RECOGNIZING HAWKEYE FABRICATION AND HI-WAY PRODUCTS, INC.

• Ms. ERNST. Mr. President, as ranking member of the Senate Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship, each week I recognize an outstanding Iowa small business that exemplifies the American entrepreneurial spirit. This week, it is my privilege to recognize Hawkeye Fabrication and Hi-Way Products of Ida Grove, IA, as the Senate Small Business of the Week.

In 1969, Richard Bogue founded Hi-Way Products in Ida Grove as an aluminum fabricator for bridge handrails. Before starting Hi-Way Products, Richard served in the U.S. Navy Air Corps during World War II. Following the war, he graduated from the University of Iowa in 1950 with a civil engineering degree. Hi-Way Products found a niche in the fabrication industry by producing highway safety products. In 1999, Richard's son Mark, a 1982 graduate of the University of Iowa, founded the aptly named Hawkeye Fabrication with his father's help. Today, Hawkeye Fabrication serves as the fabrication side of the Bogue family business, while Hi-Way Products handles the sales. Mark Bogue serves as the owner leading the companies, and Jaclyn is the controller. Hawkeye Fabrication and Hi-Way Products have remained a family business, with the third generation of the Bogue family currently working there alongside their parents Mark and Jaclyn. Richard Bogue passed away in 2013, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, service, and dedication to his family and community.

An essential aspect of the Hawkeye Fabrication and Hi-Way Products story is the relationship between the Bogue family and the University of Iowa. Richard Bogue met his wife Alice at the University of Iowa, and their three children Linda, Suzie, and Mark attended the University of Iowa in the 1970s and 1980s. Mark's sons Jared and Alexander, who currently work at Hi-Way Products and Hawkeye Fabrication, attended the University of Iowa in the 2010s with their sister Taylor. In 2021, the Bogue family won the Iowa Family Spirit Award for their generational dedication to the University of Iowa. In 2013, the University of Iowa profiled Mark Bogue as a Hometown Hawkeye At-A-Glance for his work at Hi-Way Products and Hawkeye Fabrication and in the University of Iowa community. Additionally, Mark serves on the University of Iowa College of Engineering Advisory Board.

In addition to their involvement at the University of Iowa, the Hawkeye

Fabrication and Hi-Way Products team is active in the Ida Grove community. Mark Bogue has served on the Ida Grove volunteer fire department and spent 8 years on the community school board. Jared Bogue currently serves on the Ida Grove city council. In 2003, Richard and Alice Bogue created a scholarship that the Bogue family continues to support to help Ida Grove students pursue an education in engineering.

I want to commend the Bogue family for their hard work and incredible commitment to the Ida Grove community, the University of Iowa, and their small business as they continue to achieve the American dream. Congratulations to the Bogue family and the entire team at Hawkeye Fabrication and Hi-Way Products. I look forward to seeing your continued growth and success in Iowa.●

RECOGNIZING BERT'S BIG ADVENTURE

• Mr. OSSOFF. Mr. President, I rise to commend an Atlanta, GA, nonprofit organization for its two decades of service to Georgia and the country.

Founded in 2002, Bert's Big Adventure provides an all-expenses-paid, 5-day journey to Walt Disney World for children with chronic and terminal illnesses and their families. In 2003, the organization took seven children with chronic and terminal illnesses and their families on the journey of a lifetime to Walt Disney World for the inaugural trip. Since then, Bert's Big Adventure has taken nearly 260 children and their families on a magical vacation.

Following the annual trip, Bert's Big Adventure provides year-round support to children and their families through initiatives such as the Family Reunion Adventures, the Fairy Godparent volunteer program, and additional charitable services. Bert's Big Adventure gives children battling illness and their families a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and helps create lasting memories.

As Georgia's U.S. Senator, I commend the Bert's Big Adventure team for its two decades of valiant service and commitment to giving back to those in need.●
