

the direction we are headed, change trajectory, massively shift the direction of our country, then our kids and our grandkids will not be able to achieve the American Dream. They won't.

Well, CHIP, how does that sell? What I am selling is a duty to fight. What I am selling is a duty to go fight to make sure those American kids and grandkids can achieve the American Dream. Fight for sovereignty, fight for citizenship, introduce legislation to demand that citizens only vote, to stand up and fight for the opportunity to go carry out your life because you can afford to do it because you have gotten rid of all the regulations that are constraining the hardworking American.

Go get rid of the corporate cronyism enriching the insurance companies, enriching all the big corporations across this country, hospitals and pharma, and strip it away. Get rid of the middlemen and empower doctors and patients and get all that crap out of the way so people can actually go get healthcare. Do that.

Cut the government bureaucracy. Get rid of the bureaucrats. Get rid of DEI. Get rid of critical race theory. Go to war with the bureaucrats, metaphorically, to stop destroying the American Dream. Don't just sit here and come here and give speeches about some basketball team that won the national championship, then go home and say: Look at me, I gave a speech about the basketball championship. Who cares? Their parents can't afford to live.

We have a duty in the people's House to do something. The iceberg is right in front us. My friend, Mr. SCHWEIKERT, just explained it. We are massively upside-down. We are bleeding out of every pore of our body in terms of money and debt. Our borders are wide open. We are increasingly unchurched. Our schools are indoctrinating our kids. Our universities are indoctrination camps. They are essentially daycares for elitists, and we just forgave their debts, their student loans.

Every hardworking American out there deserves a Representative who represents them. Democrat or Republican, Conservative, moderate, Liberal, why are you here? What is the point? Why get elected? Why get an election certificate?

The point is, stand up in defense of the rule of law and the Constitution. If you say you believe in limited government, limit it. If you say you believe in cutting spending, cut it. If you say you believe in securing the border, secure it. If you say you believe in peace through strength, then stop sending our military and our money into endless conflict and instead build a strong military here, sparingly used, make sure our men and women have the care they need when they get home, and send a message around the world that when we use force, it will be used quickly and massively.

This is what the people I represent want. They don't want any more of these feel-good bills because some organization declares "a week." It happens all the time. Teacher week, got to do a teacher bill; cop week, got to do a cop bill. None of that is going to make this country freer or stronger or more secure.

We took an oath to the Constitution. I don't want any more excuses about well, CHIP, this only offends the Commerce Clause a little bit. This one is better than that other version. Stop doing it. Go the other direction.

Stop selling watered-down Democrat-light, and go inspire the American people with something better so that the kids of this generation can get their lives out of these phones and get their lives out of the despair of wondering whether they are going to be able to have the American Dream and give them hope that if they go out and they work and work hard and they save money, they are going to be able to buy a house, have a family, they are going to get healthcare because they worked hard and they were able to do it. That is why migrants come here.

Stop paying people not to work. Stop the endless nonsense and drivel that comes out of this body in the name of doing something and, instead, stand up and fight for the American people. Don't give lip service on June 6 because it is the 80th anniversary of what those boys did when they walked into a wall of bullets. Stand up and do a fraction of what they did by having the nerve to vote "no" on something, even though somebody might tweet something mean about it.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

PROTESTS AT UNIVERSITIES

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 9, 2023, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. KILEY) for 30 minutes.

Mr. KILEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to present a resolution that I am introducing in this House and that I hope will receive prompt passage and bipartisan support.

The resolution reads as follows:

Whereas, in recent weeks, tent encampments have spread at universities across the country. These encampments are illegal and in violation of university policies.

They have become rife with anti-Semitic threats and acts of violence, harassment, and other disruptive behavior.

Some universities have responded by evenhandedly enforcing the law and clearing the encampments. They have emphasized the rights of students to protest and express their opinions in innumerable ways while making it clear that acts in violation of the law or university rules will not be tolerated.

