

thinner bags from a different manufacturer, but her insurance said no. Medicare said no. She could not access the bag most effective for her medical needs. She even wondered if they were still manufactured.

Refusing to accept this painful decline in care, I personally intervened. I found the original thin, flexible bags available, but only online. I ordered a case for her, but this only solves the problem for so long. Eventually, supplies for the preferred bags will run out entirely, and Medicare is not paying attention.

There are thousands and thousands of people like her across this country. This raises a pressing question: If these superior products are available online, why can't they be accessed through the insurance of an American?

This woman is a Medicare recipient. It is imperative that our system supports her and all our seniors who need proper, safe medical care.

This incident underscores the broader issues of our healthcare supply chain. We depend too heavily on foreign manufacturing where these medical products now come from. This exposes our citizens to vulnerabilities in quality and supply. This not only compromises the care of our citizens but also our national preparedness and health security.

In Congress, I have been a staunch advocate for onshoring and reshoring domestic manufacturing, including that of medical products and pharmaceuticals. Why should our citizens be forced to accept inferior, foreign-made knock-offs? It is cruel and, frankly, un-American.

Relying on foreign sources for medical supplies is also stupid, dangerous, and poses a danger if supply is interrupted, as we learned from the pandemic. America must regain our national security by reducing reliance on foreign manufacturers, and we must stimulate our economy by creating high-skill, high-wage jobs and reliable medical products.

Initiatives like those undertaken the Biomedical Advanced Research and Development Authority, BARDA, and the Defense Procurement Act are not merely temporary solutions. Overall, our Nation must launch a sustained effort to strengthen our domestic manufacturing capabilities.

Congress must prioritize legislation to empower agencies like Medicare and private insurers to prioritize quality in their coverage policies. We need to ensure that no patient is forced to settle for inferior care due to bureaucratic oversight or inertia, supply chain vulnerabilities, or selfish private equity companies. Our Nation must reshore medical supplies.

Statistics reveal that the use of inferior medical products significantly increases patients' risk of infections and complications. For example, studies have shown that substandard surgical supplies can increase infection rates by 25 percent. This is unacceptable, and I say to those folks over at Medicare and Medicaid: Check out ileostomy bags. I bet the infection rates are really high.

As citizens become sicker—and lots more are, too—we continue to use inferior products. May the story I shared today serve as a manufacturing and medical call to action. We need a concerted effort to reclaim our independence in manufacturing critical health products and pharmaceuticals.

America must guarantee that every American has access to the best quality medical supplies and medicines without exception. The reputation and capability of our Nation surely depend on it.

COMPLETE APPROPRIATIONS BILLS

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, the 2025 Federal fiscal year is supposed to begin October 1, 2024, 20 days from today. Responsible Republicans and responsible Democrats are trying hard to complete the necessary 12 fiscal year 2025 appropriations bills on time as the deadline looms.

Our Nation needs regular order, not more delays, chaos, and goofy legislative tricks. Without reasonable action, uncertainty will prevail at the highest level of institutions on which our Nation depends for security and progress: Defense, Energy, Agriculture, Treasury, Transportation, infrastructure, healthcare, housing, Homeland Security, the Social Security Administration, and so many more, all jeopardized.

Delay jeopardizes funding America's promises to our veterans, our farmers, our first responders, and our teachers as basic functions of our government. All will be crippled across the board.

What hangs in the lurch is support for the American people, from kids in Head Start to wounded veterans trying to make appointments for their orthopedic exams.

Delay here in Congress cripples our economy. More needless shenanigans in Congress throw a monkey wrench into every Federal instrumentality created to serve the people of our Nation.

Mr. Speaker, let us ask certain Members of Congress who cannot compromise in this Nation that leads the free world: Why do you choose to be obstructionists? Follow the simple rules of orderly government, and get the appropriations bills done on time. Do your job.

Post-COVID, our economy has been improving consistently. Interest rates dropped again today. Jobs are increasing. Wall Street is doing well. Inflation is being reduced. Debt as a share of GDP—hello—is shrinking.

So why would a handful of discontented Members choose harm when a vast majority of people in this Chamber want to make progress for the country? We need steady hands on the wheel. Let us do what our constituents sent us here to do: Govern.

