

The diversity of my district truly represents the diversity in America:

I represent immigrants.

My district has an international border.

I have the Great Lakes.

I have one of the largest Jewish populations in the country.

My district is majority African American, and I have a very large Hispanic population.

Seeing the rich diversity in my district, I founded the Congressional Caucus on Black-Jewish Relations to foster that relationship between those of us who are targeted the most for hate and for discrimination.

We accomplished amazing work, and I am proud of the legacy that I will continue to support as a citizen of this country.

I currently serve as the vice chair of the Congressional Black Caucus, which is led by my colleague and my dear friend, Congresswoman JOYCE BEATTY. I have been able to serve with some legends—like John Lewis and Elijah Cummings—in that capacity, and I know that having the Congressional Black Caucus, the conscience of Congress, this Congress will continue to move in the right direction.

As you know, I was a member of the United States Postal Service for 30 years. When I arrived in Washington, my top priority was to sit on the House Oversight Committee where I could continue to fight for the survival and the efficiency of the United States Postal Service and fight for my postal family.

I am so proud that we passed the Postal Service Reform Act that we have been fighting for for years. Also, I am proud of my fight for the Flint water crisis, to make sure that we have water in America that will not hurt or harm people and that we fight for clean water in America.

I serve on Appropriations, where I am vice chair of the House Committee on Appropriations. I am standing here to say that the dollars that you pay going to the right place has been very defining. I thank my staff for all the support they have given me, and I look forward to coming home. I am excited to spend time with my family—my husband, my children, and my granddaughter—and the community of southeast Michigan.

CELEBRATING EIGHT CONSECUTIVE STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR ALCOA HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. BURCHETT) for 5 minutes.

Mr. BURCHETT. Mr. Speaker, I am glad you are up there, but I am disappointed that the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. COOPER), my friend, has left. He is the dean of the Tennessee delegation, and he has been a good friend to me since I came to Congress.

I would see him every morning. I think it was kind of a parallel to our lives. He was always going to do yoga, and I was going to get beat up in boot camp working out in the morning, but he was always very kind to me, and I believe there is always a place in Congress for people like JIM COOPER.

Mr. Speaker, today I rise to congratulate Coach Brian Nix and the Alcoa High School football team on their eighth consecutive Tennessee State championship title.

Alcoa defeated East Nashville in a 45-26 win to bring home another AAA State championship. This win marks the Tornadoes' 21st State championship, and for Brian Nix it is the first one serving as their head coach. I am overwhelmingly proud of this team and its resilience.

Mr. Speaker, the Alcoa Tornadoes finished out the season with an impressive 14-1 record and brought home their eighth consecutive State title, which is quite an achievement.

The seniors on this team will remember this season for the rest of their lives, and it is truly a special thing for these younger guys to be able to come back next year and try for another ring.

Alcoa is well-staffed with coaches Alex Taylor, Ben Love, Brian Gossett, Chris Collett, Dakota Summers, David Sweetland, Jonathan Harris, and Peyton Jones.

Congratulations to all the Tornadoes on your big win. You absolutely have earned it.

CONGRATULATING KNOXVILLE WEST HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM

Mr. BURCHETT. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to congratulate Coach Lamar Brown and the Knoxville West High School football team on their undefeated season in the Second Tennessee Class 5A State championship.

Knoxville West earned their ring at Finley Stadium in Chattanooga with an outstanding 47-13 win over Paige High School. After the big win, the Tennessee Titans named head coach Lamar Brown as 2022 High School Coach of the Year.

It is truly special watching a team have this amount of respect and trust in their coaching staff and vice versa. It is more than just a game, Mr. Speaker. Head Coach Lamar Brown and the rest of his coaching staff did a tremendous job in coaching these young men throughout the season. I happened to see many of their games. One of my dearest friends, Todd Scott's boy plays for this team and former mayor Madeline Rogero's grandson was on the team.

Congratulations to all the Rebels on your State title. You earned it and made the city of Knoxville proud along the way.

A SUCCESSFUL CONGRESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mrs. LAWRENCE). The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. COSTA) for 5 minutes.

Mr. COSTA. Madam Speaker, the 117th Congress, I believe, will go down as one of the most successful Congresses in modern history. We have passed over 200 bipartisan bills, provided funding for vaccine relief, the American Rescue Plan, $1.2 trillion bipartisan investment in infrastructure, efforts to deal with our veterans, focusing on reform on the Postal Service, the Inflation Reduction Act, and the list goes on and on.

We have not passed such successful legislation since perhaps the Great Society in the 1960s. As we reflect upon that and the historic Speakership of NANCY PELOSI, we reflect upon the success of the last 2 years with a 4-vote majority and a 50-50 tie in the Senate. Certainly her Speakership is historic in so many different ways.

Madam Speaker, I look on to the next Congress, the 118th. Hopefully, notwithstanding our divisions, we can find ways to work together on infrastructure as we continue to invest in America, in water, extreme drought conditions facing the West and California, much necessary for the long-term future because where water flows, food grows; investing in transportation to compete around the world; broadband; I want to get a medical school in the San Joaquin Valley. We have a shortage of physicians, and we need to increase the number of nurses to improve better healthcare for all Americans. We need to focus on rural America. I represent a great deal of it.

Yes, there are divisions in this country, but I hope the 118th Congress remembers that we are here to serve the people. This is the people's House. That is our purpose, to work together and solve problems.

Madam Speaker, I am hoping that my alma mater, Fresno State Bulldogs, will be successful in Saturday's game. Go, Dogs.

