

Indianola, Rev. Wilson identified an opportunity to utilize the vacant Bethune Center at the heart of the community to launch a VBS camp. The Executive Director of South Delta Housing generously granted access to the center without charge.

The inaugural VBS camp took place in the summer of 1995, drawing over 100 enthusiastic kids. The overwhelming positive response led to the transformation of the summer camp into a weekly gathering, providing not only spiritual education but also recreational activities, arts and crafts, and occasional outings for children and their families.

This grassroots initiative laid the foundation for Delta Missions, which is proud to celebrate its 30th year of service to the Indianola community this summer.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Delta Missions for their passion and dedication to serving their community.

CELEBRATING “ELIZABETH’S” AND “THE OLDE PINK HOUSE”

HON. EARL L. “BUDDY” CARTER

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2024

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate two hardworking Georgia establishments that were named among the Nation’s top 100 restaurants.

Recently, the restaurant review website ‘Open Table’ released its Top 100 Restaurants in America for 2023 list. Both ‘Elizabeth’s’ and ‘The Olde Pink House’ made it on the list.

The review states that ‘Elizabeth’s’ has “Southern hospitality, fine coastal cuisine, and well-chosen wines in a comfortable, elegant 1900 mansion have made Elizabeth on 37th a favorite destination in Savannah since 1981.”

As far as the ‘Olde Pink House’ goes, the review states it is “Savannah’s only 18th-century mansion [and] is famous for memorable dining experiences featuring seafood caught daily in local waters, prime aged beef, and traditional southern fare.”

Congratulations to these establishments, and I wish them both continued success.

Mr. GARAMENDI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in deep appreciation of Ms. Chloe Stemler for her service to the American people as a member of my staff.

Ms. Stemler joined my office in January of 2023 as an intern, having graduated from George Washington University. She raised the bar for my office’s digital media and set an example I will hold my staff to for years to come.

During her tenure on my staff, Ms. Stemler demonstrated an unfaltering work ethic and a high level of creativity. Whether it was taking videos or writing captions, she approached every task with enthusiasm and humor. She cared deeply for her colleagues and was always willing to lend a helping hand. These same qualities will serve her well in her future endeavors.

Ms. Stemler will be starting a new role as a Communications Associate at the Pew Charitable Trusts. Her contributions have left an indelible mark on my team, and I am confident that she will excel in her new position.

Mr. GRIFFITH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Nathaniel “Ray” Tuck, Jr., who passed away at the age of 52 on February 11, 2024, after battling cancer for the past two and a half years.

Ray was born in Roanoke, Virginia, on April 30, 1971, to Nathaniel Ray and Barbara Z. Tuck. He later graduated from Radford University in 1994 and earned his Doctor of Chiropractic from the National University of Health Sciences in 1997. During Ray’s incredible career, he served as the President of the Virginia Chiropractic Association, Chairman of the Board, and later President of the American Chiropractic Association, and was also appointed to be the chiropractor on the Virginia Board of Medicine.

Ray is survived by his wife, Bonnie, of 29 years, his daughter Abi Dolgos (husband Dakota Dolgos and grandson Gatlin Dolgos), his son Nathaniel (girlfriend Abby E. I was lucky to know Ray personally, as my daughter, Abby, has dated his son Nathaniel for a number of years. He was a good man, and I was glad to have been able to know him before he passed. We will all greatly miss him.

HAPPY 100TH BIRTHDAY CLARA
WILLIAMS

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 9, 2024

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of all South Carolinians, I am grateful to wish Mrs. Clara Singleton Williams a happy 100th birthday.

Clara Williams, a native of South Carolina, was born on April 9, 1924, to parents Isaiah Singleton and Annie Livingston Singleton. She attended schools in Fairfield, Aiken, and Orangeburg County, where she graduated from Wilkerson High School. After, she furthered her education at Claflin University for two years.

In 1946, Clara married Blanton Everett Williams, and together they had eleven children, twenty-nine grandchildren, forty-five great grandchildren, and three great-great grandchildren. They purchased land and a home in Salley, South Carolina, where to this day Clara enjoys watching her vegetables and flowers grow. Blanton and Clara were happily married for sixty-one years until his death in 2007.

Clara lives each day to the fullest with warm-hearted memories. Over the years, she has embraced diverse pursuits, including cooking, canning, farming, quilting, and caring for babies, all while dedicatedly managing her household and working for Aiken County Public Schools. Her spirit of generosity shines through in her unwavering commitment to caring for others. Whether tending to her own children and many grandchildren or extending her kindness to members of her community, Clara's compassion knows no bounds.

As a devout Christian, Clara acknowledged her faith at an early age and was baptized at Good Hope Baptist Church in Ridgeway, South Carolina. She later became a member of Samaria Baptist Church in Springfield, South Carolina, where she still faithfully attends. Her love for both her church and her family is palpable, evident in her years of dedicated service to both.

At the age of 100, Clara has witnessed many significant landmarks of American history: the Great Depression, World War II, Briggs v. Elliott, Brown v. Board of Education, the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Cold War, 9/11, and the first African American President of the United States.

Today, I honor Mrs. Clara Singleton Williams and wish her a happy 100th birthday. I am pleased to join her family and friends in congratulating her on this remarkable milestone.
