

in 1992 during the Gulf War. A section of the beautiful park, the Sgt. Richard Parker Memorial Wing, pays tribute to a local hero who made the ultimate sacrifice in Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2007.

Every summer, the town celebrates its history and community spirit with Pierpole Days, a festival of parades, food, music, and family fun. The 2026 festival will surely be a memorable celebration of the people who for more than two centuries have pulled together, cared for one another, and built a community. I congratulate the town of Strong, ME, on this landmark anniversary.

RECOGNIZING THE MONTANA NATIONAL GUARD MILITARY AND FAMILY READINESS GROUP

• Mr. DAINES. Mr. President, today I have the honor to recognize the Montana National Guard Military and Family Readiness Group as Montanans of the Month.

For over a century, the Montana National Guard has stood strong in its commitment to serving both State and Nation. The Montana National Guard Military and Family Readiness Program also provides this group of soldiers and airmen with support and specialized programming as they grapple with the unique challenges and sacrifices they and their families face in order to serve our State and Nation.

Today, we recognize them for what they provide to our Montana families: their steadfast care to family wellness. Family programs provided by the Montana National Guard helps families become more resilient so they can thrive by equipping them with the support and resources they need to succeed.

Recently, the Montana Military and Family Readiness Programs, MFRP, received national recognition, finishing tied for first overall in the Nation for fiscal year 2025, according to National Guard Bureau evaluations. Under a rigorous grading system, Montana ranked second in Personnel and fifth in Program Execution, making Montana the only State in the Nation to place in the top five in both categories in the last 2 years.

Josh Jopling, Montana Guard Family Programs director, shared: "What inspires us every day is seeing the direct impact our programs have on families. Supporting them means strengthening the entire Montana National Guard. Our team is honored to serve these families and help ensure our soldiers and airmen can focus on the mission, knowing their loved ones are cared for."

Their efforts big and small make a tremendous impact on this esteemed group of servicemen and women, and their contributions will help Montanan's everywhere.

It is my distinct honor to recognize the Montana Military and Family

Readiness Program for its steadfast dedication and care for the families of those who sacrifice to protect our great State and Nation.●

RECOGNIZING SURVIVAL GARDEN SEEDS

• Mr. RISCH. Mr. President, as a member and former chairman of the Senate Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship, each month I recognize and celebrate the American entrepreneurial spirit by highlighting the success of a small business in my home State of Idaho. Today, I am proud to honor Survival Garden Seeds in Rigby as the Idaho Small Business of the Month for January 2026.

Jason Spahr and Daryl Ward started Survival Garden Seeds in April 2020 as a way to combat supply chain disruptions and food shortages. The small family business was inspired by the Victory Garden movement of World Wars I and II, which encouraged people to grow food at home to support their communities. As the business grew over the following years, Jason and his wife Arianne assumed leadership, transforming it into the Idaho-based operation it is today. Through Survival Garden Seeds, the couple and their team aim to help people become more self-reliant through gardening.

Starting with just 30 seed varieties in a small facility, Jason and his family handled all packaging and shipping for incoming orders. Thanks to their hard work and long hours, Survival Garden Seeds has grown to 23 employees and now offers over 400 different kinds of seeds.

In the 5 years since its founding, Survival Garden Seeds has evolved into a fully domestic manufacturing business, designing and building its own seed-packing equipment and managing production, packaging, and distribution under one roof. Their in-house process has helped secure partnerships with companies like Walmart and Amazon, fueling business growth, job creation, and greater supply chain reliability.

Survival Garden Seeds places a strong focus on using education to promote gardening techniques for long-term self-reliance. Jason, Arianne, and the team partner with local food banks, community gardens, and missions in Africa to teach sustainable gardening practices. They also regularly offer gardening and homesteading classes to Idahoans throughout the Rigby area.

Congratulations to Survival Garden Seeds and its team on being recognized as the Idaho Small Business of the Month for January 2026. Your dedication to excellence makes Idaho proud, and I look forward to your continued growth and success.●
