

investigations and increased awareness efforts.

Supports the development of robust child protective mechanisms for vulnerable children, including those from Ukraine, in Ukraine and in countries that have received Ukrainian refugees, that include social assistance and protection to help prevent human trafficking and sexual abuse of Ukrainian children.

Works with Ukrainian authorities to ensure that law enforcement officials stationed at major border crossing points during a refugee crisis are appropriately trained to prevent human trafficking and support other measures to monitor for indications of human trafficking targeting refugees in areas surrounding border crossings.

My bill also imposes financial blocking and visa sanctions on any foreign person or organization that the President or Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State, determine are responsible for engaging in or facilitating the transfer of Ukrainian children to Russia and/or Russian controlled areas of Ukraine and/or for their forced assimilation, adoption, or placement in a foster home, and engaging in or facilitating the human trafficking of Ukrainian refugees.

The Oleksandr Ivanov Act also contains a provision that requires the Department of State to submit a report on United States efforts for reintegrating Ukrainian children affected by the war including but not limited to: supporting the rebuilding and redevelopment of the Ukrainian education system, and the implementation of mental health supports to address trauma and family separations.

Holding Russia accountable for war crimes is crucial.

There can be no impunity for these heinous crimes.

Today, I call my colleagues to action and ask that they join me in seeking liberty and justice for all those in Ukraine by cosponsoring the Oleksandr Ivanov Act.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS NEEDED FOR WAR IN UKRAINE

(Mr. GROTHMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. GROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, we just had another vote on this floor regarding the war between Russia and Ukraine. One more time, more money was spent on the war.

As bad as the money that is spent on the war, what is worse is the huge cost in human lives and suffering going on as long as the war exists.

I think there is a shortage of serious concern as to how this war is going to end and a shortage of desire to end this war.

Eventually, this war will end, but I believe the United States has traditionally been the world leader, and we should take our responsibility as world leader and try to push somebody, be it Israel, be it France, be it, Türkiye, into negotiating a peace.

The longer this war goes on, the more you will have wounds between countries that are not going to turn around, and the more Russians and Ukrainians die.

I remind this body that Ukraine has the second-lowest birthrate in the world. Russia has a very low birthrate as well and, even before the war, was suffering from a lot of its young people leaving Russia and coming to other countries such as the United States.

Mr. Speaker, I plead with President Biden to take a leadership role and try to negotiate an end to this war.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. GROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 11 o'clock and 41 minutes p.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until tomorrow, Friday, September 29, 2023, at 10 a.m.
