

All Members will rise and the Representative-elect will please raise his right hand.

Mr. WALKINSHAW appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter, so help you God.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations, you are now a Member of the 119th Congress.

WELCOMING THE HONORABLE JAMES WALKINSHAW TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. SCOTT of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today as dean of the Virginia congressional delegation to introduce and welcome to Congress the newest Representative from the Commonwealth of Virginia, JAMES WALKINSHAW.

JAMES was born in Northern Virginia, the very region of the Commonwealth that he will now represent in Congress. He graduated from New York University with a degree in politics. He then returned home and got involved in his local community. He managed our dear friend Gerry Connolly's 2007 campaign for chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, and a year later he managed Gerry's successful campaign for Congress.

While a new Member, JAMES is no stranger to Congress. After Gerry's election to Congress, JAMES went on to serve as his chief of staff for over a decade, where he worked closely with many of us and our staffs. JAMES consistently fought alongside Gerry for the people of Virginia's 11th Congressional District.

In 2019, he followed in his political mentor and boss' footsteps and was elected to serve on the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, representing the Braddock district, where he has continued to be a powerful advocate for his community.

He resides in Fairfax County with his wife, Yvette, and his son, Mateo. With his victory in this week's special election, I know he will make an outstanding addition to our delegation and this Chamber with his steadfast commitment to the 11th Congressional District of Virginia, fighting to have their voices heard in this body.

Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to now yield to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. WALKINSHAW).

Mr. WALKINSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise with profound gratitude and humility as I begin my service on behalf of Virginia's 11th District.

As a lifelong Northern Virginian, I am honored by the trust my community has placed in me. I am deeply grateful to my wife, Yvette, and our son, Mateo, whose love and patience sustain me. This moment belongs to them as much as it does to me.

I am also honored to follow in the footsteps of my dear friend and mentor, Congressman Gerry Connolly, a singular figure in Virginia and in this body, who showed us what principled leadership looks like. His legacy will guide me every day.

With that gratitude, Mr. Speaker, comes responsibility to speak honestly about the challenges my community faces. In Virginia, we are on the leading edge of President Trump's economy. In my district, everyone knows someone who has lost their job due to the agenda coming from the White House and too often from this Chamber. If we do not change course, what is true in Northern Virginia today will soon be true in every district in this Nation. Families everywhere will know someone who has lost their job because of the DOGE cuts, the tariffs, the budget bill, or our failure to address the rising costs on everything from groceries to rent to prescription drugs.

This week, Mr. Speaker, the people of Virginia sent a clear message: They want pragmatic solutions. They want a government that works for everyone. They want us to tackle the high cost of living, housing, and health care, to confront climate change, to honor the public servants, our Federal employees, who keep our government running.

Mr. Speaker, I am humbled by the trust my constituents have placed in me. I will carry their hopes and their voices into this Chamber every day. I will never forget where I came from, and I will never stop working for a government that reflects the best of who we are. Together, Mr. Speaker, I believe we can build that future.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. Under clause 5(d) of rule XX, the Chair announces to the House that, in light of the administration of the oath of office to the gentleman from Virginia, the whole number of the House is 432.
