SUBMITTED RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION 295—SUPPORTING THE DESIGNATION OF THE WEEK OF JUNE 23 THROUGH JUNE 29, 2025, AS “NATIONAL WOMEN’S SPORTS WEEK” TO CELEBRATE THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE ENACTMENT OF TITLE IX OF THE EDUCATION AMENDMENTS OF 1972 AND THE GROWTH OF WOMEN’S SPORTS

Ms. ERNST (for herself, Mr. CRAMER, Mr. LANKFORD, Mr. TUBERVILLE, Mr. RISCH, Mr. CRAPO, Mrs. BRITT, Mrs. HYDE-SMITH, and Mr. HAWLEY) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation:

S. RES. 295

Whereas title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.) (referred to in this preamble as “Title IX”) was enacted on June 23, 1972, to end unjust sex discrimination in education, including in athletics;

Whereas Title IX transformed sports by guaranteeing women and girls the right to equal athletic opportunities;

Whereas the purposes and benefits of Title IX are negated for women whenever men claiming to be women are granted access to female sports;

Whereas Title IX has resulted in a 545 percent increase in the percentage of women playing college sports and a 990 percent increase in the percentage of women playing high school sports;

Whereas athletic participation helps women and girls develop confidence, initiative, and leadership skills;

Whereas policies allowing for the inclusion of men in women’s sports have no basis in biological fact or valid medical research;

Whereas providing equal athletic opportunities in sports to women is impossible without single-sex teams and competitions reserved exclusively for female athletes;

Whereas, without separate single-sex teams and competitions based on biological sex for men and women, men will dominate competitive sports where size, strength, and speed are factors, depriving female athletes of athletic and academic opportunities;

Whereas the biological differences between men and women have led to women being injured by men competing in women’s sports;

Whereas, since 2017, men have won at least 24 professional women’s sports titles and an innumerable number of unreported titles at the middle school, high school, and collegiate levels;

Whereas, in 2018, at least 300 high school-aged boys in the United States ran the 400-meter dash faster than the most decorated female Olympic champion in the world has run it in her lifetime; and

Whereas Executive Order 14201 (90 Fed. Reg. 9279; relating to keeping men out of women’s sports) emphasizes opposition to male competitive participation in women’s sports as “a matter of safety, fairness, dignity, and truth”: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate supports—

(1) observing “National Women’s Sports Week” as the week of June 23 through June 29, 2025, to recognize—

(A) the incredible expansion of opportunities for female athletes since the enactment of title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.); and

(B) the role of the provisions of law described in subparagraph (A) in guaranteeing equal athletic opportunities for members of both sexes; and

(2) marking the observance of National Women’s Sports Week with—

(A) appropriate programs and activities that—

(i) celebrate the contributions of individual female athletes in the United States;

(ii) honor the coaches and parents who support female athletes in the United States;

(iii) promote equal access to athletic opportunities for members of both sexes; and

(iv) support the commitment of the United States to supporting female athletes; and

(B) legislative efforts to protect single-sex sports.

SENATE RESOLUTION 296—CONDEMNING ANTISEMITISM AND RECENT ANTISEMITIC ATTACKS IN THE UNITED STATES

Mr. LANKFORD (for himself, Ms. ROSEN, Mr. BENNET, Mr. HICKENLOOPER, Mr. MCCORMICK, Mr. FETTERMAN, Mr. MORAN, Mr. THUNE, and Mr. SCHUMER) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

S. RES. 296

Whereas, on May 21, 2025, the American Jewish Committee organized an event at the Capital Jewish Museum in Washington, D.C., which brought together Jewish young professionals and diplomats from around the world and featured members of the Multifaith Alliance and IsraAID in a discussion of humanitarian diplomacy and how a coalition of organizations are working together in response to humanitarian crises throughout the Middle East and North Africa;

Whereas shortly after Sarah Milgrim and Yaron Lischinsky left the event, they were shot and murdered;

Whereas the suspect in that attack proceeded to enter the event inside the Capital Jewish Museum and told law enforcement, “I did it for Palestine, I did it for Gaza.”;

Whereas, as law enforcement escorted the suspect outside, he shouted, “Free Palestine”;

Whereas Sarah Milgrim, a Jewish American from Kansas and staff member at the Embassy of Israel in Washington, D.C., was committed to peacebuilding, passionate about people-to-people relations, dedicated to preserving the environment and all its life forms, a lay leader of American Jewish Committee Access, and a member of the American Jewish Committee-Mimouna Michael Sachs Fellowship for Emerging Leaders, where she was focused on advancing relations in the Middle East and North Africa;

Whereas Yaron Lischinsky, an Israeli-German dual citizen, moved from Jerusalem to work at the Embassy of Israel in Washington, D.C., where he focused on Middle East issues, and was passionate about creating connections between people and countries for the benefit of the region of the Middle East;

Whereas Sarah and Yaron met at the Embassy of Israel and fell in love in the aftermath of the October 7th terrorist attack by Hamas on Israel and were set to build a future together with a marriage proposal on the horizon;

Whereas immediately after the murder of Sarah Milgrim and Yaron Lischinsky, there was celebration of that attack on all major social media platforms, including calls for more violence and an increased presence of the phrases “what goes around comes around” and “long live the intifada”, as well as glorification and justification of that violence and characterization of the suspect in the attack as a hero;

Whereas, on June 1, 2025, in Boulder, Colorado, several individuals took part in a peaceful walk organized by “Run for Their Lives”, showing support for the hostages still held captive by Hamas;

Whereas during this walk, an individual shouted “Free Palestine” and threw 2 lit Molotov cocktails into the crowd, resulting in multiple injuries, including severe burns;

Whereas the murders of Sarah Milgrim and Yaron Lischinsky and the attack in Boulder, Colorado, were the result of antisemitism, extremism, and political violence, which are threats not only to Jewish individuals, but to all of society in the United States;

Whereas, following the attack in Boulder, Colorado, there was a similar celebration of that attack, and of the attacker, as occurred after the May 21, 2025, attack, on all major social media platforms, including praise of the suspect in the attack as a courageous figure and hero and encouraging additional violence;

Whereas, since the October 7, 2023, terrorist attack by Hamas on Israel, antisemitism has surged in the United States and around the world;

Whereas, according to the report published by the American Jewish Committee entitled “The State of Antisemitism in America 2024”—

(1) 77 percent of Jewish Americans say they feel less safe as a Jewish person in the United States because of the October 7, 2023, terrorist attack by Hamas on Israel;

(2) 56 percent of Jewish Americans say they altered their behavior out of fear of antisemitism in 2024, a sharp increase from previous years;

(3) 90 percent of Jewish Americans say antisemitism has increased in the United
