STATEMENTS ON INTRODUCED BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS

By Mr. SCHUMER (for himself, Mr. REED, Ms. KLOBUCHAR, Mr. COONS, Mr. SCHATZ, Ms. WARREN, Mr. BOOKER, Mr. VAN HOLLEN, Ms. DUCKWORTH, Mr. KELLY, Mr. KIM, Ms. BLUNT ROCHESTER, and Ms. ALSOBROOKS):

S. 4781. A bill to expand the mission of the Export-Import Bank of the United States and focus on building export-related domestic critical industries that produce goods and services that support employment in the United States and strengthen global competitiveness, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, the Make More in America Act—if we have learned anything from the past few years, it is that the American people will pay the price when wars, pandemics, and other shocks disrupt America's supply chains.

Today, I led Senate Democrats in introducing the Make More in America

Act, which will invest in American manufacturing to create jobs, lower costs, strengthen our national security, and build a more resilient economy. The Make More in America Act is going to help us face the challenges that China and other countries present, and we should move it as quickly as we can.

If the United States is going to continue to outcompete China, we need to make sure that the technologies that will define the 21st-century economy are made in American factories by American workers.

The U.S. Export-Import Bank has long helped American businesses stay competitive, and our bill will empower the Ex-Im Bank to provide even more support to building here at home the industries critical to our economy and our national security.

From COVID-19 to Trump's disastrous war with Iran, to China weaponizing our reliance on them for certain products, America cannot afford to depend on the unreliable when the security and prosperity of our people are at stake.

Our bill would rebuild American manufacturing, strengthen our supply chains to lower costs, and give us an edge over the Chinese Communist Party, all of which—all of which—should be bipartisan priorities.

For the good of the country, we can and must make progress on these issues as we reauthorize the Export-Import Bank this year.

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 4781

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
