

90TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CITY OF TUPELO PURCHASING POWER FROM TVA

• Mr. WICKER. Mr. President, 90 years ago this month, Tupelo, MS, went electric. The city became the first to purchase power from the Tennessee Valley Authority—TVA—sparking nearly a century-long partnership. We celebrate that distinction with an iconic sign at the intersection of Gloster and Main streets, which dubs Tupelo the First T-V-A City.

In 1934, just 2 percent of rural Mississippi households were connected to electricity. Many Southern farming families had already lived in poverty before the Great Depression made their situation even worse. Congress created TVA to begin addressing these challenges. The TVA mission was to provide low-cost electricity, promote economic development, and reduce flood risk and damage.

Tupelo is a testament to TVA's success accomplishing that mission. As a resident of the First TVA City, I look back on February 1934 with gratitude. Electricity helped unleash the latent potential of rural Mississippi, and we continue to reap the rewards today.●
