HONORING THE LIFE OF DAVID THOMAS PANGELINAN PEREZ

HON. AUMUA AMATA COLEMAN RADEWAGEN

OF AMERICAN SAMOA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mrs. RADEWAGEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of David Thomas Pangelinan Perez, who passed away on February 16, 2026. He is preceded by his wife, Maria Luisa Cruz Paulino, to whom he was married for 53 years; and survived by seven children, fifteen grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren. David was born in Guam on August 19, 1937. He retired as a Department of the Army civilian after 35 years of service, traveling on assignment in Asia, Europe, and throughout the U.S. After retiring he worked with the government of the Federated States of the Micronesia living in Pohnpei, and then in Guam and Tinian as an elementary school and Chamorro language teacher. He was one of the founding members of the Guam Society of America in Washington, D.C., serving as both president and treasurer. He was a WWII history buff and enjoyed watching Japanese historical dramas and Sumo. He was also his family's de-facto record keeper, with an extremely knowledgeable memory of the "Gollo" family genealogy. David was a bright and affable man, always able to bring smiles to those around him. He was a dear friend to me, as was his wife, Maria. I cherish his memory and kindness as he goes to his final resting place alongside her. He was beloved by many and will be sorely missed.

RECOGNIZING THE SERVICE OF MS. CAROLINE SAYERS

HON. ZACHARY NUNN

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mr. NUNN of Iowa. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an exceptional individual and valued member of my team, Ms. Caroline Sayers, as she concludes nearly three years of dedicated service to Iowa's 3rd Congressional District.

A proud native of Georgia and devoted University of Georgia Bulldogs fan, Caroline and I have shared a friendly rivalry since her first day on Team Nunn. While her Bulldogs wear red and black and mine wear Drake blue, our shared commitment to hard work, teamwork, and service quickly made Caroline an invaluable member of our team.

As our Senior Policy Advisor, Caroline became one of the most trusted and respected voices on our team. She led our work on some of the most consequential and complex financial services issues before Congress, including housing, banking, cryptocurrency, and artificial intelligence. Her expertise, diligence, and strategic leadership helped advance four pieces of legislation through the House this Congress alone.

Earlier this year, Caroline joined me on a congressional delegation trip to Taiwan, where we engaged key allies and partners to strengthen our national security, expand economic opportunities for Iowa producers, and reinforce America's commitment to a free and open Indo-Pacific.

Many of Caroline's contributions happened behind the scenes. Anyone who has watched a Financial Services Committee hearing knows I occasionally request a prop or visual aid with very little notice. Time and again, Caroline was the one tasked with making it happen—and somehow, she always delivered.

Beyond her impressive policy achievements, Caroline is a mentor to younger staff, a trusted colleague, and a steady presence in our office. Her professionalism, good humor, and unwavering commitment to public service left a lasting mark on Team Nunn and the constituents we serve.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in thanking Ms. Caroline Sayers for her outstanding service to Iowa's 3rd Congressional District. We are deeply grateful for her contributions, and we wish Caroline every success in the next chapter of her career and service.

RECOGNIZING THE RECIPIENTS OF THE 2026 NORTHERN VIRGINIA LEADERSHIP AWARDS

HON. JAMES R. WALKINSHAW

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mr. WALKINSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize the 2026 recipients of the Northern Virginia Leadership Awards presented by Leadership Fairfax.

Leadership Fairfax is a nonprofit corporation whose mission is to inspire, connect, develop, and engage the next generation of leaders in Northern Virginia, so that they are prepared to serve and strengthen our community. Over 2,500 alumni from their programs have become part of a fast-growing network of civic and business leaders in the region.

Each year, Leadership Fairfax recognizes individuals or organizations that have demonstrated exceptional leadership and made extraordinary contributions to our community. I include in the RECORD the following names of the 2026 Northern Virginia Leadership Awards recipients:

The Non-Profit Organization Leadership Award was presented to Dyslexic Edge, a nonprofit devoted to helping all students become a success because of their dyslexia, devoting time daily to recognizing, celebrating, and developing the gifts of each child instructed.

The Non-Profit Individual Leadership Award was presented to Joe Meyer, the Executive Director and CEO of Shelter House. Joe has put tremendous work forward to managing six major shelters in Northern Virginia, establishing strategies to end homelessness and domestic violence.

The Regional Leadership Award went to Imam Mohamed Magid, Resident Scholar at the ADAMS Center. At ADAMS, Imam Magid plays a vital role in guiding the community through education, spiritual growth, and advocacy. His work has empowered individuals and families across generations, and his efforts to foster inclusivity and unity have earned him deep respect across diverse communities.

