for their military service and their willingness to fight for the freedom and liberty that we enjoy today.