The ramifications of a poisoned, partisan appropriations bill will halt hiring of Border Patrol officers, prevent contracting for Army Corps of Engineers' dredging, close our parks, and stall emergency relief to communities devastated by recent natural disasters.

Mr. Speaker, I say to some of my friends who can't seem to reach compromise: Do you really realize what you are doing?

Here we are, on the brink of another lapse in funding caused by political brinkmanship and shortsighted partisan antics unworthy of this institution's responsibilities. This is a time for leadership, not mischief. This is a time for succeeding, not retreating. This is a time for unity, not division.

Let us do our work. Let us pass our appropriations bills on time and with dispatch.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

BORDER CRISES FROM SEPTEMBER 11 TO TODAY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 9, 2023, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Texas (Mr. ROY) for 30 minutes.

Mr. ROY. Mr. Speaker, as I come here to the floor tonight, we all recognize that today is September 11, a date that will never sound the same, a date that now means something totally different than it did prior to 2001.

We have seen the continued recognition of those lives lost. We saw it in New York today. We saw it in Pennsylvania. We saw it at the Pentagon. We saw the flag unfurled.

I give special recognition to my good friend, Senator Brian Birdwell, a State Senator from the State of Texas. A dear friend, Senator Birdwell was perhaps the individual closest to where the airplane hit the Pentagon in 2001, and he survived.

Senator Birdwell was burned across every part of his body. He was hauled out, taken to the hospital. He didn't think he was going to make it. He was praying. Assuming that he was leaving, he was saying good-bye to his family. He survived. He is a great patriot.

Mr. Speaker, if you have a chance, look up his video called "I Am Second." Senator Brian Birdwell tells the story—it is about 7 to 10 minutes, I think—and it is well worth your time.

It is a testament to his faith, and it is a testament to his patriotism. It is a testament to all those who went through those terrible attacks that day.

Those of us who remember them, we remember them personally, closely. We had friends who were affected, and it reminds us, of course, of what happens when we leave our country wide open for attack.

We look back at September 11, and we tend to get wrapped up in the horrors of the collapsing buildings, the horrors of a plane flying into the Pentagon, but we don't spend a whole lot of time talking about the fact that the individuals who carried out that attack overstayed visas to stay in our country because of our very broken system of border security.

Yes, "border security" I use broadly to include those individuals who we permit to come into our country and are released into our country on a visa or some other way, and they are in our country and then carry out harm.

We remember every year the almost 3,000 Americans who died in that southern part of Manhattan or in a field in Pennsylvania or in Arlington, Virginia, but where was the recognition today for the 75,000 Americans who died from fentanyl last year alone, 25 times the number of people who died on September 11? Where is the recognition of the thousands of persons who have been targeted by criminals released onto the streets of our country?

Just yesterday here in this complex, we had in the House Judiciary Committee the mothers of three Americans killed as a direct consequence of Vice President KAMALA HARRIS, President Joe Biden, Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas, their coordinated effort, their conspiracy to ignore the laws of the United States and put dangerous individuals on our streets that result in the deaths of Americans in real time as we speak.

Alexis Nungaray is a 27-year-old young Texas woman who chose life 12 years ago when her daughter was born, her daughter, Jocelyn, who was murdered. She was bound, raped, gagged, had her body thrown into a creek in Texas outside of Houston by two Venezuelan men who were released into our country in direct violation of our laws under parole on purpose.

Rachel Morin was murdered in Maryland. Her mother testified yesterday. Kayla Hamilton. We have had other stories like Laken Riley. There are dozens. There are hundreds. There are so many stories that I had my office produce a report that we put out last week titled: "America Invaded."

In that report, if you look at what is listed, you will find two full pages of 54 examples of Americans, headline stories, who have been killed, raped, assaulted, all of these, and that is just the tip of the iceberg. Where is the commemoration for those Americans?

In the wake of September 11, what did we do in all of our infinite wisdom? We created a 250,000-person bureaucracy at the Department of Homeland Security. We didn't used to have this massive bureaucracy. Now we do.

Has that made us any safer or more secure?

If you are watching this as an American, do you feel more secure?

If you are an American in Springfield, Ohio, do you feel more secure with 20,000 Haitians who have been dumped into your community?