The Trustee Leadership Award was presented to Sylvia Lambert-Woodard, the President and CEO of Pathway Homes. Her visionary leadership and steadfast commitment to community, stability, and collaboration across Northern Virginia have made a meaningful and lasting impact on our region—and continue to inspire those she serves.

The Educational Leadership Award will be presented to Mrs. Elizabeth Scheurer, Vice Principal of Herndon Elementary School. Her visionary leadership and unwavering dedication to fostering community, stability, and collaboration throughout Northern Virginia have created a lasting impact on our region and continue to inspire those around her.

The Youth Organization Leadership Award was presented to LAZERA 1 Brotherhood Empowered Teen Leadership Team. This Youth-Led program focuses on reducing the impact and exposure to trauma among youth aged 12–19 through cultural enrichment and civic engagement activities.

The Youth Individual Leadership Award was presented to Tucker Wright, Ambassador of Homestretch. At just 16 years old, Tucker Wright demonstrated extraordinary leadership and compassion through eight years of dedicated service to families experiencing homelessness.

The Corporate Leadership Award was presented to You've Got Maids of Northern Virginia. Their teams work with precision and pride, following a proven process perfected over 40 years. Their leadership and dedication continue to inspire our community.

Mr. Speaker, the contributions of these individuals and organizations are one of the reasons why Fairfax is such a sought-after community in which to live and work, and this year's honorees highlight the legacy of Leadership Fairfax in preparing our community's future leaders to address the challenges we face. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating these honorees and thanking them for their service to Northern Virginia.

RECOGNIZING AUGUSTINE GALAMBOS

HON. JOSEPH D. MORELLE

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mr. MORELLE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an exceptional young man from Rochester, New York, whose courage, resilience, and commitment to service have earned him admission to the United States Naval Academy: Augustine Galambos.

At a pivotal moment in his life, Augustine demonstrated remarkable bravery when his brother was involved in a life-threatening climbing accident. Faced with an extraordinary and frightening situation, he remained calm under pressure, acted decisively, and helped ensure his brother's safety. His composure, courage, and ability to respond effectively in a moment of crisis revealed a maturity and strength of character far beyond his years.

Rather than allowing that experience to define him, Augustine used it as inspiration to pursue a path dedicated to service and leadership. Drawn to the challenges and responsibilities that accompany military service, he sought an institution that would further develop his character while preparing him to lead in times of uncertainty. The United States Naval Academy provides that opportunity, offering a rigorous environment where his determination, discipline, and sense of duty will continue to grow.

Mr. Speaker, I am confident that Augustine Galambos will continue to distinguish himself as a Midshipman and future leader in service to our Nation. On behalf of the Rochester community, I congratulate him on this remarkable achievement and extend my very best wishes for continued success at the United States Naval Academy and beyond.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. MIKE HARIDOPOLOS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mr. HARIDOPOLOS. Mr. Speaker, had I been present, I would have voted NAY on Roll Call No. 215.

HONORING DONNA LYNNE EATON

HON. BRAD KNOTT

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mr. KNOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Donna Lynne Eaton, who passed away on June 1, 2026. She was only 58 years old, and she went home to be with the Lord she loved.

Born in Canada, Donna immigrated to the United States in 2003, became a naturalized citizen in 2023, and visited all 50 states, completing that milestone the same year she took her oath of citizenship. She was proud to be an American, while remaining proud of her Canadian heritage.

Donna was a devoted wife to Doug and a dedicated mother who homeschooled all four of her children: Ashley, Katie, Amy, and Eric. She volunteered alongside them to earn each child the Gold Presidential Volunteer Service Award, and she gave her time faithfully to TeenPact and the National Christian Forensics and Communications Association, investing in the next generation of Christian leaders and citizens.

Even before she could vote herself, she worked to bring others to the polls, believing that every citizen's voice mattered.

Mr. Speaker, Donna Lynne Eaton lived a life of faith, family, and service to this great Nation. We are grateful she was one of us.

RECOGNIZING FALUN Dafa MONTH AND THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF FALUN Dafa PRACTITIONERS IN VIRGINIA

HON. JAMES R. WALKINSHAW

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 10, 2026

Mr. WALKINSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Falun Dafa Month and to acknowledge the contributions of Falun Dafa practitioners in communities across Virginia and throughout the United States.

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the introduction of Falun Dafa to the Commonwealth of Virginia. Also known as Falun Gong, Falun Dafa is a spiritual practice rooted in meditation, exercise, and principles centered
