

upon the table with no intervening action or debate; that no further motions be in order to the nomination; and that the President be immediately notified of the Senate's action and the Senate then resume legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WYDEN. Madam President, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The Senator from Oregon.

Mr. WYDEN. Madam President, just very briefly, because my friend is on the floor, I think we both agree that this position needs to be filled. What I am so troubled by is, on issue after issue, where we needed to see experience and savvy in concrete areas to do what Ben Franklin said—Ben Franklin said we need security and liberty, and smart policies will give you both. And, unfortunately, in the questions that I and others asked of this nominee, he simply had no involvement in the past in these questions.

For that reason, I continue to believe that this nomination is a mistake, and it is why I am opposing the nomination tonight.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Ohio.

Mr. MORENO. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent to speak for up to 3 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

APPOINTMENT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, on behalf of the Majority Leader; pursuant to the provisions of the Public Law 118-49, and in consultation with the Chairman of the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate and the Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate, appoints the following individuals to serve as members of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) Reform Commission: the Honorable TED BUDD of North Carolina, John Demers of Virginia, Stewart Baker of Virginia.

HOUSING FOR THE 21ST CENTURY ACT

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. MORENO. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that if cloture is invoked, the filing deadline with respect to the second-degree amendments to substitute amendment No. 4308 of Calendar No. 343, H.R. 6644, be at 12 noon on Tuesday, March 10.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. MORENO. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding rule XXII, all postcloture time be expired and the Senate vote on confirmation of the Rudd nomination at 12 noon tomorrow, and if any nominations are confirmed during Tuesday's session of the Senate, the motion to reconsider be considered made and laid upon the table and the President be immediately notified of the Senate's actions.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

REMEMBERING BOB HARLAN

Ms. BALDWIN. Madam President, I rise today to pay tribute to the life and legacy of Bob Harlan, the longtime president and chief executive officer of the Green Bay Packers, whose leadership left an indelible mark on one of America's most historic sports franchises and on Packers fans across Wisconsin and the Nation.

Mr. Harlan passed away on March 5 at the age of 89, leaving behind a legacy that extends beyond the gridiron. During his illustrious tenure with the Packers, which spanned nearly four decades—including nearly two decades as president and CEO—Mr. Harlan was instrumental in guiding the organization through one of the greatest turn-arounds in the history of professional sports and cementing the long-term stability of one of the NFL's most unique community-owned football organizations in the country.

When Mr. Harlan joined the Packers organization in 1989, the organization was facing significant competitive and financial challenges. Mr. Harlan's decision to bring Ron Wolf into the organization as the general manager marked the beginning of the Packers' turnaround, which saw the organization bring in the likes of Brett Favre and other Hall of Famers to Green Bay, culminating in the organization's first championship in nearly three decades in Super Bowl XXXI.

However, Mr. Harlan's vision for the Green Bay Packers football organization went far beyond the realm of merely winning games. He recognized that for the Packers and for the small town of Green Bay to thrive in the highly competitive realm of professional sports in the 21st century, they had to lay the groundwork for the long-term stability of the organization for generations to come. Mr. Harlan was instrumental in guiding the $295 million renovation of Lambeau Field, which restored the historic stadium as one of the finest in the country.

Equally important is the fact that Mr. Harlan bolstered the unique concept of community ownership that is the hallmark of the Green Bay Packers with his efforts, which included the team's stock sale and the team's investment in facilities such as the Don Hutson Center. This is definitive proof that a small-market team, owned by its fans, could not only survive but thrive in the NFL. The Packers are more than a football team to the people of Wisconsin; they are a tradition that brings people together. This tradition is not limited to the people of Green Bay; it is felt throughout the State of Wisconsin. Mr. Harlan knew this, and it was his steady leadership that protected an institution that belongs to the people of the State of Wisconsin.

In recognition of his outstanding contributions to the team, Mr. Harlan was inducted into the Packers Hall of Fame and the Wisconsin Athletic Hall of Fame. These honors are a testament to his outstanding contributions to the world of sports. Today, the Green Bay community remembers Mr. Harlan not only as an outstanding individual in the world of sports, but also as the individual responsible for protecting an American tradition that will continue to thrive through the Green Bay Packers.

On behalf of the people of Wisconsin and Packers fans everywhere, I extend my deepest condolences to Bob Harlan's wife Madeline, his family, and the entire Packers organization. His legacy will live on in the gameday roar of Lambeau Field and in the enduring spirit of the Green Bay Packers.

TRIBUTE TO JULIUS CAMPBELL

Ms. BALDWIN. Madam President, I rise today to recognize the exceptional career and life of Julius Campbell. Mr. Campbell is a pillar of the Milwaukee community, and he has left an indelible mark on the lives of many. From serving in the Navy during World War II to his early career as a third-grade teacher for Milwaukee Public Schools to the founding his own church, Mr. Campbell has put his faith in action through a lifetime service to his community and Nation.

Mr. Campbell is a man of deep faith, following a call to preach from a very young age. When founding his first church in 1958, he aimed to focus his work on inspiring and guiding younger generations. Mr. Campbell prides himself on serving God by helping families in need across his community.

Mr. Campbell became a Milwaukee crossing guard at 69 years of age, and he has spent the last 30 years providing parents with a sense of comfort, joy, and trust as their children pass through Mr. Campbell's crosswalk on their way to school. At Yeshiva Elementary School on Milwaukee's Northwest Side, Mr. Campbell is a constant in the students' daily routines, and they are often seen running to his crosswalk just to wish him good morning. Mr. Campbell recently celebrated his 100th birthday, yet has no plans to retire. Instead, he hopes to continue serving his community by helping Milwaukee's students safely cross the street.

I am pleased to recognize the contributions Mr. Campbell has made to the people of Milwaukee, the State of Wisconsin, and our Nation.
