“(2) ADDITIONAL FUNDS.—In addition to amounts allocated under subparagraph (A) for the purpose of making grants under subsection (s)(4), the Director may use amounts otherwise appropriated to carry out this section for such purpose.

“(u) ADDITIONAL JUDICIARY PROSECUTORIAL RESOURCES.—

“(1) TEMPORARY REASSIGNMENT OF ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS.—

“(A) AUTHORITY.—The Attorney General may identify assistant United States attorneys who may be made available for temporary reassignment under subsection (b)(2) for a period of time determined by the Attorney General in coordination with the Director, during which an assistant United States attorney shall prioritize the investigation and prosecution of organizations and individuals trafficking in fentanyl or fentanyl analogues.

“(B) EXTENSION OF REASSIGNMENT.—Such reassignment may be extended by the Attorney General for such time as may be necessary to conclude any ongoing investigation or prosecution in which the assistant United States attorney is engaged.

“(2) PROCESS FOR TEMPORARY REASSIGNMENT.—The Attorney General may establish a process under which the Director, in consultation with the Executive Boards of each designated high intensity drug trafficking area, may request such an assistant United States attorney to be so temporarily reassigned.

“(v) USE OF FUNDS TO COMBAT FENTANYL TRAFFICKING.—

“(1) REQUIREMENT.—As part of the documentation that supports the President’s annual budget request for the Office, the Director shall submit to Congress a report describing the use of HIDTA funds for the purposes of enhancing fentanyl seizure and interdiction activities under subsection (s)(4) or (t) and to investigate and prosecute organizations and individuals trafficking in fentanyl or fentanyl analogues in the prior calendar year.

“(2) CONTENTS.—The report shall include—

“(A) the amounts of fentanyl or fentanyl analogues seized by HIDTA-funded initiatives in the area during the previous year; and

“(B) law enforcement intelligence and predictive data from the Drug Enforcement Administration showing patterns and trends in abuse, trafficking, and transportation in fentanyl and fentanyl analogues.

“(W) PROTECTION FROM UNREASONABLE SEARCH AND SEIZURE.—Any program or activity that receives funds made available under this section shall be conducted in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

“(X) REPORT ON DATA ANALYTICAL SERVICES PROGRAM.—

“(1) REPORT.—With respect to the Data Analytical Services program (formally known as Hemisphere), and any successor program, the Director shall submit to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform and the Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate, a report every 2 years on any activities of the program—

“(A) funded by the Office; and

“(B) carried out in 2 years prior to the submission of the report.

“(2) CONTENTS OF REPORT.—The report required by paragraph (1) shall include the following:

“(A) A documentation of any activities of the Data Analytical Services program, including—

“(i) the amount of searches conducted for each HIDTA; and “(ii) each requesting local law enforcement jurisdiction.

“(B) Information on how the program was funded and how funds were expended under the program, including information on any—

“(i) funding sources derived from each HIDTA's funding allocation for a HIDTA, or any other source of funding, for the program; and “(ii) payments made by the program to any non-governmental entity or external vendor.

“(C) A description of any policies and guidelines provided to HIDTA personnel and local law enforcement jurisdictions governing the operation of the program in order to ensure that such program does not infringe on rights protected under the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States or violate legally protected privacy of United States citizens or individuals legally in the United States, along with any recommendations by the Director to strengthen such policies and guidelines.”;

(1) AMENDMENT.—The Office of National Drug Control Policy Reauthorization Act of 2006 (Public Law 109-469; 120 Stat. 3502) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“SEC. 1121. REQUIREMENT FOR LIFE SAVING OPIOID OVERDOSE REVERSAL STUDY.

“(a) FINDING.—Congress finds that it is vital to support access to treatment and emergency intervention tools to address drug addiction while also pursuing strategies to ensure communities have readily available access to life-saving drug overdose reversal medications, including opioid antagonists or reversal agents, such as naloxone, in case of an emergency.

“(b) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this section, the Director of the Office of National Drug Control Policy shall submit to Congress a report that contains the following:

“(1) A summary of the relevant roles, responsibilities, and authorities of each relevant National Drug Control Program agency to ensure that life-saving drug overdose reversal medications are readily available in case of an emergency, including life-saving opioid antagonists or reversal agents, such as naloxone, across the United States.

“(2) A strategy for the Federal Government to ensure that State, local, and Tribal governments, and agencies thereof including law enforcement and public health and safety entities, have life-saving drug overdose reversal medications readily available in case of an emergency, including life-saving opioid antagonists or reversal agents, such as naloxone, which at a minimum identifies—

“(A) any Federal and State policies and actions necessary for the relevant National Drug Control Program agencies to take to address—

“(i) the challenges faced by pharmacists, prescription drug providers, dispensers (including manufacturers, distributors, and retailers), and other health care providers, to make such medications readily available to patients over the counter for emergency use;

“(ii) the challenges faced by pharmacists, health care providers, and State health officials to educate the public on the risks and benefits of such medications, including how to effectively use such medications; and

“(iii) the appropriate training of State and local health care providers and first responders on the use of such medications; and

“(B) identifies any budgetary resources, personnel resources, licensing requirements, and legal authorities that relevant National Drug Control Program agencies need to enable the availability of such life-saving emergency drug overdose medications.

“(3) A summary of policies in effect before the submission of the report that are administered by—

“(A) the Director of the Office of National Drug Control Policy;

“(B) the Secretary of Health and Human Services; and

“(C) each National Drug Control Program agency, as applicable.

“(4) A summary of the specific actions taken over the previous 10 years before the submission of the report by the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration and the Drug Enforcement Administration to coordinate with one another and with State health agencies to ensure that—

“(A) such treatments, including medications, are accessible to the public; and

“(B) appropriate public education on the use of, and the risks and benefits of, such treatments, including medications, are readily available.

“(c) UPDATES.—Any significant update made to the strategy included in the report required by subsection (b) after such report is submitted shall be included in the next National Drug Control Strategy submitted to Congress after such update is made.”.

(2) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of contents in section 1(c)
