SEC. ____ (a) Not later than 14 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall conduct an investigation into all use of force incidents that have occurred in relation to any civil immigration or interior enforcement operation since January 20, 2025.

(b) The Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall conduct a timely, independent investigation of any subsequent use of force incidents that occur in relation to such operations.

(c) The Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall coordinate with Inspectors General of other agencies, including the Inspector General of the Department of Justice as necessary, to—

(1) assess whether Federal employees complied with applicable laws, regulations, and departmental policies in the course of civil immigration or interior enforcement operations;

(2) evaluate the adequacy of training, supervision, and command oversight provided to Federal employees in relation to civil immigration and interior enforcement operations; and

(3) recommend corrective actions, including but not limited to policy reforms, disciplinary measures, and referrals to the appropriate law enforcement authorities for criminal prosecution.

(d) The Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall coordinate with State and local law enforcement agencies on the investigations described in subsections (a) and (b), including by sharing information and evidence that may be relevant to concurrent State and local law enforcement investigations into use of force by a Federal employee.

(e) The Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security shall publish on a publicly available website the results of each independent investigation, addressing compliance with Federal law, regulations, and agency policies and, in cases where an investigation resulted in referral for criminal prosecution or a civil penalty and adverse action, a justification for each referral.

(f) If the Inspector General of the Department of Homeland Security fails to initiate the investigations described in subsection (a) by the date required, the Inspector General shall provide to Congress a daily in-person briefing, which shall be open to all Members of Congress and all congressional staff, on the status of such investigations until the date on which such investigations are initiated. The Inspector General may not use any annual or other type of leave during a period in which such briefings are required under this subsection, and, notwithstanding any other provision of law or regulation, none of the funds made available by this or any other Act may be used for travel by the Inspector General during such period. If the Inspector General fails to initiate such investigations by the date that is 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Inspector General shall be placed in a temporary status without duties and pay until the date on which such investigations are initiated.
