

man, Eisenhower, living on a farm ranch to the north of Oklahoma, suffered an infection. The doctor told his mother that because of how this infection set up in his leg, they needed to amputate. Young Eisenhower had his brother stand guard at the door and basically told him: Do not allow them to amputate my leg.

History recounts that the doctor stood at the door and said that it is murder, basically, if you don't amputate. They did an all-night prayer vigil. By that all-night prayer vigil, the Supreme Allied Commander, who would later become a commissioned officer to lead not only our country but the nations to overcome Hitler and the threat to a world that it was, what would have happened if he and his family did not believe in the power of prayer?

It is what led a young Eisenhower to become President Eisenhower, to do all the things that he did in terms of making sure that we had added "one Nation under God" as a part of our history, recent history. He believed that prayer was not just job preparation. It was the job, not only as President but as Supreme Allied Commander.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
