

Catholics with a place of worship without the burden of traveling to Meyersville, Texas each Sunday. It began under the leadership of its first resident pastor, Rev. V.L. Mancini, S.J. The church was built on a foundation of faith and dedication—values that continue to flourish today under the guidance of Father Jacob Mendoza.

Two years later, in 1877, St Michael's Catholic School opened in the church's rear building, serving nearly 110 students annually and offering an education rooted in the power of God. These two institutions have long stood as backbones of the community. Beside them, the historic bell tower—completed in 1902—also remains a cherished landmark in Cuero. Together, they all remain a lasting symbol of the strong spirit of the Cuero community.

This 150th anniversary milestone reflects the enduring faith of St. Michael's parishioners and the church's lasting impact on the Cuero community. From holding food drives to yearly festivities—this congregation shows the power and true testament of God's faithfulness.

May God continue to bless St. Michael's, its parishioners, and the entire Cuero community for generations to come.

HONORING THE BOROUGH OF CHESILHURST, NEW JERSEY HOMETOWN HERO: RANDY DAVIS

HON. DONALD NORCROSS

OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 24, 2025

Mr. NORCROSS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and commend Randy Davis. Randy Davis was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at Temple University Hospital on February 13, 1966. He was raised in the Borough of Chesilhurst for the first 15 years of his life before he and his family made the move to West Atco, New Jersey in the early 1980's. Randy continued and completed his high school education in West Atco, New Jersey where he graduated in the Class of 1984.

Following his graduation from High School, Randy Davis heeded the call to serve and enlisted in the United States Army in 1985. He was sent to Fort Leavenworth in Kansas where he completed his basic training prior to being stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky. While in the service he was trained as a Tanks Specialist. At the time of his enlistment, Operation Desert Storm was in full effect and members of his unit with prior training were deployed overseas. During the operation, Randy served as a member of the 144th Supply Command out of Hammonton, New Jersey where he proudly worked to help supply his fellow servicemen and women fighting overseas.

Randy Davis proudly served in the United States Army for seven years before he was honorably discharged in 1992. After his active-duty service, he returned to the Borough of Chesilhurst, New Jersey where he built his civilian life for nearly another 15 years prior to moving to Pine Hill. Throughout his career, Randy spent 11 years as a bricklayer before working as an employee at Trump World's Fair at Trump Plaza in Atlantic City, New Jersey for another 11 years.

Today, Mr. Davis continues to serve his community. Inspired by a tradition that began with his mother while he was still a child,

Randy Davis works with a group of community members to put together an annual family and friends reunion that is free and open to all. An event where he provides food, music, movies and musical performances for members of the community and their children. When he was a child he recalled members of the community coming to his yard during barbeques where they would say "hello" and sit down to eat. Mr. Davis tries each year to preserve that tradition and sense of community within the Borough.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you to join me in honoring and commending Randy Davis of the Borough of Chesilhurst, New Jersey, a resident dedicated to his community, family and country, who has thoroughly served them to the best of his ability.

SENATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS

Title IV of Senate Resolution 4, agreed to by the Senate of February 4, 1977, calls for establishment of a system for a computerized schedule of all meetings and hearings of Senate committees, subcommittees, joint committees, and committees of conference. This title requires all such committees to notify the Office of the Senate Daily Digest—designated by the Rules Committee—of the time, place and purpose of the meetings, when scheduled and any cancellations or changes in the meetings as they occur.

As an additional procedure along with the computerization of this information, the Office of the Senate Daily Digest will prepare this information for printing in the Extensions of Remarks section of the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD on Monday and Wednesday of each week.

Meetings scheduled for Tuesday, March 25, 2025 may be found in the Daily Digest of today's RECORD.
