

half the size that it was? Could you imagine the affordability crisis that the American people would be in if we had followed those policies? Could you imagine what unemployment would be if we had half the economy that we have today?

It is reasonable to make that assumption if we were the same size as Europe—we are twice as big as they are—and if we hadn't grown like we have grown over the past several years.

Just the practicality of this—we know it can't be done by 2030. Probably in 2007, 2030 looked like the year it could be done. It can't be done by 2030.

Mr. Speaker, I think 435 of us here would look at it and say that it can't be done, so it shouldn't be on the books. Why put laws on the books that you can't comply with? That is what this is about.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to vote for H.R. 4690, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All time for debate has expired.

Pursuant to House Resolution 1189, the previous question is ordered on the bill, as amended.

The question is on the engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, and was read the third time.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mrs. SYKES. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion to recommit at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion to recommit.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mrs. Syles of Ohio moves to recommit the bill H.R. 4690 to the Committee on Energy and Commerce.

The material previously referred to by Mrs. SYKES is as follows:

Mrs. Sykes moves to recommit the bill H.R. 4690 to the Committee on Energy and Commerce with instructions to report the same back to the House forthwith, with the following amendment:

Add at the end the following:

SEC. 3. CERTIFICATION REQUIRED.

This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall not take effect until the date on which the Secretary of Energy publishes a certification that the War in Iran has not increased energy or gasoline prices in the United States.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 2(b) of rule XIX, the previous question is ordered on the motion to recommit.

The question is on the motion to recommit.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mrs. SYKES. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.

HOOR OF MEETING ON TOMORROW

Mr. GUTHRIE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that when the House adjourns today, it adjourn to meet at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Kentucky?

There was no objection.

RECESS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 12(a) of rule I, the Chair declares the House in recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Accordingly (at 2 o'clock and 17 minutes p.m.), the House stood in recess.

□ 1600

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. DESJARLAIS) at 4 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Proceedings will resume on questions previously postponed. Votes will be taken in the following order:

Adoption of H. Res. 1182;

The motion to recommit on H.R. 4690;

Passage of H.R. 4690, if ordered;

The motion to recommit on H.R. 6387; and

Passage of H.R. 6387, if ordered.

The first electronic vote will be conducted as a 15-minute vote. Pursuant to clause 9 of rule XX, remaining electronic votes will be conducted as 5-minute votes.

EXPRESSING SUPPORT FOR RURAL COMMUNITIES ACROSS THE UNITED STATES AS STEWARDS OF THE ENVIRONMENT, MAJOR SUPPLIERS OF UNITED STATES ENERGY RESOURCES, CRITICAL PROVIDERS OF FOOD PRODUCTION AND MANUFACTURING CAPACITY, AND DRIVERS OF NATIONAL ECONOMIC STABILITY, AND RECOGNIZING THE WORK OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN THE 119TH CONGRESS IN SUPPORT OF THOSE VITAL COMMUNITIES

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on adoption of the resolution (H. Res. 1182) expressing support for rural communities across the United States as stewards of the environment, major suppliers of the environment, major suppliers of United States energy resources, critical providers of food production and manufacturing capacity, and drivers of national economic stability, and recognizing the work of the House of Representatives in the 119th Congress in support of those vital communities, on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk read the title of the resolution.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on adoption of the resolution.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 220, nays 196, answered "present" 2, not voting 12, as follows:

ship that was rooted in faith, family, and a deep commitment to the people we represent.

I have known DAVID and his family for many years. My wife, Vivian, and I join countless Georgians in mourning his loss and in holding his loved ones close.

As leader of the House Committee on Agriculture, DAVID's voice was steady and compassionate. It was particularly poignant when in 2020, DAVID became the first African-American chair of the House Committee on Agriculture, a historic moment that reflected his years of principled leadership. He used that platform to fight for 1890 land-grant institutions and disadvantaged farmers who too often have been left behind, working tirelessly to secure resources for the agricultural producers, rural communities, and nutrition programs that sustain our State and our Nation.

DAVID's devotion to the larger agricultural community, from small family farms across Georgia to cooperative extensions and HBCU researchers, was personal and persistent. He understood that the health of our farms, the dignity of our workers, and the nourishment of our people are bound together. He labored each day to translate that understanding into results.

To Alfredia, his children, grandchildren, and all who loved him, words cannot fully express our sorrow. We will honor DAVID's memory by continuing the work that he loved—by standing with our farmers, defending nutrition programs, and fighting for opportunity for all.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT), my friend and colleague, for his remarks.

Mr. AUSTIN SCOTT of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, first I thank my friend and colleague, Congressman SANFORD BISHOP.

I knew DAVID over the course of three decades in the State legislature. We worked together on a lot of things, and he was just a good man. He will be missed.

I know we talked about his devotion to agriculture, and we talked about his devotion to Georgia. I also want you to know he was devoted to Jesus Christ. Many times, we parked in the same area, and we would walk to the airplane. In latter years, he would have a little help. I picked on him last time. I said: DAVID, you are still telling that good-looking lady that you can't run so she will come and get you every day and carry you to the airport. We had a good laugh over that.

In his briefcase—and there is no telling how long he had been carrying that briefcase—at the top of that briefcase always was his Bible.

I remember sitting on the plane. He was in 10D, and I was in 10E. As soon as you sit down, you have a little conversation. When the plane is about ready to take off, he would open that Bible and start reading it. I can tell you he read it day in and day out on that airplane. I remember literally picking up some of the pages one day when they fell out, and how I wish we all had that devotion.

He was a wonderful man. He will be missed by many, including me and my family.

Mr. BISHOP. Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues in the House to please rise for a moment of silence in memory of our colleague, Congressman DAVID SCOTT of Georgia.

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks all of those present in the Chamber, as well as Members and the staff throughout the Capitol, to please rise for a moment of silence in remembrance of the late Honorable DAVID SCOTT of Georgia.

RELIABLE FEDERAL INFRA-STRUCTURE ACT

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the unfinished business is the vote on the motion to recommit on the bill (H.R. 4690), to amend the Energy Conservation and Production Act to repeal certain Federal building energy efficiency performance standards, and for other purposes, offered by the gentlewoman from Ohio (Mrs. SYKES), on which the yeas and nays were ordered.

The Clerk will redesignate the motion.

The Clerk redesignated the motion. The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to recommit.

This is a 5-minute vote. The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 203, nays 214, not voting 13, as follows:

Mr. GARAMENDI changed his vote from "yea" to "present."

So the resolution was agreed to.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

IN MEMORY OF CONGRESSMAN DAVID SCOTT OF GEORGIA

(Mr. BISHOP asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BISHOP. Mr. Speaker, today, our country lost a dedicated public servant, as well as our State and the people of the 13th District of Georgia. We lost our friend and colleague, Congressman DAVID SCOTT of Georgia.

DAVID and I served side by side for decades, first in the Georgia General Assembly, later the House of Representatives here. We shared a friend-
