

noncitizens to vote in local elections. I have serious concerns with allowing noncitizens who do not hold a green card to vote in local elections, but this is the wrong way to go about addressing that. I voted present because I can't support repealing a local D.C. law, but I do support having a conversation about how we define voter eligibility nationwide.

I voted No on H.R. 2096, the Protecting Our Nation's Capital Emergency Act, because it would repeal part of a local D.C. law to give the police department increased authority to address incidents of serious misconduct and discipline officers. I voted No on H.R. 2056 because we shouldn't be nullifying a local law to tell an individual police department where they must divert their resources and how they can best serve their community, including residents who are immigrants.

Mr. Speaker, I respect the will of D.C. residents to shape their local government through their local elections, and that is why I do not support H.R. 2096, H.R. 2056 or H.R. 884.

RECOGNIZING ZACHARY LADUKE

HON. GUS M. BILIRAKIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 2025

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, it is a privilege to rise today to recognize Mr. Zachary LaDuke for his service at Withlacoochee River Electric Cooperative (WREC) and his remarkable role in the Light Up Navajo Project. In May, a courageous team of 16 WREC employees traveled over 1,800 miles to the remote, rugged terrains of Arizona and New Mexico, where they spent two weeks installing vital electrical infrastructure for Navajo families who have lived without power for generations. Their efforts brought light, safety, and hope to communities long overlooked, allowing children to study after dark, families to preserve food, and elders to live with greater comfort. Despite daunting challenges and limited equipment, the WREC team completed a demanding project in just eight days—far ahead of expectations—demonstrating professionalism, humility, and unwavering commitment to this life-changing mission.

The impact of WREC's work goes far beyond electricity; it represents a bridge to connection, opportunity, and the return of future generations to their ancestral homes. The emotional moment when power was turned on for the impacted families—bringing tears of joy and renewed hope—is a testament to the profound difference this project made. WREC's participation in the "Light Up Navajo" initiative reflects not only their technical expertise but also their heart and respect for the people they serve. Their dedication has energized ten homesteads and countless lives, creating a legacy of service that embodies the true spirit of cooperative values. CELEBRATING THE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE AQUARIUM OF NIAGARA

HON. TIMOTHY M. KENNEDY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 2025

Mr. KENNEDY of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to celebrate six decades of the Aquarium of Niagara. An interactive water exhibit that celebrates the natural wonders of our aquatic world and provides a deeper educational understanding of our diverse ecosystems, the Aquarium is a gem of Western New York's cultural and educational institutions.

The Aquarium of Niagara was one of the first of its kind. Founded in 1965 by a small group of chemists and scientists, it served as a successful model for inland aquariums around the world. Upon its opening, it became the first inland aquarium to develop and use artificial seawater to maintain exhibits; this sparked a revolutionary practice now used in most inland aquariums.

Located in Niagara Falls, New York, the Aquarium of Niagara welcomes over 200,000 visitors each year and is the only aquatic museum within 250 miles of the United States. They serve as a hub for educating the community on aquatic life, consisting of two buildings and housing 180 species. Visitors come to see an array of mammals, penguins, and more than 1,200 fish and vertebrae, many of those being rescued species. Additionally, they provide guests with visual experiences to explore all of their marine life exhibits. There is a variety of scheduled programming offered daily as well as hands-on experiences that create inspiring opportunities for visitors.

Today, we honor one of Western New York's one-of-a-kind establishments and its commitment to bringing the wonders of the seas to visitors from around the world while providing the highest quality of animal care possible. Please join me in celebrating the 60th anniversary of the Aquarium of Niagara and their achievements and continued success as they remain an enduring source of connection to marine life for generations to come.

HONORING SABRA RAYMER AS A DISTINGUISHED LEADER IN CENTRAL FLORIDA DURING LGBTQ+ PRIDE MONTH

HON. DARREN SOTO

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 2025

Mr. SOTO. Mr. Speaker, Sabra Raymer is a firefighter paramedic with over six years of experience in emergency response, known for her humility, resilience, and deep commitment to serving others. Like anyone else, she is navigating life's challenges while striving to leave the world better than she found it. She doesn't seek recognition for titles or accolades but takes pride in being someone who will extend a hand when others are down, bring calm to chaos, and offer comfort during life's hardest moments.

Raised with strong values of integrity, respect, and love, Sabra credits her parents for shaping her character and purpose. Her journey hasn't been easy—she put herself through school, experienced personal lows, and worked relentlessly to rebuild and rise. She knows that life will test you, but believes that anything can be overcome with heart and determination.

Her dedication has been recognized with a Community Service Award in March 2021, a Letter of Commendation in August 2021, and her courageous role in Hurricane Ian water rescue operations, for which she received a Campaign Ribbon in February 2024.

With a heart for advocacy and inclusion, Sabra also helped design and launch Pride shirts for her county, raising awareness and fostering a culture of belonging within the department. Through this initiative, she helped raise over $900 for the Zebra Youth Foundation, supporting LGBTQ+ youth in Central Florida.

Now in the process of becoming a peer support advocate, Sabra is especially passionate about mental health awareness in the fire service—an industry that can sometimes make individuals feel invisible or out of place. With the support of her County and community allies, she proudly stands up for those who need to feel seen, supported, and valued. She continues to serve not only as a first responder but as a voice, a helper, and a source of strength for those in need.
