SWEARING IN OF THE HONORABLE CLAY FULLER, OF GEORGIA, AS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE

Mr. BISHOP. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the gentleman from Georgia, the Honorable Clay Fuller, be permitted to take the oath of office today.

His certificate of election has not arrived, but there is no contest and no question has been raised with regard to his election.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Georgia?

There was no objection.

The SPEAKER. Will the Representative-elect and the members of the Georgia delegation present themselves in the well.

All Members will rise and the Representative-elect will please raise his right hand.

Mr. FULLER appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office, as follows:

Do you solemnly swear that you will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that you will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that you take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that you will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which you are about to enter, so help you God.

The SPEAKER. Congratulations, you are now a Member of the 119th Congress.

WELCOMING THE HONORABLE CLAY FULLER TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. BISHOP. Mr. Speaker, as dean of Georgia's congressional delegation, I would like to extend a heartfelt welcome to the Honorable CLAY FULLER.

Welcome, CLAY.

Our delegation is diverse, and we are passionate about how we best represent the great State of Georgia. However, most of all, something I am very proud of is that we still find a way to work together across the aisle, even as we have our diverse interests, particularly when subjects impact the people of the great State of Georgia, wherever they might live, to make our State continue to be the best State in America to do business.

As co-chair of the bipartisan Congressional Military Family Caucus, I appreciate Mr. FULLER's background as an airman and air guardsman, and the tireless contributions of his family to help him get to where he is today. Congratulations, Kate, and your two beautiful children.

CLAY, I know that you will be a champion for rural Georgia, a passion that we can share in common. I look forward to the opportunities ahead to collaborate.

On a personal note, I am happy to see another Emory University alumnus and a practicing attorney join the ranks of public service in Congress from the great State of Georgia.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT), my dear friend and colleague from the Eighth Congressional District, my neighbor, the senior and longest serving Republican in the Georgia delegation.

Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I thank Congressman BISHOP for yielding. I will be brief before Mr. FULLER has his 10 words.

He is a district attorney from north Georgia. He has done an exceptionally good job there. He is still a JAG officer in the Georgia National Guard, and he brings a lot of valuable insight and experience to the House of Representatives. Let's hope we use it.

I am glad to introduce you to the newest member of the Georgia delegation of the United States Congress, Mr. CLAY FULLER, and his family.

Mr. FULLER. Mr. Speaker, I was actually told it was 5 words, not 10.

First off, I just want to say thank you to God. But for His grace, I wouldn't be here today. I want to say thank you to my wife, Kate, and my two children, Tallulah and Callum, here. I hope I am going to make you proud each and every day here.

I want to also say thank you to the friends and family who traveled all the way here to be with me today. I hope I make you proud.

To the hardworking people of Georgia 14 who elected me, you have sent a warrior to Congress, and I can't wait to fight for you each and every day.

To my Democratic colleagues, I look forward to working with each and every one of you.

Mr. Speaker, I am ready to get to work here. God bless you all.

RYE BROOK SENIORS

(Mr. LATIMER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LATIMER. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to recognize the exemplary programs for senior citizens offered by the village of Rye Brook.

Based at the Posillipo Center on Garibaldi Place, the Rye Brook seniors enjoy a wide and varied program that involves luncheons for nutritious purposes and companionship with a host of different programs: arts and crafts, games, special trips, and a schedule of special events for holidays like Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, and Easter.

The senior coordinator who also serves as the deputy village clerk, Liz Rotfeld, is ably assisted by Angie Storino.

Free transportation is provided for seniors who no longer are able to drive and still want to attend these events.

These programs have garnered support all across the village government, by Mayor Jason Klein, the village board, the outstanding village administrator, Chris Bradbury, and the assistance of this community.

From the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives, we salute the Rye Brook Senior Program and the village of Rye Brook for their service to the senior residents of their community.

HONORING AND REMEMBERING
ALBERTO COUTINHO

(Mrs. McIVER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. McIVER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor and remember the life of former New Jersey assemblyman and pillar of the New Jersey community, Alberto Coutinho, better know as Al Coutinho.

Born in my hometown of Newark, Mr. Coutinho was first elected as the 29th district assemblyman in 1997 at 27 years old. He was young, but he was already a central figure of New Jersey's Portuguese community.

He did so much good for so many. He was a public servant who fought for prison re-entry reforms, job creation, and expanding our parks. To many, he is remembered as a key organizer of the Portugal Day Festival.

When he wasn't serving the city in his legislative capacity, he was serving his community as a local soccer team coach. His love for the game also motivated his role as chairman and co-founder of the Ironbound Soccer Club, which is one of the many initiatives he led to promote amateur and semiprofessional soccer so our kids could grow in team building and work ethic.

I was heartbroken to hear of his passing in a car accident last month. My community was heartbroken too. I am praying for the Coutinho family and that our community carries his legacy by leading with passion and heart.

SPEAKER JOHNSON IN CAHOOTS WITH WHITE HOUSE

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to object as our House returns after an unconstitutional, 2-week, forced recess.

Rather than exercise his constitutional Article I duties, Speaker JOHNSON fell in step with warmongering hotheads in the executive branch. He failed to honor his constitutional oath and uphold the U.S. Constitution and Congress' defined powers in Article I. He gaveled the House out at a most profound moment in world and American history.

The U.S. Constitution is clear. Article I, Section 8 says that Congress shall have the power to declare war. It does not say may have power. It says: "The Congress shall have power."

Speaker JOHNSON ignored this provision.

Speaker JOHNSON also has allowed the executive branch to draw down billions upon billions of taxpayer dollars without consent of Congress.

Article I, Section 9, Clause 7 states: "No money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law."

Without a vote by Congress to authorize the war and appropriations spent, the Speaker is in violation of the Constitution to which he swore an oath.

Mr. Speaker, what the American people are witnessing is unconstitutional and unprecedented in the history of our Nation. I object.
