NOT VOTING—52

□ 1850

Mrs. HARSHBARGER changed her vote from “yea” to “nay.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. SUBRAMANYAM. Madam Speaker, I regret that I was not present to vote on Roll Call No. 115. Had I been present, I would have voted YEA on Roll Call No. 115.

MOBILIZING AND ENHANCING GEORGIA'S OPTIONS FOR BUILD- ING ACCOUNTABILITY, RESIL- IENCE, AND INDEPENDENCE ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 36) to counter the influence of the Chinese Communist Party, the Iranian Regime, and the Russian Federation in the nation of Georgia, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Florida (Mr. MAST) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

This will be a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 349, nays 42, not voting 42, as follows:

[Roll No. 116]

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining.

□ 1856

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. LALOTA. Madam Speaker, I regret to have missed these votes. Had I been present, I would have voted YEA on Roll Call No. 115 and YEA on Roll Call No. 116.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. Madam Speaker, my apologies for not voting in person today. My flight was delayed. Had I been present, I would have voted YEA on Roll Call No. 115, H.R. 530, and YEA on Roll Call No. 116, H.R. 36.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, my flight was delayed at both ends. Had I been present, I would have voted YEA on Roll Call No. 115 and YEA on Roll Call No. 116.

MOMENT OF SILENCE IN REMEMBRANCE OF EL CAMARON GIGANTE VICTIMS

(Ms. ANSARI asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. ANSARI. Mr. Speaker, a tragic incident occurred last night in my district outside the El Camaron Gigante restaurant in Glendale. A senseless act of violence took the lives of three people, injured five others, and shattered our community.

I am heartbroken to say that my district has once again been touched by gun violence as far, far too many have.

No one should be unsafe in this country eating in a restaurant or celebrating a holiday like Cinco de Mayo with friends and family.

Mr. Speaker, in memory of the innocent victims of this tragedy, their families, and the entire community, I would ask for everyone present in the Chamber to please rise for a moment of silence.

IN RECOGNITION OF NATIONAL ASTRONAUT DAY

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize National Astronaut Day.

It was 64 years ago today when a brave American, Commander Alan B. Shepard, sat in the cockpit of the Mercury rocket ready to face the unknown. With three simple words, "light this candle," he launched into the vast expanse of space, becoming the first American to break the bounds of Earth.

His spacecraft, Freedom 7, was a tribute to the seven Project Mercury astronauts and to one of our Nation's founding principles: freedom.

That mission marked not just a milestone in science, but a defining moment of national pride in American leadership.

Just 8 years later, Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin planted the Stars and Stripes on the Moon.

When we think of the astronauts, we often picture rocket launches, moonwalks, and zero gravity. Yet, what we don't always see is the years of rigorous training, the risks they accept, and the teamwork behind every mission.

Mr. Speaker, on National Astronaut Day, we honor the pioneers who have blazed a trail into the final frontier. They remind us that boundaries are meant to be pushed and discovery is a never-ending journey.

TIME TO FOCUS ON COSTS

(Ms. BYNUM asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. BYNUM. Mr. Speaker, today is the 122nd day of the 119th Congress. It has been 122 days since I began the fight in Congress for lower costs, more jobs, and a better quality of life for Oregonians.

Unfortunately, I have yet to have the opportunity to vote on a single meaningful bill that would help achieve those goals. Grocery prices are still increasing, housing isn't getting more affordable, and it is getting harder for families to make ends meet.

Yet, we are voting this week on the Gulf of America Act, a bill that does nothing to lower costs. It has been the same story week after week. That is why I led my freshman colleagues in telling Speaker JOHNSON that we are fed up and that it is time to work on costs.

I will keep sounding the alarm until we start helping the American people.

Mr. Speaker, it is time for us to get serious.

IN RECOGNITION OF WARREN BRINSON

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an extraordinary young man, Warren Brinson, whose journey from Savannah, Georgia, to the NFL has inspired us all.

Warren is not only a proud Savannah native but also a true champion. He was proudly a key part of the University of Georgia's back-to-back national championship teams.

This year, Warren made us proud again by being drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round. On the field, his strength, discipline, and determination make him a powerful force, but off the field is where Warren's character truly shines.

Through the Warren Brinson Foundation, he has made a lasting difference. His back-to-school giveaways help local students feel prepared and confident when school starts in the fall. He uplifts families each year through Thanksgiving turkey giveaways and Christmas toy drives. His youth football camp provides kids with mentorship, encouragement, and a vision for a brighter future.

Mr. Speaker, Warren Brinson is more than an athlete. He is a servant leader, a mentor, and a hero to our district. He reminds us that genuine success involves giving back to others.

EXPRESSION OF OUTRAGE ON NATIONAL DAY OF AWARENESS FOR MISSING AND MURDERED INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND GIRLS

(Mr. STANTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STANTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise on the National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls to express my outrage over more broken promises.

In my home State of Arizona, we are mourning the death of 14-year-old Emily Pike, a member of the San Carlos Apache Tribe. Emily disappeared from Mesa earlier this year and was
