

Ricketts, Shelley Moore Capito, Bill Hagerty, Todd Young, John R. Curtis.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the mandatory quorum call under rule XXII has been waived.

The question is, Is it the sense of the Senate that debate on the motion to proceed to S. 4668, a bill to protect the name, image, and likeness rights of, and provide protections for, student athletes and to promote fair competition among intercollegiate athletics, and for other purposes, shall be brought to a close?

The yeas and nays are mandatory under the rule.

The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. DURBIN. I announce that the Senator from Delaware (Mr. COONS) and the Senator from Nevada (Ms. ROSEN) are necessarily absent.

The yeas and nays resulted—yeas 74, nays 24, as follows:

MORNING BUSINESS

ARMS SALES NOTIFICATION

Mr. RISCH. Mr. President, section 36(b) of the Arms Export Control Act requires that Congress receive prior notification of certain proposed arms sales as defined by that statute. Upon such notification, the Congress has 30 calendar days during which the sale may be reviewed. The provision stipulates that, in the Senate, the notification of proposed sales shall be sent to the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

In keeping with the committee's intention to see that relevant information is still available to the full Senate, I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD the notifications that have been received. If the cover letter references a classified annex, then such an annex is available to all Senators in the office of the Foreign Relations Committee, room SD-423.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, DC.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTIFICATION TRANSMITTAL LETTER

Please find enclosed the following notification from the Department of State.

Department Notification Number: RSAT 26-1B.

Pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 36(b)(5)(C) of the Arms Export Control Act (AECA), as amended, we are forwarding Transmittal No. 26-1B. This notification relates to enhancements or upgrades from the level of sensitivity of technology or capability described in the Section 36(b)(1) AECA certification 18-43 of November 27, 2018.

Recipients:

Speaker of the House of Representatives
House Committee on Foreign Affairs
Senate Committee on Foreign Relations
Sincerely,

KAITLYN WOLFE,
Senior Bureau Official,
Bureau of Legislative Affairs.

TRANSMITTAL NO. 26-1B

Report of Enhancement or Upgrade of Sensitivity of Technology or Capability (Sec. 36(b)(5)(C), AECA)

(i) Prospective Purchaser: Government of Qatar.

(ii) Sec. 36(b)(1), AECA Transmittal No.: 18-43, Date: November 27, 2018; Implementing Agency: Air Force.

Funding Source: National Funds.

(iii) Description: On November 27, 2018, Congress was notified by congressional certification transmittal number 18-43 of the possible sale, under Section 36(b)(1) of the Arms Export Control Act, of forty (40) AIM 120C-7 Advanced Medium Range Air-to-Air Missiles (AMRAAM); and one (1) spare AIM 120C-7 AMRAAM guidance section. The following non-major defense equipment (MDE) items were also included: spare AIM-120C-7 control section; AMRAAM Captive Air Training Missile (CATM-120C); missile containers; classified software for the AN/MPQ-64F1 sentinel radar; spare and repair parts; cryptographic and communication security devices; precision navigation equipment; other software; site surveys; weapons system equipment and computer software support; publications and technical documentation; common munitions and test equipment; repair and return services and equipment; personnel training and training equipment; integration support and test equipment; U.S. government and contractor, engineering, technical, and logistics support services; and other related elements of logistical and program support. The estimated total cost was $215 million. MDE constituted $95 million of this total.

On October 1, 2019, Congress was notified by congressional certification transmittal number 19-0J of the inclusion of up to eighty additional (80) AIM-120C-7 missiles; one hundred twenty (120) AIM-120C-7 ER missiles; and thirteen (13) Multifunction Information Distribution System Low Volume Terminal (MIDS-LVT) Block Upgrade 2. The following non-MDE items were also included: associated materiel, support, and services. The estimated MDE value was increased by $461 million to a revised $556 million. The estimated non-MDE value was increased by $16 million to a revised $136 million. The estimated total case value was increased by $477 million to a revised $692 million.

This transmittal notifies the inclusion of the following MDE items: eight hundred (800) AIM-120C-7 or AIM-120C-8 AMRAAMs; and fifty (50) AIM-120C-7 or AIM-120C-8 AMRAAM guidance sections. The following non-MDE items will also be included: AMRAAM support equipment; and other related elements of program and logistics support. The estimated total value of the new items is $2.09 billion. The estimated MDE value will increase by $1.97 billion to a revised $2.526 billion. The estimated non-MDE value will increase by $0.12 billion to a revised $0.256 billion. The estimated total case value will increase by $2.09 billion to a revised $2.782 billion.

(iv) Significance: This notification accounts for requested additional MDE and non-MDE items not included in the original notification. The inclusion of this MDE and non-MDE represents an increase in capability over what was previously notified. This proposed sale improves Qatar's defense capability to deter regional threats and strengthen its homeland defense. The National Advanced Surface to Air Missile System capability would provide a full range of protection from imminent hostile cruise missile, unmanned aerial vehicle, rotary wing, and fixed wing threats.

(v) Justification: This proposed sale will support the foreign policy and national security objectives of the United States by helping to improve the security of a friendly country that continues to be an important force for political stability and economic progress in the Middle East.

(vi) Sensitivity of Technology:

The Sensitivity of Technology Statement contained in the original notification applies to the additional items reported here.

The highest level of classification of defense articles, components, and services included in this potential sale is SECRET.

(vii) Date Report Delivered to Congress: July 6, 2026.

POLICY JUSTIFICATION

Kuwait—C-17 Sustainment

The Government of Kuwait has requested to buy the following non-major defense equipment: major and minor modification equipment and support; aircraft components parts, and accessories; instruments and lab equipment; spares and repair parts, consumables and accessories, and repair and return support; ground handling equipment; unclassified Computer Program Identification Numbers; pyrotechnics equipment; cartridges, chaffs, and flares; communications equipment; electrical items support equipment; classified and unclassified software and software support, classified and unclassified publications and technical documentation; clothing, textiles, and individual equipment; personnel training and training equipment; jet fuel; U.S. Government and contractor engineering, technical, and logistics support services; and other related elements of logistics and program support. The estimated total cost is $484 million.

This proposed sale will support the foreign policy and national security objectives of the United States by improving the security of a major non-NATO ally that has been an important force for political stability and economic progress in the Middle East.

The proposed sale will improve Kuwait's capability to meet current and future threats by ensuring the operational readiness of its C-17 fleet. Kuwait's C-17 fleet provides strategic airlift capabilities that directly support U.S. and coalition operations around the world. Kuwait will have no difficulty absorbing these articles and services into its armed forces.

The proposed sale of this equipment and support will not alter the basic military balance in the region.

The principal contractor will be The Boeing Company, located in Arlington, VA. At this time, the U.S. Government is not aware of any offset agreement proposed in connection with this potential sale. Any offset agreement will be defined in negotiations between the purchaser and contractor.

Implementation of this proposed sale will not require the assignment of any additional U.S. Government or contractor representatives to Kuwait.

There will be no adverse impact on U.S. defense readiness as a result of this proposed sale.
