

(i) the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the Department of the Treasury; and

(ii) the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

(2) WAIVER.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—On application by an exporter, the Secretary may waive, prior to the date of the applicable contract, the prohibitions described in paragraph (1) with respect to the sale of liquefied natural gas or petroleum products.

(B) REQUIREMENT.—The Secretary may issue a waiver under this paragraph only if the Secretary determines that an imminent and acute national security emergency to the United States exists and that other means of responding to the emergency would be inadequate.

(C) APPLICATIONS.—An exporter seeking a waiver under this paragraph shall submit to the Secretary an application by such date, in such form, and containing such information as the Secretary may require.

(D) NOTICE TO CONGRESS.—Not later than 15 days after issuing a waiver under this paragraph, the Secretary shall provide a copy of the waiver to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate and the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the House of Representatives.

(3) RULEMAKING.—The Secretary may promulgate, amend, and rescind rules and regulations, as the Secretary determines to be appropriate, to carry out this section.

(c) ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS.—

(1) UNLAWFUL ACTS.—It shall be unlawful for a person to violate, attempt to violate, conspire to violate, or cause a violation of any prohibition of, or any waiver, license, order, or regulation issued pursuant to this section.

(2) CIVIL PENALTY.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may impose a civil penalty on any person who commits an unlawful act described in paragraph (1) in an amount not to exceed the greater of—

(i) $250,000,000; and

(ii) an amount that is twice the amount of the transaction that is the basis of the violation with respect to which the penalty is imposed.

(B) NOTICE AND OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING.—A civil penalty under subparagraph (A) may be imposed by the Secretary by an order made on the record after providing written notice to the person to be assessed the civil penalty and an opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this section and sections 554 through 557 of title 5, United States Code.

(C) CIVIL ACTION.—If a person described in subparagraph (A) fails to pay a civil penalty imposed by the Secretary under this paragraph after receiving notice and an opportunity for a hearing under subparagraph (B), the Secretary may bring a civil action against that person in an appropriate district court of the United States.

(D) RELIEF.—If a civil action brought by the Secretary under subparagraph (C) is successful, the applicable court may grant appropriate relief, including—

(i) a temporary injunction;

(ii) a permanent injunction; and

(iii) enforcing the civil penalties described in subparagraph (A).

(3) CRIMINAL PENALTY.—A person who knowingly commits, knowingly attempts to commit, or knowingly conspires to commit, or aids or abets in the commission of, an unlawful act described in paragraph (1) shall be fined not more than $100,000,000, imprisoned for not more than 20 years, or both.