Do you feel more secure if you are in Buffalo, New York, where just 2 weeks ago, a man was finally apprehended by ICE after having been released into Texas from Peru, and we now know that he is wanted for 23 murders in Peru. We released him into the United States.

Every one of these examples I am talking about were specifically the result of having individuals released into the United States from other countries who then carried out a vicious attack, a vicious crime, a vicious murder.

We had a witness yesterday testify to the rape and murder of a beautiful, little, 11-year-old girl. I think her name is Maria Gonzalez. If not, I will correct the RECORD, but I believe that is her name. She was killed, again, by someone who was released here into the United States who then preyed on her. Where is the commemoration?

I am going to be very blunt. I appreciate that we commemorate September 11 every September 11. That is a good thing to do. I have heard the bell now ringing for these 23 years.

Who is ringing the bell for Jocelyn Nungaray? This is a serious question.

KAMALA HARRIS was up where the World Trade Center once stood along with a bunch of other people, including former President Trump, current President Biden, former Mayor Bloomberg. Who was commemorating Jocelyn?

Will they be there next June—I think it was June—for the anniversary of her mother's pain when she woke up on Monday morning and her daughter wasn't in the house, and she ran down to the convenience store where there were police sirens and tape to find out that her little girl had been murdered? Who is commemorating that?

Who is paying attention to that? She is a devastated young mother.

Like September 11, where we failed, where we allowed visa overstays to stay in this country and then grab planes and fly into buildings, Jocelyn Nungaray is dead today because of KAMALA HARRIS and Joe Biden and radical, progressive Democrats who don't give a whit about whether your streets are safe, America.

Wake up. Wake up and know what the elections are about. Wake up and know what is happening in your country because your leaders in this country are failing you. Worse than failing you, they are purposefully endangering you. There is no other way to put it.

I am tired of listening to this garbage. Come up here to Washington. They say: Oh, why can't you just sit here and get along and go across to the other side of the aisle and shake hands and say: Why can't you guys just come together and solve problems? I will tell you why. I have done bipartisan bills. I have them right now, and I have friends on the other side of the aisle.

My colleagues on the other side of the aisle, almost to a man and a woman, don't give a damn about the borders being wide open because, if they did, they would do something about it. That is the truth.

We should start acting like that is the truth. We should stop pretending that we don't have such a wide gulf between that side of the aisle and this side of the aisle.

We have a choice right now. What world view are you choosing for your kids and your grandkids?

Again, continued tough love for my colleagues on this side of the aisle. For decades, we have been complicit by allowing the chamber of commerce to use cheap labor as their excuse for wide-open borders, which set the stage for what we are dealing with right now.

Well, those days are over. When all of the corporate whores around this town come begging for their tax breaks, I want them to come explain to the American people why we should do it when their boardrooms are chock full of radical, progressive Democrats and liberals who want ESG and want their quarterly reports to do well so their stock portfolios grow, and they come in here begging for tax cuts so they can get richer while America gets screwed.

If you are living in Springfield, Ohio, right now, you don't give a damn about the guys in the corporate boardroom over in New York City, in Manhattan, or maybe in the tall buildings in Cleveland. You don't care about how rich they are getting, but you care that there are now 20,000 Haitian migrants sitting in your community, that your grandfathers and your grandmothers and your moms and your dads worked hard to build and now is being trashed.

I could promise you, if you are like those young women who were testifying at the Judiciary Committee yesterday, who were migrants themselves—a young woman talking about her dad who came here from Mexico and fought and worked hard and didn't take government handouts. He said he was going to do it the right way and that the American Dream wasn't about being given something from government. Then he had to sit here and watch his granddaughter get murdered because of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, every single one of them, own it.

Every single one of them should march their happy rear ends down to Texas and beg for forgiveness. Beg for forgiveness from Alexis Nungaray and Alexis Nungaray's father because Jocelyn Nungaray got raped, bound, gagged, murdered, by the people released by Democrats in the White House.

Let's not pretend that there isn't a mile of difference between Republicans and Conservatives and Democrats and radical Progressives. There is a mile of difference.

I am not going to sit here and pretend, let's all get in a room and talk to each other nicely, pat each other on the back and say: Oh, man, can't we just have these halcyon days of old, have a beer like Tip O'Neill and Ronald Reagan?