Other universities have decided to ignore the law and ignore their own policies, allowing encampments and other illegal activity associated with them to grow unchecked for weeks.

Encampments have made demands of universities such as divesting from companies tied to Israel, cutting ties with Hillel campus programs, and ending study abroad programs to Israel.

Some of these universities have even negotiated with those in the encampments and agreed to their demands around changes in university policy, including Northwestern University, UC Riverside, Brown, Rutgers, Johns Hopkins, and the University of Minnesota.

Still, others have canceled classes, moved to online meetings, or canceled graduation ceremonies, and that includes Columbia, UCLA, UC San Diego, and Emory University.

These encampments and the criminal behavior connected to them, such as threats or acts of violence, blocking or occupying buildings, genuine harassment, or other disruptive behavior, are not protected by the First Amendment.

To the contrary, they disrupt the operation of the university and the academic freedom and speech rights of other students.

Free speech on campus means universities should encourage free and open expression in speech, writing, listening, challenging, and learning while never shielding students from ideas the university disagrees with or limiting expression on the basis of content.

It does not mean universities should tolerate the promotion of violence, the destruction of property, the obstruction of students' freedom of movement, harassment, vandalism, or other unlawful acts.

Resolved, the House finds canceling classes and commencement in response to unlawful encampments is unacceptable and unfair to the majority of students.

The House condemns any negotiation where a university changes its policy in response to the demands of those engaged in unlawful activity on campus.

The House condemns any concessions made by universities based on demands from those participating in unlawful encampments, including ending study abroad programs to Israel, cutting ties with Hillel, and divesting from companies associated with Israel.

The House calls on universities across the country to work with local law enforcement to immediately clear tent encampments from university property and restore safe learning environments on their campuses, and further resolves that noncompliant students, faculty, or staff be subject to appropriate consequences.

Mr. Speaker, I am hopeful that we can come together and pass this resolution, and it can set the right tone for universities across the country because by this point, it is clear as day that the wrong approach is to allow illegal encampments to exist on campus and then to keep growing, growing, and growing as we have seen at UCLA, at USC, and at Columbia. That only makes the problem more unmanageable. It only causes things to spiral out of control.

The universities that have taken the right approach have said you, as a student, are fully protected under the First Amendment to express yourself on any topic with any opinion you would like in countless different ways.

You are free to do that on our campus, but what you are not free to do is to set up structures on campus, to impede other students, or to engage in threats or acts of violence and other unlawful disruptive conduct that we have been seeing on these campuses.

I am hoping that this resolution will point in the right direction those universities who have been approaching this problem in the wrong way to the detriment of their students.

Now, perhaps the only thing more disgraceful than these illegal pro-Hamas encampments is the way that these universities have catered to them.

Perhaps even more disgraceful than that is the way that some politicians have, the way that some political leaders have remained silent or have refused to condemn things that are so morally clear or have equivocated on the clearest of moral questions.

While President Biden did come out and make a strong statement today, up to this point, his response has been manifestly inadequate.

The Governor of my State, Governor Newsom, in California, has had next to nothing to say about it, even though some of the worst situations are on California campuses.

Just today, the Secretary of Education, Miguel Cardona, testified before our committee, the Education and the Workforce Committee.

Now, Mr. Cardona came into this hearing with a troubling record. For example, he recently refused to say whether chants of "From the River to the Sea" are anti-Semitic.

At today's hearing, I asked him some basic questions. I asked him if he would condemn the illegal tent encampments on university campuses. Secretary Cardona refused to do so.

I asked him if he would condemn faculty members who interfere with the attempts of law enforcement to clear out these encampments and enforce the law. Secretary Cardona refused to condemn them.

I asked him if he would condemn calls to divest from Israel. Secretary Cardona refused to do so. Perhaps most incredibly, I asked the Secretary several times, Secretary Cardona: Will you condemn calls for universities to cut ties with Hillel? As, for example, the organization Students for Justice in Palestine recently did at UC Santa Cruz.