SOUTHERN BORDER MESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. LAMALFA) for 5 minutes.

Mr. LAMALFA. Madam Speaker, I have had a chance on several occasions to visit our southern border between the U.S. and Mexico. Of course, I wish our people in the White House would take the time. It is a very important thing. There are not more important things for the President and the Vice President to do than to see firsthand the mess we have among our four border States, but truly the effect it has, as every State is a border State because they flow so far into our country.

What are we looking at here? Four million encounters with illegal immigrants crossing our southern border in the last 2 years; an amazing amount.

Under President Trump, we had the most secure border we had in years. It wasn't perfect, but strides were being made with the many, many miles of fence that had been put up.

Since the Biden administration kicked in, the effort to continue to build the fence was frozen. We have stacks and stacks of materials lying there, many millions of dollars' worth of materials just laying there in the various spots across the border staged to be completed.

When I visited the Arizona portion, you could see where there were maybe 50 or 100 feet of fence, and there would be an area that would be contained where it would be much, much easier for the Border Patrol to do their jobs and keep whatever problems there are funneled in fewer areas, making their task much simpler to keep track.

Instead, with the deluge of immigrants, really an invasion that is happening, their job is much, much more difficult and less about patrolling the border and more about processing.

Indeed, when I was there, they have vans to go pick people up and bring them even faster to the processing center and then turn them loose in our country.

□ 1145

This is a really backwards policy, and it makes me really wonder whose side is this administration on.

The needs of the American people, or some kind of political gain by having a wide-open border?

I do not understand it. The numbers are huge.

Of course, it is the numbers of people coming across as well as the illegal drugs; the fentanyl. You have heard time and time and time again the stories. I guess the press doesn't really want to report a lot of that; we hear it here and there. But the amount of people being harmed by the fentanyl getting to everything is amazing. Yet, the border remains porous.

The only State doing something about it is Texas. All those States don't really have the rights to do Federal border patrol or closure. They are at least making an effort down there to stem the tide.

We are in a state of crisis along the border. Millions cross every year with no consequence. We expect them maybe to come back for a hearing, if indeed they are eligible for an asylum hearing, but that is really naive.

So there are plenty of tools already in the law to stop it. We don't really need reform on immigration. We need to enforce the rules we have.

Yet, what is the direction we are going?

We are going to see title 42, which is able to make limitations due to the healthcare crisis because of COVID. They want to let that go to the sidelines now, getting rid of title 42.

We already have a crisis. We already have a giant wave coming in. This is just going to exacerbate it. We already have gigantic problems that will be added to by letting title 42 expire.

Every country that is a country has borders and laws on that. Why is the U.S. different now under the Biden administration and under Democrat rule that we are not allowed to enforce our borders?

And indeed, the issue, as you squish the balloon, now we are seeing an effect on the Canadian border, something that hasn't been talked about a lot.

Mexican nationals are finding that it is easier with the backlog we have on the southern border to be able to take a flight up into Canada, because they have lifted most of their restrictions on entry and exit, and come through from Canada into the United States. Those numbers are increasing dramatically.

The data reflects a 91 percent increase from the prior fiscal year, and going higher. So if it is easier to come as a Mexican national through Canada, then that is just going to continue to be a larger problem. But we already have enough to deal with on the southern border; if we would just do the job.

As President Biden said last spring, let's fill the gaps that we have. At least fill just the gaps, if you don't want to make miles and miles of fence. It will make the Border Patrol job much easier. But truly, we need to do the whole job because we are not a sovereign nation if we don't have a border, if we don't enforce it.

Now, we will get called racist. We will get called hateful. Because those are just the standard arguments these days for just about anything.

It is not that. We have a right and an obligation to enforce that and bring people over that want to come legally, with visas. That is the way to do things, not just a wide-open, porous border.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. COSTA). Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess until noon today.

Accordingly (at 11 o'clock and 48 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

□ 1200

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. CUELLAR) at noon.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, in the words of Thomas Merton, we mourn that "all over the face of the Earth, the avarice and lust of [humanity] breed unceasing divisions among them, and the wounds that tear [humans] from union with one another widen and open out into huge wars. Murder, massacres, revolution, and hatred . . ."

Forgive us, O Lord, our proclivity for division and our inclination to allow our desires for power and our unquenched thirst for control, create discord in our families, in our communities, in our country, and among sovereign nations.

We continue to pray for the conflict in Ukraine, and we pray that the dispute for land and dominance would, by some miracle, find resolution. Remind us that such tragedy reflects our fractured human condition and our deep need for Your salvation.

Convict us each of our part in even the smallest of conflicts, that we would set aside our differences and instead strive to maintain the unity found in Your spirit. Then mend the broken bones of our families, our communities, and our country, and heal the wounds in our world.

O Lord, abolish the bow, the sword, and war from our lands, and allow all to lie down this night in safety.

In Your most holy name, we pray.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1 of rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. WILSON) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will entertain up to 15 requests for 1-minute speeches on each side of the aisle.

AMERICA'S ANCHOR, JIM GARDNER

(Ms. DEAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DEAN. Mr. Speaker, for nearly half a century, legendary news anchor Jim Gardner has informed and guided Philadelphia, southeastern Pennsylvania, and south Jersey. Next week, he will retire, and I thank him for his incredible service.

Jim joined Action News in 1976 as a reporter before setting into his iconic role as the 6 and 11 p.m. anchor, becoming the longest-serving on-air personality in our region's history.

As the years changed and trust in our institutions eroded, one journalistic institution stood strong: Jim Gardner.