Not if you don't believe in America. Not if you don't believe in sovereignty. Not if you don't believe in the rule of law. Not if you believe it is okay to release 5½ million people into our country, utterly disregarding how many criminals you are releasing and allowing Americans to get slaughtered.

Why don't you get in the car, drive up here to Aberdeen, Maryland, and talk to Kayla Hamilton or Rachel Morin's family.

Why don't you beg for forgiveness, get on your knees in the House Chamber and say: I am sorry that I was so focused on my own political well-being that I would endanger the American people, because that is what you are doing.

Finally, my colleagues on this side of the aisle, in getting H.R. 2 passed, has finally forsaken the chamber of commerce's death grip on the Republican Party saying: we need our cheap labor.

We haven't even scratched the surface.

We haven't even begun to do what is necessary to take our country back because, when President Trump talks about mass deportations, he means it. I mean it. I hope to hell Republicans on this side of the aisle mean it because 5½ million people dumped into the United States without vetting, without knowledge of who the hell they are. We have the House Judiciary Committee recognizing 99 people on the terrorist watch list released into the United States, and 35,000 Chinese nationals this year, and the year is not even over.

Who are these people?

I flew out to Aurora, Colorado, last week. I went to an apartment complex area, met with the people who were there, talked to one of the residents of the building, talked to the tenant who put a camera on her door; she is not lying. Yet, we have Colorado Democrats who are trying to say it is a lie that Venezuelan gangs are running those apartment complexes. They get on Twitter, and they say: Not true. It is a figment of their imagination.

That is why I flew to Aurora, talked to the woman. She walked me through the fact that the manager of the apartment complex isn't there anymore.

The manager of the apartment complex left and fled and feared for his life. For 2 months, there was no manager there. They put the cameras up. The cameras then showed what the entire world has now seen, which is armed thugs running around the apartment complex. We are told they smashed doors down, changed the locks on the building.

We had a businessman who was there who helped the woman move out and said he basically stepped into the Third World for a number of hours while he was helping her move out.

This is coming to every street in America. Wake up.

We play up here, playing Tiddley Winks, talking about CRs, and nobody even knows where the hell they are. We go around talking about all these different things. Let's get together and pass a resolution and a messaging thing this week.

What are we going to do to finally just say no?

You don't have to take this, you know?

We are supposed to be a free people. We are supposedly endowed by our creator with certain inalienable rights—life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We established this government in the very preamble of the Constitution.

What does it say? It lays out the purpose of the government being to secure the blessings of liberty. It is not to give crap away. As I have said before on the House floor, we are not supposed to be the United States House of free stuff. We are not the United States Congress here to give you a check. We are killing the American Dream.

Congress, the administration, are actively killing the American Dream in real time. We voted on another bill for another program that spends more money that we don't have. We rack up more debt. We increase the interest. At no point are we actually securing the country.

We have been at war for a quarter of a century in some form or fashion. I don't even know how many trillions: 8, 9? I have lost count on how many trillions we have spent engaged in conflict, directly in Iraq and Afghanistan, only to tuck tail and run when Biden and the current brass bailed and left those 13 heroes stranded to die.

How many trillions? How many American men and women were injured, lost their legs, lost an eye, PTSD: 80,000, 100,000, or more with PTSD?

How many suicides a day?

We have been at war for a quarter of a century.

In this town, we can't even fight for you, the American people, to actually secure you with a secure border, with secure communities, and with an economy that isn't blown to hell by irresponsible government spending.

Do you want to know why? In the false name of defense and in the false name of securing this country because the defense world tells me every year, if I don't vote for one of these bloated spending bills, we won't get a new submarine.

□ 1945

We won't get a new carrier. What the hell are we trying to defend? What is left of the United States to defend? A school where I can't send my child to pray to God without spending $20,000 a year on top of the taxes I pay. A school that my friend sends her sixth grader to with a trans music teacher asking her kid to do some dance in class. Yes, it is a true story.

Is that what we are defending with carriers and missiles and endless wars? Are we defending a country where Jocelyn Nungaray gets raped and murdered, or Rachel Morin gets raped and murdered because we release dangerous migrants into the streets of America?

Since I literally released this 40-page report last week, I can't even keep up with the news stories since we put it out.

