The SPEAKER pro tempore. On this roll call, 432 Members have recorded their presence.

A quorum is present.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The next order of business is the election of the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 118th Congress.

Nominations are now in order.

The Chair recognizes the gentlewoman from New York (Ms. STEFANIK).

Ms. STEFANIK. Mr. Speaker pro tempore, Mr. Clerk, colleagues, on behalf of the House Republican Conference, I rise today to nominate the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. JIM JORDAN, as Speaker of the people's House.

We are at a time of great crisis across America, a time of historic challenges in this very Chamber, and a time when heinous acts of terror and evil have been committed against our great ally, Israel.

As this body convenes for the sacred responsibility to elect the next Speaker of the people's House, I am reminded of the Book of Esther: for such a time as this.

JIM JORDAN will be America's Speaker for such a time as this:

A time when hardworking American families are struggling under the vice of inflation, not able to afford groceries, heat, or gas because of the trillions and trillions of dollars of reckless spending by failed far-left government;

A time when millions are being illegally trafficked and smuggled across our southern and northern borders due to the catastrophic and inhumane wide-open borders of Joe Biden;

A time when violent crime is skyrocketing across America, destroying our great cities, suburbs, and small towns, where people no longer feel safe in their homes or in their communities;

A time when American energy production has been crushed by Joe Biden's radical, failed, far-left policies, causing seniors, farmers, and families to pay more at the pump and struggle with skyrocketing utility bills;

A time when the Federal Government is weaponized against we the people, who they are supposed to serve, stripping us of our God-given constitutional rights and wrongfully targeting conservatives, Catholics, and even parents at school board meetings;

A time when the people of our closest and most precious ally, Israel, suffered the bloodiest day since the Holocaust, with acts of inhumane evil committed by Hamas terrorists backed by Iran, grotesque atrocities, the beheadings of babies, rapes, kidnappings, and slaughter of women, children, and the elderly, and Israelis and Americans taken hostage.

We are here in this very Chamber for such a time as this. JIM JORDAN will be we the people's Speaker for such a time as this.

Our friend and colleague JIM JORDAN is a patriot. He is an America First warrior who wins the toughest of fights, going after corruption and delivering accountability at the highest levels of government on behalf of we the people.

□ 1245

JIM is the voice of the American people who have felt voiceless for far too long. Whether as Judiciary chair, conservative leader, or Representative for his constituents in west central Ohio, whether on the wrestling mat or in the committee room, JIM JORDAN is strategic, scrappy, tough, and principled.

He is a mentor, a worker, and above all, he is a fighter. We know that JIM JORDAN is a winner on behalf of the American people.

Almost 10 years ago, many of us sat with our colleague JIM JORDAN in this very Chamber when Prime Minister Netanyahu delivered his historic joint address—which some of our colleagues across the aisle shamefully boycotted. Bibi pointed out that in this very Chamber, we serve under the watchful gaze of Moses.

He said, "Overlooking all of us in this Chamber is the image of Moses. . . . And before the people of Israel entered the land of Israel, Moses gave us a message that has steeled our resolve for thousands of years. . . . Be strong and resolute, neither fear nor dread them."

He went on to say: "My friends, may Israel and America always stand together, strong and resolute. May we neither fear nor dread the challenges ahead. May we face the future with confidence, strength, and hope."

On behalf of the American people, let's face the future with confidence, strength, and hope. Let's elect JIM JORDAN, our Speaker of the people's House, for such a time as this.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. AGUILAR).

Mr. AGUILAR. Mr. Speaker pro tempore, with great respect for this institution, as chairman of the Democratic Caucus, I am directed by the vote of that Caucus to present for election to the office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives the name of the Honorable HAKEEM JEFFRIES, the pride of Crown Heights, a Representative from the State of New York.

Mr. Speaker pro tempore, this is not the history we wanted to make here in the House. It is something that none of us imagined when we were sworn into this office.

We are here because the House has been thrown into chaos. We are here because this hallowed Chamber has been led to a breaking point by two dangerous forces: extremism and partisanship.

The American people placed their faith in us to tackle their most pressing issues: lowering costs, growing the middle class, and standing up to those set on delivering a national abortion ban.

The choice before us is simple: Come together on a bipartisan path forward or take us over the cliff. Abandon the extremism that is preventing us from getting things done or triple down on division and dysfunction.