I asked him again and again: Secretary Cardona, will you condemn calls to cut ties with Hillel? And Secretary Cardona refused to do so.

Why is this so hard? Hillel is a center for Jewish community and campus life on campuses all across the country.

Secretary Cardona is unwilling to condemn those who say universities should cut ties with these organizations? Secretary Cardona is unwilling to condemn these overtly anti-Semitic statements?

Given what the President said today, if we are to take seriously his statements condemning what is happening on our university campuses, we need to ask the question whether we can take that commitment seriously so long as Miguel Cardona remains his Secretary of Education.

FUNDING CUTS FOR CHARTER SCHOOLS

Mr. KILEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in strong opposition to this administration's proposal to cut funding for the charter school program.

This is an incredibly important program for many charter schools across the country in allowing them to start up and offer an option to students in communities across the United States.

Now, prior to this year, this administration's support for charter schools has been tepid at best. Funding for the charter school program has remained flat as funding for various other parts of the education budget has increased substantially.

Yet, this year, the administration went a step further. Its proposed budget for the Department of Education proposes a $40 million cut to the charter school program from $440 million to $400 million.

Now, Secretary Cardona was asked about this at today's hearing, and he explained: Well, the Fiscal Responsibility Act requires us to make budget cuts—so he decided to go after charter schools.

Mr. Speaker, that makes no sense whatsoever. The Department is asking for a significant increase in its budget this year, a $3.7 billion increase, so that its overall discretionary budget is $82.5 billion.

They are asking for a $3.7 billion funding increase while cutting funding for the charter school program by $40 million.

Mr. Speaker, I am in strong opposition to these cuts. I hope that this House will push back on them in a bipartisan manner because the reality is that charter schools across the country have made tremendous progress in closing achievement gaps and expanding the options that are available to parents.

In fact, a recent study out of Stanford validated the work that charter schools have done and the results that they have gotten in closing achievement gaps that have persisted in other parts of our public education system.

The reality is that there are far too many communities in this country, particularly in my State of California, where schools simply are not getting the job done. There are communities where the neighborhood school—that young people, that kids are assigned to—does not teach them to the read in the way that it should, does not teach them math in the way that it should, leaving them ill prepared for success in life.

In many of these communities you have charters like Kipp Academy and many others that have started up and have done things differently. These are charters that have had high expectations, that have made significant gains, that have gotten kids reading above grade level and outperforming their peers at other schools in math. These charters are putting them on a path of future opportunity and success in life, but that is exactly what this proposal from this administration is going to cut funding for.

It should also be noted that even in communities that have good public schools—like in my district, we have a number of truly outstanding traditional public schools—charter schools are still of value.

We have a number of terrific charter schools as well, and they might be right for some families but not for others.

The entire point is that not every student is the same, not every family is the same. By allowing a variety of options, some of which might have different focuses or a different approach to pedagogy or options that might offer immersion education or a focus on career technical education, this empowers parents to make the choice that is right for their child and their family.

I find it completely unacceptable that this administration is withdrawing support for charter schools.

I also find it unacceptable that my State of California has taken a number of steps in recent years to make it more difficult to start up, to operate, and to renew charter schools.

What we need to do is look to the success that many charters have had and to draw lessons that we can then use to improve public education across this country so that every child in America has access to a quality education as they deserve.

OPPOSING THE INCREASE IN THE GAS TAX

Mr. KILEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong opposition to a forthcoming increase in the gas tax in California. It almost defies belief, but California's gas tax is about to increase yet again, reaching $0.60 per gallon.

Now, the State already has the highest gas tax in the country and by far the highest gas prices. As of today, Californians pay $1.70 more per gallon for gas than the national average and $0.53 more per gallon than the next closest State.

I will say that again: We pay $0.53 more per gallon than the State with the second-highest gas prices. Even if you were actually to eliminate the entire gas tax in California, $0.60 per gallon, we would still have the second-highest gas prices in the entire country.