In Virginia, just 30 miles from here, a teenage girl was abducted by a Peruvian illegal immigrant, arrested, who had been released into the interior by this administration. A Palestinian migrant accused of beating a Jewish New York man, released into America because he claimed he wouldn't be safe.

We had two of the people in Aurora, Colorado, where I said I went to that were apprehended by ICE after they had been released into the country, arrested, released on bond because we can't detain them because our entire policies have been turned on their head.

We sit here in September, and we have this grand debate about whether we are going to do a continuing resolution for 75 days or 6 months or a year. Will we include the SAVE Act to ensure that American citizens vote? Heaven forbid that we stand up and say, only American citizens should vote in American elections. It is an 80 percent issue.

We have legislation that would fix it. We had a hearing yesterday in which Secretaries of State, experts on the matter, all acknowledged you need the law to guarantee that only American citizens vote in American elections.

Now, we are having a debate about that. What can we put forward on the floor? With all due respect to some of my conservative colleagues that gag on an add. I can't support a CR because 12 appropriations bills must be passed. Okay. Five have been passed. Now, what?

We actually have to figure out how to proceed. I think maybe we could just fund the government for a few months and try to make sure elections are secure, or let's pick a different fight.

Why don't we actually stand up and do something to make this country better? If we do get a CR to December and if Republicans do win the elections in November, what the hell are we going to do with it? Will we fight? I would like to go to the American people over the next 60 days and say, yes, we are going to fight, and you can believe us this time.

I would like to say that Republicans will be bold enough to do what our Democratic colleagues have done repeated times in the last two decades, which is risk your precious, risk your election certificate.

Stop starting off every Congress saying, well, if we do this, we risk our majority makers. What good is it to be in Congress if you don't do something with your election certificate and then go sell it to the people you represent as being the right thing to do?

I have been in tight districts. I have done that. Every single constituent that I represent are fed up. They are fed up with a country that they no longer recognize. They love their country, but the government that they have entrusted to maintain that country, that their fathers and grandfathers fought, bled, and died for has been turned into something they no longer recognize.

I am glad that we have people today on September 11 commemorating those lost. I am glad that we show patriotism. I am glad that we put the flag on the Pentagon, but until we recognize that every single day because of our policies in this Chamber and in the other Chamber and at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue, Americans are suffering with high inflation, with houses that they can't afford, and with their own people getting murdered and slaughtered on the streets or in their homes.

I cannot imagine just 2 months ago, Alexis Nungaray waking up and her 12-year-old daughter not being in the house, only to find out she is dead after having been raped while the mom was sleeping in the house. This has all happened because KAMALA HARRIS and all of her cronies in the administration chose and still choose, as I speak, to release dangerous individuals on the streets of our country.

I am sure I am going to get some sort of admonition for directing some of my venom to the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue; but the fact is, the leaders of this country need to be warned. We better get busy fixing this country or the American people are not going to take it anymore, and I will be right there supporting them.

I am sick and tired of my colleagues on both sides of the aisle not showing up and not doing what we said we would do. I am particularly sick of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle daring to lie to the American people that they somehow believe in securing the border when they put forward legislation that would have codified the very parole policies that have, since they introduced the dang bill, been used to slaughter and kill innocent American citizens.

This is not a negotiation. You don't negotiate for your safety and your security. You just get busy doing it. I can promise you that whatever happens with this election, I am going to be a loud voice for the State of Texas to stick their middle finger up at this godforsaken city and say we are going to secure our State. All of the other people in all of the other States be damned because we have an obligation to do it.

When our people are dying and our people are hurting and we are spending $13 billion of our own money, where the hell is this Congress and this Senate backing up the people of Texas? When we joined this Union, we were promised something, and we are being denied it.

On behalf of every single one of those moms that come to my office in tears because their kids died from fentanyl or because their little girl was raped and murdered, and for every one of those tombstones that I drive by in Arlington coming to office every day, who either gave or risked the last full measure of devotion, they didn't do it for this. They didn't risk it for this.

