

A leader, paratrooper and Prisoner of War in the first battalion of the Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front Bay of Pigs operation, Orlando Urra remains nothing short of a hero and a legend in the Cuban South Florida community. A beloved friend and personal source of inspiration as he was, it is a surprise to no one that his wife, Miriam, should have taken up his mantle with equal strength, vigor, and dedication.

In 1981, Miriam's path took a pivotal turn as she embarked on a new role with the City of Miami, serving as a Counselor for the Entrant Assistance Program. Through her work, Miriam provided invaluable support to refugees, such as the Cuban Marielitos who sought refuge in our South Florida community, offering counseling, referrals, and guidance to ensure their successful integration into society.

Miriam's dedication to community development only grew stronger as she transitioned to the Department of Community Development, City of Miami, where she served as a Community Involvement Specialist. In this capacity, she tirelessly advocated for residents, disseminating information about vital city programs and services while championing citizen participation in policymaking processes.

Following the passing of her beloved husband, Orlando, Miriam retired from the City of Miami and embraced a new chapter as the Executive Director of Allapattah Community Action. Under Miriam's leadership, Allapattah Community Action has flourished, overseeing vital programs for the elderly and childcare while also championing affordable housing initiatives. Her visionary approach and unwavering dedication have transformed lives and uplifted communities.

Miriam's influence reaches well beyond her professional achievements. As a pillar of our community and a cherished friend, she embodies the essence of what makes Allapattah great. Serving as a true leader and mentor to countless individuals, myself included, it's with great pride that I recognize her today.

In recognition of her outstanding service and unfaltering dedication, I ask my colleagues to join me in expressing our deepest gratitude to Miriam Urra for her exemplary leadership, love, and commitment to South Florida.

She invested time, resources, and money to make certain weekly gatherings at the Clubhouse would continue to broaden the girls' horizons. RECOGNIZING FREMONT OEM AND DOT

HON. BRITTANY PETTERSEN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, March 29, 2024

Ms. PETTERSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Fremont County Office of Emergency Management (OEM) and Department of Transportation (DOT) for their lifesaving work to keep roads clear and restore power during a record-breaking winter storm in March of 2024. This harsh winter storm brought over thirteen inches of snow and caused major power outages throughout the county.

Staff from the Fremont County Office of Emergency Management, led by Emergency Manager Mykel Kroll, and the Fremont County Department of Transportation, led by Director Mike Whitt, worked overtime and over weekends throughout inclement weather conditions to clear roadways and restore traffic to over 700 miles of mountainous roadways in the county. Together, they freed an elderly woman who had been trapped in her car by the snow, secured housing for a family who were victims of a fire, restored power to a residential care facility in Florence, rescued a man caught in his vehicle after an avalanche, and helped maintain power for a family with a young child who relies on a supplemental oxygen supply.

Under some of the most extreme conditions possible, Fremont County OEM and DOT did an exemplary job of saving lives and serving our community during this storm.

On behalf of the people of Colorado's 7th Congressional District, it is my honor to recognize Florence County Office of Emergency Management and Department of Transportation for their outstanding work and service to our communities.

RECOGNIZING GEORGE AND SUE CANNELLA

HON. GUS M. BILIRAKIS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, March 29, 2024

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and honor the unique contributions of my constituents, Sue and George Cannella. Sue has worked at the Pregnancy & Family Life Center ("the Center") as a volunteer two days a week since 2015. She is the lead volunteer in the Food Pantry and, as such, shoulders the lion's share of responsibility for ensuring that USDA and non-USDA food items are received, maintained and provided to the Center's clients which includes pregnant Moms, Dads, and families. Sue is extremely dedicated to the clients at the Center and her work pays off. Last year alone, more than 6,000 clients were helped in the food pantry and 65,000 pounds of food distributed. Additionally, Sue ensures moms receive essential items needed for their infants and young children to include formula, diapers, pull ups, baby wipes, and wash, as well as age specific clothing items such as onesies, pajamas, shirts, shorts, pants, and shoes. She does all of this with a warm smile to greet clients, families, staff, and volunteers alike. No job is too large or challenging for Sue. Sue and her husband, George, are quite the team. George comes to the Center at least one day a week to break down numerous boxes which previously contained food or donations from big box stores such as Big Lots or CVS. George also performs maintenance as needed throughout the Center. Sue and George distribute nutritious food boxes monthly to five veterans who otherwise would go without much needed food. They have selfless, generous, and kind hearts in service to Our Lord and the Center's clients. They remain a source of inspiration and hope for women experiencing planned and unplanned pregnancies. They understand that a smile, a kind word, or a joke makes all the difference to families in need.

It is clear that Mr. and Mrs. Cannella have made a profoundly positive impact on our community, and I am grateful for their service.
