

“(iii) TREATMENT OF SOCIAL SECURITY BILL OF OTHER HOUSE.—If one House fails to introduce or consider a Social Security bill under this section, the Social Security bill of the other House shall be entitled to the floor procedures under this section.

“(iv) TREATMENT OF IDENTICAL COMPANION MEASURES IN EITHER HOUSE.—If, following passage of a Social Security bill in one House, that House then receives an identical companion bill from the other House, the Social Security bill of the other House shall not be debatable. The vote on passage of the Social Security bill in the House receiving the Social Security bill shall be considered to be the vote on passage of the Social Security bill received from the other House.

“(v) TREATMENT OF DIFFERENT MEASURES IN EITHER HOUSE.—If, following passage of a Social Security bill in one House, that House then receives a Social Security bill from the other House that is different from the Social Security bill passed by that House, the Social Security bill passed by the other House shall be entitled to the floor procedures under this section.

“(vi) VETOES.—If the President vetoes the Social Security bill, consideration on a veto message in either House under this section shall be limited to 1 hour equally divided between the Majority and Minority Leaders or their designees.

“(4) SUSPENSION.—No motion to suspend the application of this subsection shall be in order in the Senate or in the House of Representatives.

“(d) DECENNIAL REVIEW.—

“(1) REVIEW.—If the Social Security Board of Trustees submits a report to Congress pursuant to section 201(c)(2) that finds that the Trust Funds are not able to pay 100 percent of scheduled benefits for a period of at least 50 years that begins on the date such report is submitted, the Social Security Board of Trustees shall notify the Social Security Advisory Board.

“(2) REPORTS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If a Social Security bill is enacted into law under this section, the following shall apply:

“(i) MANDATORY REPORTS.—If the Social Security Advisory Board receives a notice described in paragraph (1) during a covered year, the Social Security Advisory Board shall submit to Congress a report including recommendations and proposed legislative language that meets the requirements of subsection (b)(1).

“(ii) DISCRETIONARY REPORTS.—If the Social Security Advisory Board receives a notice described in paragraph (1) during a calendar that is not a covered year, the Social Security Advisory Board may submit to Congress a report described in clause (i).

“(B) COVERED YEAR DEFINED.—In this paragraph, the term ‘covered year’ means calendar year 2037 and every 10 years thereafter.

“(3) CONSIDERATION.—If Congress receives a report described in paragraph (2)(A)(i), Congress shall consider the recommendations and proposed legislative language pursuant to the process described in subsection (c), except that the dates described in such subsection and subsection (b) shall apply in the calendar year that such report is submitted.”.

SUBMITTED RESOLUTIONS

SENATE RESOLUTION 802—HONORING AND CELEBRATING NATIONAL BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB WEEK

Mrs. BRITT (for herself and Mr. WARNOCK) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

S. RES. 802

Whereas the young people of the United States are the leaders of tomorrow;

Whereas many young people seek out-of-school programming as a safe place to connect with caring staff that help young people achieve their full potential;

Whereas there are more than 5,500 Boys and Girls Clubs in the 50 States, Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, American Samoa, the United States Virgin Islands, and United States military bases around the world, that serve more than 4,200,000 young people annually through more than 2,600 school-based clubs in rural, urban, and suburban communities, and partnerships with more than 250 Tribal communities;

Whereas the Boys and Girls Clubs of America do whatever it takes to ensure every young person in the United States has the skills needed to graduate high school and be well-prepared for life and work;

Whereas, through programs that encourage career readiness, leadership development, science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM) skills, academic achievement, life skills, financial literacy, and civics education, the Boys and Girls Clubs of America help youth develop the skills needed to succeed in the economy; and

Whereas the Boys and Girls Clubs, with more than 5,500 Boys and Girls Clubs of America and millions of students and alumni nationwide, will celebrate the week of June 22 through June 26, 2026, as National Boys and Girls Club Week: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) calls on the people of the United States to celebrate National Boys and Girls Club Week; and

(2) encourages the people of the United States to recognize and commend the Boys and Girls Clubs of America for building great futures for youth in communities throughout the United States.

SENATE RESOLUTION 803—CONGRATULATING THE 2025-2026 CAROLINA HURRICANES FOR WINNING THE STANLEY CUP

Mr. BUDD (for himself and Mr. TILLIS) submitted the following resolution; which was considered and agreed to:

S. RES. 803

Whereas the Carolina Hurricanes dominated their rivals throughout the 2026 Stanley Cup playoffs, finishing the playoffs with a postseason record of 16-3;

Whereas, on June 14, 2026, the Carolina Hurricanes defeated the Vegas Golden Knights in the Golden Knights's home arena in game 6 of the Stanley Cup Final, winning the series 4-2;

Whereas, with this victory, the Carolina Hurricanes won their second ever Stanley Cup, coming 20 years after their first Stanley Cup;

Whereas the team was led by legendary Head Coach Rod Brind'Amour, who, 20 years ago, was captain of the team during their first Stanley Cup run;

Whereas Captain Jordan Staal scored 6 goals in the Stanley Cup Finals, including at least 1 goal in each of the first 5 games of the series, and was awarded the Conn Smythe Trophy as the most valuable player of the Stanley Cup Playoffs;

Whereas this winning season was also made possible by General Manager Eric Tulsy and every member of the Carolina Hurricanes organization;

Whereas there have been reports of “Storm Surge” across the Carolinas since game 6 as the “Caniacs” celebrate their hard-earned victory; and

Whereas the Carolina Hurricanes are active in their community through programs supporting children and families, military servicemembers, and public safety personnel across North Carolina: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate congratulates the 2026 Stanley Cup champions, the Carolina Hurricanes.