They risked it to live free and secure and have opportunity in a country that is sovereign and safe. It is time for us to do our job, and it is time for the American people to do their job this fall and make sure that the right leaders are running this country.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

DRAWING ATTENTION TO THE PROPOSED FLORIDA STATE CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT 4

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 9, 2023, the Chair recognizes the gentleman from Florida (Mr. DUNN) for 30 minutes.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. DUNN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks and include extraneous material on the topic of this Special Order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Florida?

There was no objection.

Mr. DUNN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to draw attention to the proposed Florida State Constitution amendment No. 4.

Amendment 4 is a dangerous and ill-advised amendment that will make women and newborns less safe. Amendment 4 will overturn multiple State laws and regulations meant to protect the health and safety of women and children.

As a medical doctor, I know how dangerous abortion procedures can be. The Florida State legislature has wisely placed safeguards that protect the health and safety of women and babies in our State.

These include a requirement for a physician to perform the procedure, sanitation standards, and follow-up care requirements. None of these safeguards are included in amendment 4.

Additionally, the vague viability standard outlined in amendment 4 invites litigation and controversy, and I am personally opposed to it.

I have witnessed firsthand as medicine has evolved to allow babies born earlier and earlier in pregnancy to survive. If amendment 4 passes, babies who can survive outside the womb will be left unprotected.

In fact, I, myself, have performed a number of in utero surgeries on unborn babies as young as 18 weeks. These fragile lives are worth saving and modern medicine has made it possible.

I am unapologetically pro-life, and amendment 4 is a step in the wrong direction. This dangerous amendment will jeopardize the health and safety of women and babies across the State and lead to unsafe and even full-term abortions.

I will be voting "no" on amendment 4, and I urge all Floridians to oppose it. I also urge all Americans across the country to oppose similar ballot measures in their State.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

ENROLLED BILL SIGNED

Kevin F. McCumber, Clerk of the House, reported and found truly an enrolled bill of the House of the following title, which was thereupon signed by the Speaker:

H.R. 1076.—An act to require the Comptroller General of the United States to carry out a study on the trafficking into the United States of synthetic drugs, and related illicit finance, and for other purposes.

SENATE ENROLLED BILL SIGNED

The Speaker announced his signature to an enrolled bill of the Senate of the following title:

S. 1608.—An act to provide for the expansion of the Starr-Camargo Bridge near Rio Grande City, Texas, and for other purposes.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. DUNN of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do now adjourn.

The motion was agreed to; accordingly (at 7 o'clock and 56 minutes p.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until tomorrow, Thursday, September 12, 2024, at 9 a.m.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

Under clause 2 of rule XIV, executive communications were taken from the Speaker's table and referred as follows:

EC-5269. A letter from the Deputy Assistant Administrator, NMFS, Office of Sustainable Fisheries, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, transmitting the Administration's final rule — International Fisheries; Pacific Tuna Fisheries; Procedures for the Active and Inactive Vessel Register [Docket No.: 191203-0099] (RIN: 0648-BH48) received August 20, 2024, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 801(a)(1)(A); Public Law 104-121, Sec. 251; (110 Stat. 868); to the Committee on Natural Resources.

EC-5270. A letter from the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Regulatory Programs, NMFS, Office of Sustainable Fisheries, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, transmitting the Administration's final rule — Magnuson-Stevens Act Provisions; Fisheries Off West Coast States; Pacific Coast Groundfish Fishery; 2019-2020 Biennial Specifications and Management Measures [Docket No.: 180625576-8999-02] (RIN: 0648-BH93) received August 20, 2024, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 801(a)(1)(A); Public Law 104-121, Sec. 251; (110 Stat. 868); to the Committee on Natural Resources.

EC-5271. A letter from the Deputy Assistant Administrator, NMFS, Office of Sustainable Fisheries, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, transmitting the Administration's temporary rule — Fisheries of the Northeastern United States; Atlantic Bluefish Fishery; Interim 2020 Recreational Measures [Docket No.: 200214-0057] (RIN: 0648-BJ57) received August 20, 2024, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 801(a)(1)(A); Public Law 104-121, Sec. 251; (110 Stat. 868); to the Committee on Natural Resources.

EC-5272. A letter from the Deputy Assistant Administrator for Regulatory Programs, NMFS, Office of Sustainable Fisheries, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, transmitting the Administration's final rule — Fisheries of the Northeastern United States; Recreational Management Measures
