CONGRATULATING WEST CAREER AND TECHNICAL ACADEMY'S WE
THE PEOPLE TEAM

(Mrs. LEE of Nevada asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. LEE of Nevada. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate West Career and Technical Academy's We the People team. They are not only studying history; they are making it.

Mr. Speaker, 1999 was the last time a southern Nevada We the People team qualified for nationals. But now, 14 students from West Tech's We the People team have changed that.

As part of We the People, these students are going that extra mile in their civic education to study our history, our Constitution, and our democracy.

To Mrs. Rozar and all the outstanding We the People teachers, we say thank you.

I have no doubt of West Tech's success later this month when they compete here in Washington, but I am even more excited to watch where this passion takes them as leaders in Nevada's future.

Congratulations to West Tech's We the People team, and good luck in D.C.

HONORING ARMY VETERAN LYNN
LIPPS

(Mr. ROSENDALE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROSENDALE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Army veteran, Mr. Lynn Lipps, from Roundup, Montana, for being awarded the Army Good Conduct Medal.

The Army Good Conduct Medal is awarded for exemplary behavior, efficiency, and fidelity in active Federal military service.

Mr. Lipps demonstrated exceptional skills and was a reliable and conscientious worker during his service as a medic in the emergency treatment clinic at Irwin Army Hospital at Fort Riley.

In addition to his skills, Mr. Lipps displayed a genuine concern for the well-being of the patients that he tended to.

Mr. Lipps worked long, arduous hours to ensure that the best possible medical care was provided to the soldiers and their families, and he was always willing to serve above and beyond that which was required.

Mr. Lipps' accomplishments not only reflected well upon himself but also upon his unit.

Congratulations, Lynn, on receiving this noble achievement, and thank you for your service to our country.

RECOGNIZING STEVEN KRAMER

(Mr. MRVAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MRVAN. Madam Speaker, it is with great pride I rise today to recognize Steve Kramer from Dyer, Indiana, as the 2020 recipient of the United Steelworkers' Leo Gerard Visionary Award.

Steve has been a proud union member in the United Steelworkers District 7 for over 36 years. He is the former president of the USW Local 9777 and now serves as vice president. He is also a councilman for the town of Dyer in the First District.

Steve's hard work and dedication to our steelworkers' labor unions and his community is what makes his work truly visionary and commendable.

I am proud that northwest Indiana is home to so many hardworking and dedicated members of the United Steelworkers. Every day, I appreciate their invaluable contributions to the strength of our economy, our workforce, and our community.

Congratulations, Steve, for your exemplary leadership of the steelworkers and all workers.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK AND NATIONAL LIBRARY OUTREACH DAY

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise today to celebrate National Library Week and National Library Outreach Day. This week is dedicated to promoting the importance of our local libraries.

Our libraries serve as a place to connect. Some use the library as a place to connect to the internet. Others may use it as a place to connect with new ideas or classes. Most importantly, our libraries connect our communities.

Today's focus, National Library Outreach Day, otherwise known as National Bookmobile Day, highlights the important outreach activities conducted by our local libraries.

Bookmobiles and other outreach events hosted by our libraries connect individuals who otherwise might not be able to access a local library. From events at elementary schools to senior living centers, these services are essential to our community.

Madam Speaker, I encourage you all to make a visit to your local library this week and thank the librarians for the work that they do.

HONORING THE LIFE OF TREY MARSHALL SUTTON

(Ms. SPANBERGER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. SPANBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I stand here today to honor the life of Henrico County Police Officer Trey Marshall Sutton.

Officer Sutton was described as kind, confident, and someone who devoted his life to others.

Originally from Chesterfield County, Officer Sutton graduated from the police academy earlier this year, and he was training to serve in the Henrico County PD's patrol bureau. He was also soon to be married.

Last week, Officer Sutton's life was cut tragically short in a car crash during field training. In an instant, Virginia lost one of our best, someone who demonstrated both bravery and compassion through his actions.

We will remember Officer Sutton for his service to our community. We will remember his commitment to our Commonwealth. And we will remember his story as one of purpose and inspiration for our country.

In the words of the "Hero's Welcome": "And through your selfless actions, others will hear the call."

My prayers are with Officer Sutton's fellow officers in the Henrico County Police Department, his classmates at the academy, his fiancée, Zoe, and all of his loved ones.

Please join me in honoring the life of Officer Trey Marshall Sutton.

FOOD SHORTAGE

(Mr. ROSE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, the President of the United States of America, the most prosperous country in the world, has warned the American people that a food shortage is a real possibility in our near future.

Much like our national energy shortage, this potential crisis has been made much more likely by President Biden's out-of-control spending and his unwillingness to tap into American resources, ingenuity, and its people.

Since January of 2021, the prices of many of the key inputs used to produce our Nation's food supply have substantially increased. Ammonia is up 203 percent; liquid nitrogen is up 162 percent; and farm diesel, used in almost every piece of farm equipment, is up a whopping 95 percent.

Spending more money won't fix this; in fact, it has made it worse by causing the prices of everything to go up.

If a food shortage does come to the United States, the sole person to blame will be President Biden, who has wasted no time spending our country into a crisis.

UKRAINIAN STORIES

(Ms. SPEIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. SPEIER. Mr. Speaker, I rise tonight to condemn Vladimir Putin for what he is doing to the children of Ukraine.

Listen to these stories.

Ukrainian mothers are putting the contact details of their relatives on the bodies of their children because they want to make sure that if the children survive and they don't, there will be some place for their children to go.

Emergency service workers are teaching children how to identify Russian explosives made to look like toys.

Thousands of children have been abducted in Ukraine and taken to Russia.

And Ukrainian children have witnessed the murder and torture of their parents, including severed limbs, slashed throats, rapes, and burning bodies.

I am proud to colead an appropriations request with Representatives SCHIFF, KAPTUR, and QUIGLEY to ensure at least $100 million for Eastern Europe's demining budget in FY23.

RECOGNIZING PETIT JEAN MEATS

(Mr. HILL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HILL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the remarkable achievement of Petit Jean Meats, marking 100 years of business in central Arkansas.

Petit Jean Meats was established in 1922 by the late Felix Schlosser, searching for a better opportunity after escaping an inflation-ravaged Germany.

He found that opportunity in Morrilton, Arkansas, and opened a small retail market, which has now expanded into a 48,000-square foot processing plant.

The story of Petit Jean Meats is truly inspirational, and today, it is still owned by that same family.

Current owner David Ruff says: "We still do things the old-fashioned way, which gives our meats that old-fashioned flavor."

I commend Petit Jean Meats for this outstanding achievement, and I wish them continued success.

UKRAINIAN CHILDREN

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, I rise tonight outraged over the systemic slaughter of Ukrainian children by Russian murderer Vladimir Putin.

Countless Ukrainian children are being murdered and orphaned. An entire generation is watching as everything around them is destroyed by Russia's war machine.

Fathers and mothers are being ripped from sons and daughters. The littlest are being left to fend for themselves, as Russia lays waste to everything Ukrainians have ever known.

No little child should be left to weep next to the unmarked grave of their parent that they will never see again.

No child should have to ponder how they will eat or where they will sleep due to the actions of a tyrant who derives satisfaction from their despair.

We have a global responsibility to end this bloodshed. Fully arm Ukraine now. Isolate Russia from the community of responsible nations. Starve Putin and his oligarchs. Make sure that we help Ukraine withstand all that they must in order to win this war against Russia's killing machine. Let all democratic nations do everything they can to assure liberty in Ukraine is victorious.