SEC. ____ . AIR TRAFFIC-COLLEGIATE TRAINING INITIATIVE PROGRAM IMPROVEMENTS.

(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

(1) ADMINISTRATOR.—The term “Administrator” means the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration.

(2) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CONGRESS.—The term “appropriate committees of Congress” means the Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate and the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the House of Representatives.

(3) COMPTROLLER GENERAL.—The term “Comptroller General” means the Comptroller General of the United States.

(4) FAA.—The term “FAA” means the Federal Aviation Administration.

(b) AIR TRAFFIC-COLLEGIATE TRAINING INITIATIVE PROGRAM IMPROVEMENTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 44506(c) of title 49, United States Code, is amended to read as follows:

“(c) AIR TRAFFIC-COLLEGIATE TRAINING INITIATIVE AND ENHANCED AIR TRAFFIC-COLLEGIATE TRAINING INITIATIVE.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration shall maintain the Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative program and the Enhanced Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative program (in this section referred to as the ‘Enhanced Initiative’) to support the recruitment, education, and hiring of well-qualified developmental air traffic controllers.

“(2) SPECIAL RULES FOR THE ENHANCED INITIATIVE.—

“(A) REQUIREMENTS.—In maintaining the Enhanced Initiative under paragraph (1), the Administrator shall, at a minimum—

“(i) select and coordinate with accredited institutions of higher education (as defined in section 61.1 of title 14, Code of Federal Regulations), as determined by the Administrator, that administer an accredited air traffic curriculum to undergraduate students, to prepare students for the position of air traffic controller with the Department of Transportation (as defined in section 2109 of title 5);

“(ii) establish standards for the entry and participation of accredited institutions of higher education into the program; and

“(iii) solicit applications from, and provide guidance to, interested accredited institutions of higher education that administer an accredited air traffic curriculum to undergraduate students, including accredited institutions that participate in the Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative, to foster participation of qualified accredited institutions in the Enhanced Initiative.

“(B) SELECTION CRITERIA.—Prior to selecting an accredited institution of higher education for participation in the Enhanced Initiative, the Administrator shall—

“(i) consider the air traffic curriculum of the institution, including the institution’s access to air traffic educational resources and Federal Aviation Administration air traffic facilities and equipment;

“(ii) certify that each accredited institution of higher education seeking to participate in the Enhanced Initiative has a qualified air traffic curriculum that provides, at a minimum, an equivalent level of education and training for air traffic controller trainees to that provided at the Federal Aviation Administration Academy; and “(iii) certify that all evaluations of students at accredited institutions of higher education seeking to participate in the Enhanced Initiative shall be conducted by evaluators that are approved and certified by the Federal Aviation Administration.

“(3) APPOINTMENT OF PROGRAM GRADUATES.—The Administrator may appoint an individual who has successfully completed a course of training in a program described in paragraph (1) to the position of air traffic controller noncompetitively in the excepted service (as defined in section 2103 of title 5).”.

(2) FAA AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL TRAINING AVIATION RULEMAKING COMMITTEE.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The Administrator shall convene an aviation rulemaking committee to—

(i) review the curricula of the air traffic technical training academy of the FAA, including its use in the Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative program and the Enhanced Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative program;

(ii) review the on-the-job training, development, evaluation, and certification of certified professional controllers;

(iii) develop findings and recommendations regarding the improvement and modernization of such curricula and training; and

(iv) provide to the Administrator a report on such findings and recommendations and for other related purposes as determined by the Administrator.

(B) COMPOSITION.—The aviation rulemaking committee established under subparagraph (A) shall consist of members appointed by the Administrator, including representatives of—

(i) institutions of higher education that are accredited by the Aviation Accreditation Board International;

(ii) aviation industry organizations;

(iii) FAA subject matter experts;

(iv) military and commercial operators of aircraft, helicopters, and powered-lift aircraft;

(v) the exclusive bargaining representative of the air traffic controllers certified under section 7111 of title 5, United States Code;

(vi) organizations representing certified collective bargaining representatives of airline pilots;

(vii) representatives of accredited institutions of higher education participating in the Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative program and the Enhanced Air Traffic-Collegiate Training Initiative program;

(viii) aviation safety experts, including those from outside the FAA; and

(ix) any other stakeholder determined appropriate by the Administrator.

(C) CONSIDERATIONS.—The aviation rulemaking committee established under subparagraph (A) shall consider the following:

(i) The advancements in education technology, including digital resources and augmented reality or virtual reality capabilities, that may be incorporated into a modern curriculum and training.

(ii) The appropriate balance between the use of theoretical knowledge and practical application.

(iii) A review of instructional techniques to improve the effectiveness of learning outcomes.

(iv) The real-world applicability of air traffic operations procedures included in the curriculum and training.

(v) Student success rates, including outcomes of air traffic controller trainees when placed at facilities for on-the-job training.