A vote today to make the architect of a nationwide abortion ban, a vocal election denier, and an insurrection insider Speaker of this House would be a terrible message to the country and our allies.

Mr. Speaker pro tempore, it would send an even more troubling message to our enemies that the very people who would seek to undermine democracy are rewarded with positions of immense power.

We are talking about someone who has spent his entire career trying to hold our country back, putting our national security in danger, attempting government shutdown after government shutdown, wasting taxpayer dollars on baseless investigations with dead ends, authoring the very bill that would ban abortion nationwide without exceptions, and inciting violence on this Chamber. Even leaders of his own party have called him a legislative terrorist. He once said, "I didn't come to Congress to make more laws." His words speak for themselves.

When New Yorkers recovering from Hurricane Sandy needed Congress to act, he said no.

When wildfires ravaged the West, destroying homes and businesses, and those residents needed disaster assistance, he said no.

When the Mississippi River floods devastated the South and communities across State lines needed Congress to act, he said no.

When our veterans were suffering from disease and dying as a result of their service to our country and Congress passed a bipartisan solution, he said no.

When our ally in Ukraine looked to Congress for additional support to help defeat Putin, he said no.

Just before Hamas' brutal terrorist attack on Israel, he said no to fully funding military aid for our ally.

This body is debating elevating a Speaker nominee who has not passed a single bill in 16 years. These are not the actions of someone interested in governing or bettering the lives of everyday Americans.

This is nothing less than the rejection of the oath that we swore to uphold as duly elected Members of this body.

But on this side of the aisle and throughout this Chamber, I am convinced that oath still matters. To fulfill our obligations to the American people, we have no choice today but to vote for a leader of both character and conviction.

When the Congress first began, we proudly stood next to him as our leader and made a promise to every American.

House Democrats would work to find common ground on the issues that matter most to the American people whenever possible, and we would stand up to extremism whenever necessary.

Only HAKEEM JEFFRIES can be trusted to keep his word. Only HAKEEM JEFFRIES can lead us out of the chaos and toward a path of governance.

It brings me immense pride to nominate our friend, the Democratic leader, HAKEEM JEFFRIES, as Speaker. He may just be the candidate with the most votes, but he is also the candidate with the most credibility.

If the goal is to continue a 30-year march to hollow out our Democratic institutions, weaken our democracy, and embolden extremists, there is a candidate for you.

If the goal is to continue taking marching orders from a twice-impeached former President with more than 90 pending felony charges, then there is a candidate for you.

The world is watching, Mr. Speaker pro tempore. Our allies in Ukraine and Israel are watching and waiting. Let's have this vote, but let's be clear: A vote for the gentleman from Ohio is a vote to turn your back on national security.

It is a vote to turn your back on a bipartisan path to fund the government and avoid shutdowns, something we can only do if we reject his nomination.

House Democrats are in the minority. We realize that. If House Republicans wanted to elect a Speaker without us, then they could have.

There is still a path forward for both Democrats and Republicans to come together to elect a Speaker who can unite us behind a common purpose; keeping the government open on a bipartisan compromise that won more than 300 votes just 4 months ago in this Chamber; taking an up-or-down vote on help so Israel can defeat Hamas and Ukraine can defeat Putin; and reassuring the American people that their legislators have their backs.

Mr. Speaker pro tempore, it is that simple, and we can do it today. Let's work together. Let's elect a Speaker who will reach out the hand of bipartisanship and deliver for the American people.

That is why, once again, Mr. Speaker pro tempore, I am proud to nominate HAKEEM JEFFRIES for Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The names of the Honorable JIM JORDAN, a Representative from the State of Ohio, and the Honorable HAKEEM JEFFRIES, a Representative from the State of New York, have been placed in nomination.

Are there further nominations?

There being no further nominations, the Chair appoints the following tellers:

The gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. STEIL);

The gentleman from New York (Mr. MORELLE);

The gentleman from Georgia (Mr. LOUDERMILK); and

The gentlewoman from Alabama (Ms. SEWELL).

The tellers will come forward and take their seats at the desk in front of the Speaker's rostrum. The roll will now be called, and those responding to their names will indicate by surname the nominee of their choosing.

The Reading Clerk will now call the roll.

The tellers having taken their places, the House proceeded to vote for the Speaker.
