MOMENT OF SILENCE HONORING VICTIMS OF BOMBINGS IN BEIRUT, LEBANON

(Mr. MURPHY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor those servicemembers whose lives were taken in the tragic Beirut bombing 40 years ago.

On October 23, 1983, 2 suicide bombers took the lives of 220 marines, 18 sailors, and 3 soldiers at the marine barracks in Beirut, Lebanon, wounding another 128 Americans.

A few minutes later, in a coordinated attack, another suicide bomber blew up the French barracks about 4 miles away, killing 58 French paratroopers.

On Monday, my good friend Congressman GREG PENCE—who had been stationed in these barracks not a week prior to the attack—and I attended the 40th anniversary memorial service in my district, in Jacksonville, North Carolina.

Jacksonville is home to the world renowned Camp Lejeune, for which the 24th Marine Amphibious Unit deployed to Beirut under the direction of President Ronald Reagan.

Their mission was a peacekeeping one. Today, etched in the stone of the Beirut Memorial in Jacksonville is a line that reads: "They came in peace."

Eastern North Carolina continues to grieve today for the loss of life and the loss of loved ones in the devastating attack 40 years ago.

Mr. Speaker, in honor of these fallen heroes, I ask that the House observe a moment of silence.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO OFFER RESOLUTION RAISING A QUESTION OF THE PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. D'ESPOSITO. Mr. Speaker, pursuant to clause 2(a)(1) of rule IX, I rise to give notice of my intention to raise a question of the privileges of the House.

The form of the resolution is as follows:

H. Res. 773 providing for the expulsion of Representative GEORGE SANTOS from the House of Representatives.

Whereas, GEORGE ANTHONY DEVOLDER SANTOS, known as GEORGE SANTOS, was elected to represent New York's Third Congressional District in the House of Representatives on November 8, 2022;

Whereas, after election day, it was revealed GEORGE SANTOS lied about a significant portion of his background, including his education and previous employment;

Whereas, GEORGE SANTOS directly profited from his fraudulent actions, including transferring money to his own bank account to buy luxury items and pay off debts;

Whereas, as a result of these actions, GEORGE SANTOS is not fit to serve his constituents as a United States Representative;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that, pursuant to Article I, Section 5, Clause 2 of the Constitution of the United States of America, Representative GEORGE SANTOS be, and he hereby is, expelled from the House of Representatives.

The Chair will not at this point determine whether the resolution constitutes a question of privilege. That determination will be made at the time designated for consideration of the resolution.

ACKNOWLEDGING 75TH ANNIVERSARY OF NITTANY VALLEY VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANY

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge the remarkable history of the Nittany Valley Volunteer Fire Company located in Clinton County. Their story is one of courage, dedication, and community spirit.

Their story begins in 1948 as a group led by Jim Wolfe made history by bidding $300.01 to purchase a retired 1916 Ahrens Fox Pumper from the Citizens Hose Company in Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. Over the years, they acquired essential equipment, including a tank truck with a mounted pump and a 1952 International truck.

Their commitment to the community has never wavered, and they are always ready to respond to emergencies. The volunteer firefighter department has evolved over time. Today, residents only have one number to call, but in the beginning, calls were directed to the Mabus home, which was directly next to the fire station.

The Nittany Valley Volunteer Fire Company stands as a testament to the unwavering dedication of its members, past and present, to safeguarding their community. Their history is one of resilience and community support.

Mr. Speaker, I thank the Nittany Valley Volunteer Fire Company, upon their 75th anniversary, for their enduring commitment to the safety and well-being of our community.

DISCUSSING THE NEW HOUSE SPEAKER

(Mr. PAYNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to discuss the new House Speaker, Representative MIKE JOHNSON.

In doing some research, not knowing the gentleman very well, I have come to find out that he is not the moderate unifier that we need right now.

Speaker Johnson was a key player in Trump's plot to overthrow our democracy. He worked to justify the tragic January 6 insurrection, an attack that threatened the lives of my House colleagues, Republican and Democrat alike.

Speaker Johnson wants the government to control a woman's right to her healthcare decisions. He wants the government to control who Americans can marry. He wants the government to ban interracial marriage.

He also wants to slash funding for Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid and deny critical healthcare to vulnerable seniors.

Americans reject these extreme agenda items, yet Republicans voted for him to lead the people's House. Once again, they are putting politics over the American people.

RECOGNIZING AMERICAN PHARMACISTS MONTH

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize October as American Pharmacists Month.

As a pharmacist myself, I recognize pharmacists' contributions to our healthcare system and our communities.

Pharmacists play a crucial role in our communities. Over 90 percent of the U.S. population can access a pharmacy within a 5-mile radius of their homes. For many, they are their main access to healthcare. Ninety percent of COVID-19 vaccinations, 60 to 70 percent of flu vaccines, and over 80 percent of overall vaccines in the United States are administered in pharmacies.

It is no wonder that pharmacists are the most trusted and accessible healthcare professionals in the Nation. I could talk for days about the importance of pharmacists in the American
