

□ 1856

Messrs. KHANNA, FROST, SWALWELL, and Ms. MCCOLLUM changed their vote from “nay” to “yea.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Stated for:

Mr. CISCOMANI. Mr. Speaker, had I been present, I would have voted YEA on Roll Call No. 191.

CONSUMER SAFETY TECHNOLOGY ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill (H.R. 1770) to direct the Consumer Product Safety Commission to establish a pilot program to explore the use of artificial intelligence in support of the mission of the Commission and to direct the Secretary of Commerce and the Federal Trade Commission to study and report on the use of blockchain technology and tokens, respectively, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. LATTA) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill.

This is a 5-minute vote.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 336, nays 36, not voting 59, as follows:

MOMENT OF SILENCE HONORING LIVES LOST IN RUIDOSO FLOOD

(Ms. STANSBURY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. STANSBURY. Mr. Speaker, I rise with a heavy heart and tears in my eyes to honor the three lives lost this week in the catastrophic floods in Ruidoso, New Mexico, including two young children visiting Ruidoso from El Paso. Their father, an airman from Fort Bliss, remains in critical condition. The third, Benjamin Feagin, dreamed of retiring in the forests above Ruidoso.

We grieve in solidarity with Ruidoso and with the communities in central Texas that have been hit by these devastating floods. Today, we hold them in our hearts, in our minds, and in our prayers and stand ready to support our communities as they rebuild and recover.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. VASQUEZ).

Mr. VASQUEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of the first responders and the families who lost their loved ones during historic and tragic flooding that happened in the community of Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Words cannot express the tragic loss that this community and the families are undergoing. I ask that we keep in our prayers Ruidoso, New Mexico, and the families of those who have been lost, and that this Federal Government, along with our delegation, helps to recover what was lost.

Ms. STANSBURY. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentlewoman from Texas (Ms. ESCOBAR).

Ms. ESCOBAR. Mr. Speaker, I am grateful to join my colleagues as we mourn the loss of life in Ruidoso, specifically El Pasoans Stephanie and Sebastian Trotter, who took their two children on vacation for some time away during the holiday. Their children were caught up in the flood before they knew it.

Sebastian Rowan, 7 years old; Charlotte Emery, 4 years old; and their beloved dogs, Zeus and Ellie, lost their lives in the flood.

The El Paso and Fort Bliss family grieves for them and grieves alongside everyone in Ruidoso. We keep them in our prayers.

Ms. STANSBURY. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Ms. LEGER FERNANDEZ).

Ms. LEGER FERNANDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I ask for everybody's prayers, love, and "blessings"; "bendiciones." I ask for a moment of silence.

RECOGNIZING BEN CHAPMAN

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)