I am calling on Governor Newsom and the legislature to act to make sure that this gas tax increase does not go into effect.

Californians are already suffering under inflation and the price of groceries and the price of electricity as well, which is the second highest of any State in the country. The last thing they need is another increase to the gas tax.

I am calling on State lawmakers to stop this gas tax increase. As a matter of fact, what they should really do is suspend the gas tax entirely.

It wouldn't bring prices down to a reasonable level, but it would provide folks throughout our State with relief that they very much need.

RECOGNIZING SERGEANT MAJOR DOUGLAS POWER

Mr. KILEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to now recognize a few outstanding individuals and organizations within my district.

Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize retiring Sergeant Major Douglas Power for his distinguished service with the United States Marine Corps, most recently as the government and external affairs officer for the Marine Corps Mountain Warfare Training Center in Bridgeport, California.

Doug entered the Marine Corps Reserve in August 1980 and went on to graduate from boot camp and transfer to Active Duty in 1985.

After first transferring overseas in 1987, his deployments to various locations, including Korea, Kuwait, and Iraq, underscored his commitment to defending our country.

Throughout his more than three decades of military service, Sergeant Major Power displayed an unwavering dedication to service and leadership.

Deservingly, he was awarded multiple decorations and medals, demonstrating the legacy of honor and sacrifice that he established.

He retired from military service in 2012, at which time he began his new career as the government and external affairs officer at the training center.

After 12 years of faithful dedication to civic service and community engagement, he retired from that role this year, on April 30, 2024.

RECOGNIZING ALPINE WATERSHED GROUP

Mr. KILEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take a moment to recognize the Alpine Watershed Group for receiving the 2022 Forest Service Volunteers Program Citizen Stewardship and Partnerships Award.

The Alpine Watershed Group is a community-based nonprofit organization in my district that is dedicated to conducting essential water quality monitoring, habitat restoration, and education programs throughout Alpine County.

Over the span of more than two decades, the Alpine Watershed Group has been an instrumental partner to the Humboldt-Toiyabe National Forest and the United States Forest Service.

In 2022 alone, the Alpine Watershed Group planned and recruited for multiple volunteer events in the forest, including large watershed and forest restoration projects, trash and roadside cleanups, tree planting, and watershed monitoring.

Due to the help of their volunteers at the annual Creek Day event, 72 bags of trash were removed, amounting to more than 500 pounds; 25 bags of invasive weeds were removed; 102 willow stakes were installed; 600 feet of fence in Hope Valley were removed; and a beaver dam analogue in Faith Valley was constructed.

In addition to these efforts, the group provides continual outreach and environmental education programs that support the United States Forest Service's mission to care for the land and serve the people. Their devoted efforts have made an indelible impact on our national forests, local watersheds, and the Alpine County community.

Therefore, on behalf of the United States House of Representatives, I am honored to recognize the Alpine Watershed Group for this outstanding accomplishment and commend them for their significant contributions and dedication to promoting the sustainability of our Nation's natural resources.

CELEBRATING SOROPTIMIST INTERNATIONAL OF LOOMIS BASIN'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. KILEY. Mr. Speaker, I wish to mark and celebrate the 50-year anniversary of the Soroptimist International of Loomis Basin club.

Over the span of five decades, they have made a significant contribution in the Loomis community and Sacramento region by investing in the development of women of all ages and fostering a passion to make both our local and international communities a better place.

The Loomis chapter of Soroptimist International was founded 1974 with the mission to provide women and girls with the access to education and training they need to achieve economic empowerment.

In addition to hosting and participating in many local events, they provide scholarships and grants for women to improve their economic status while honing valuable skills to further their education and help with employment opportunities.

Their dedicated efforts have made a meaningful difference in the lives of women and girls, and it is an honor to represent exemplary organizations like the Soroptimist International of Loomis Basin here in Congress.

Therefore, on behalf of the United States House of Representatives, I am honored to recognize the Loomis Basin Soroptimists and their 50 years of dedication to the women of our community.
